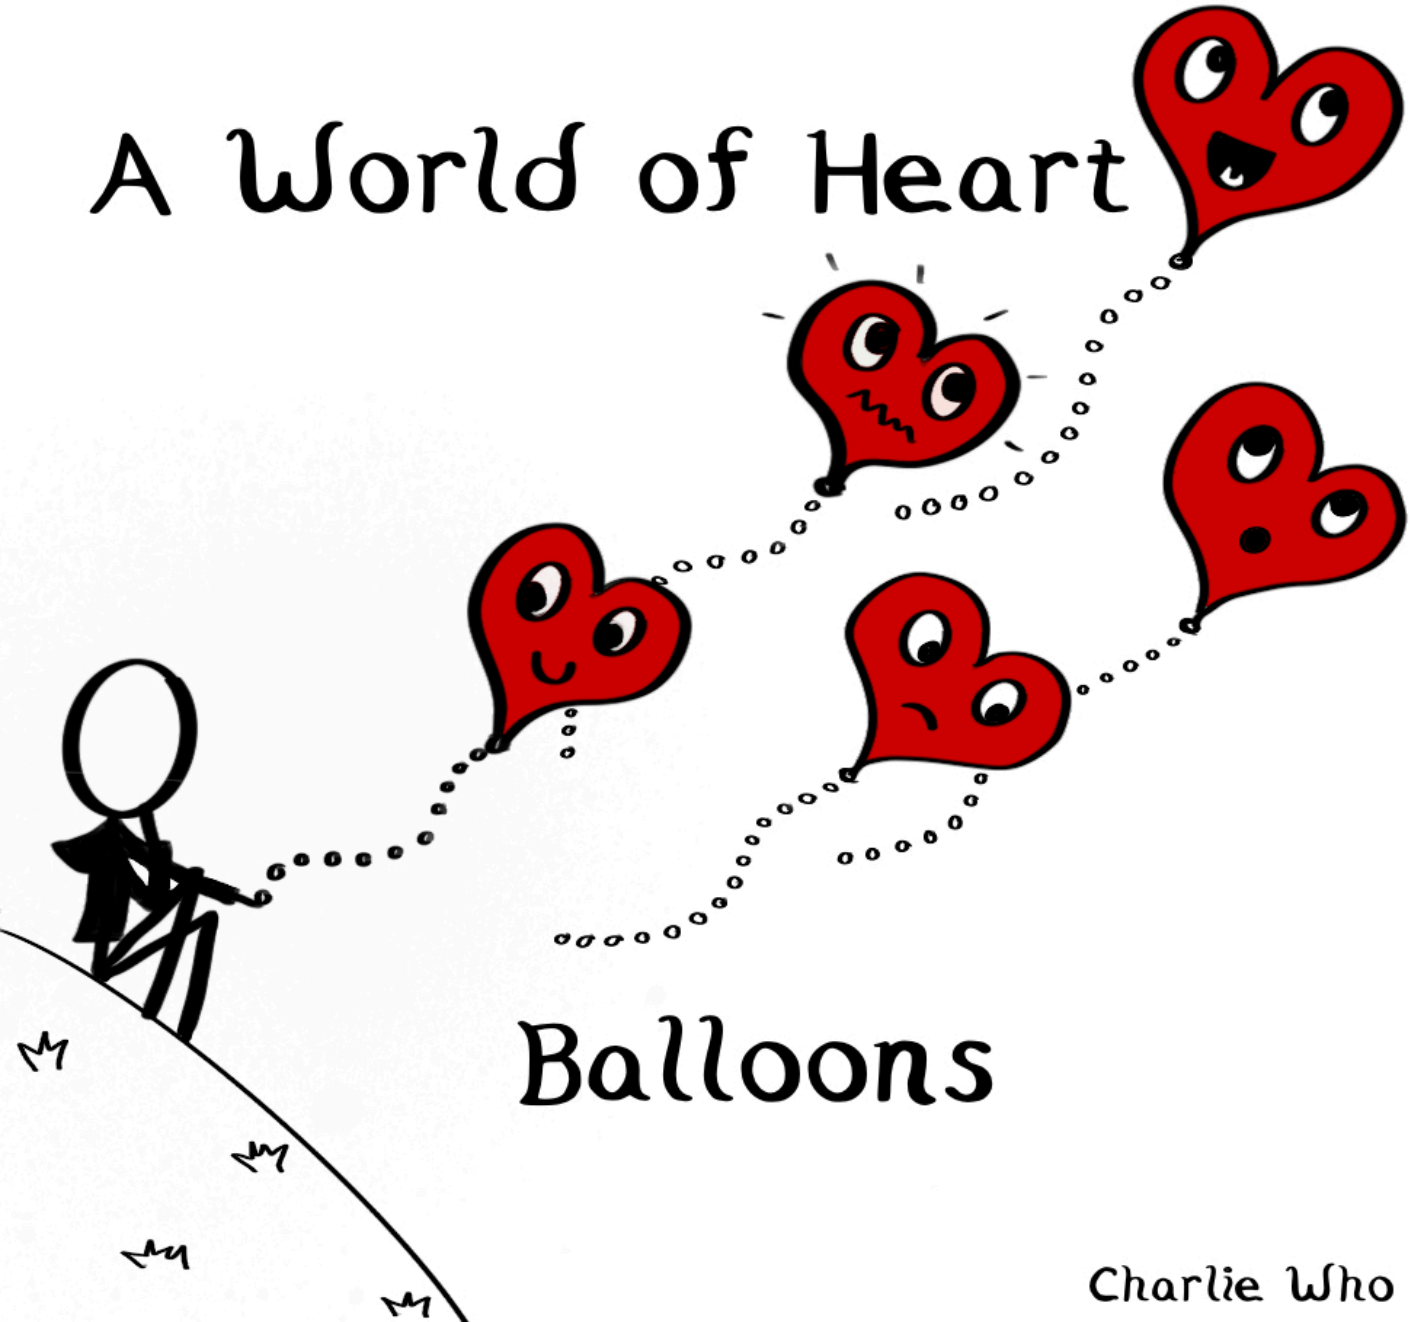
A World of Heart Balloons



Charlie Who

In this world, everyone has a
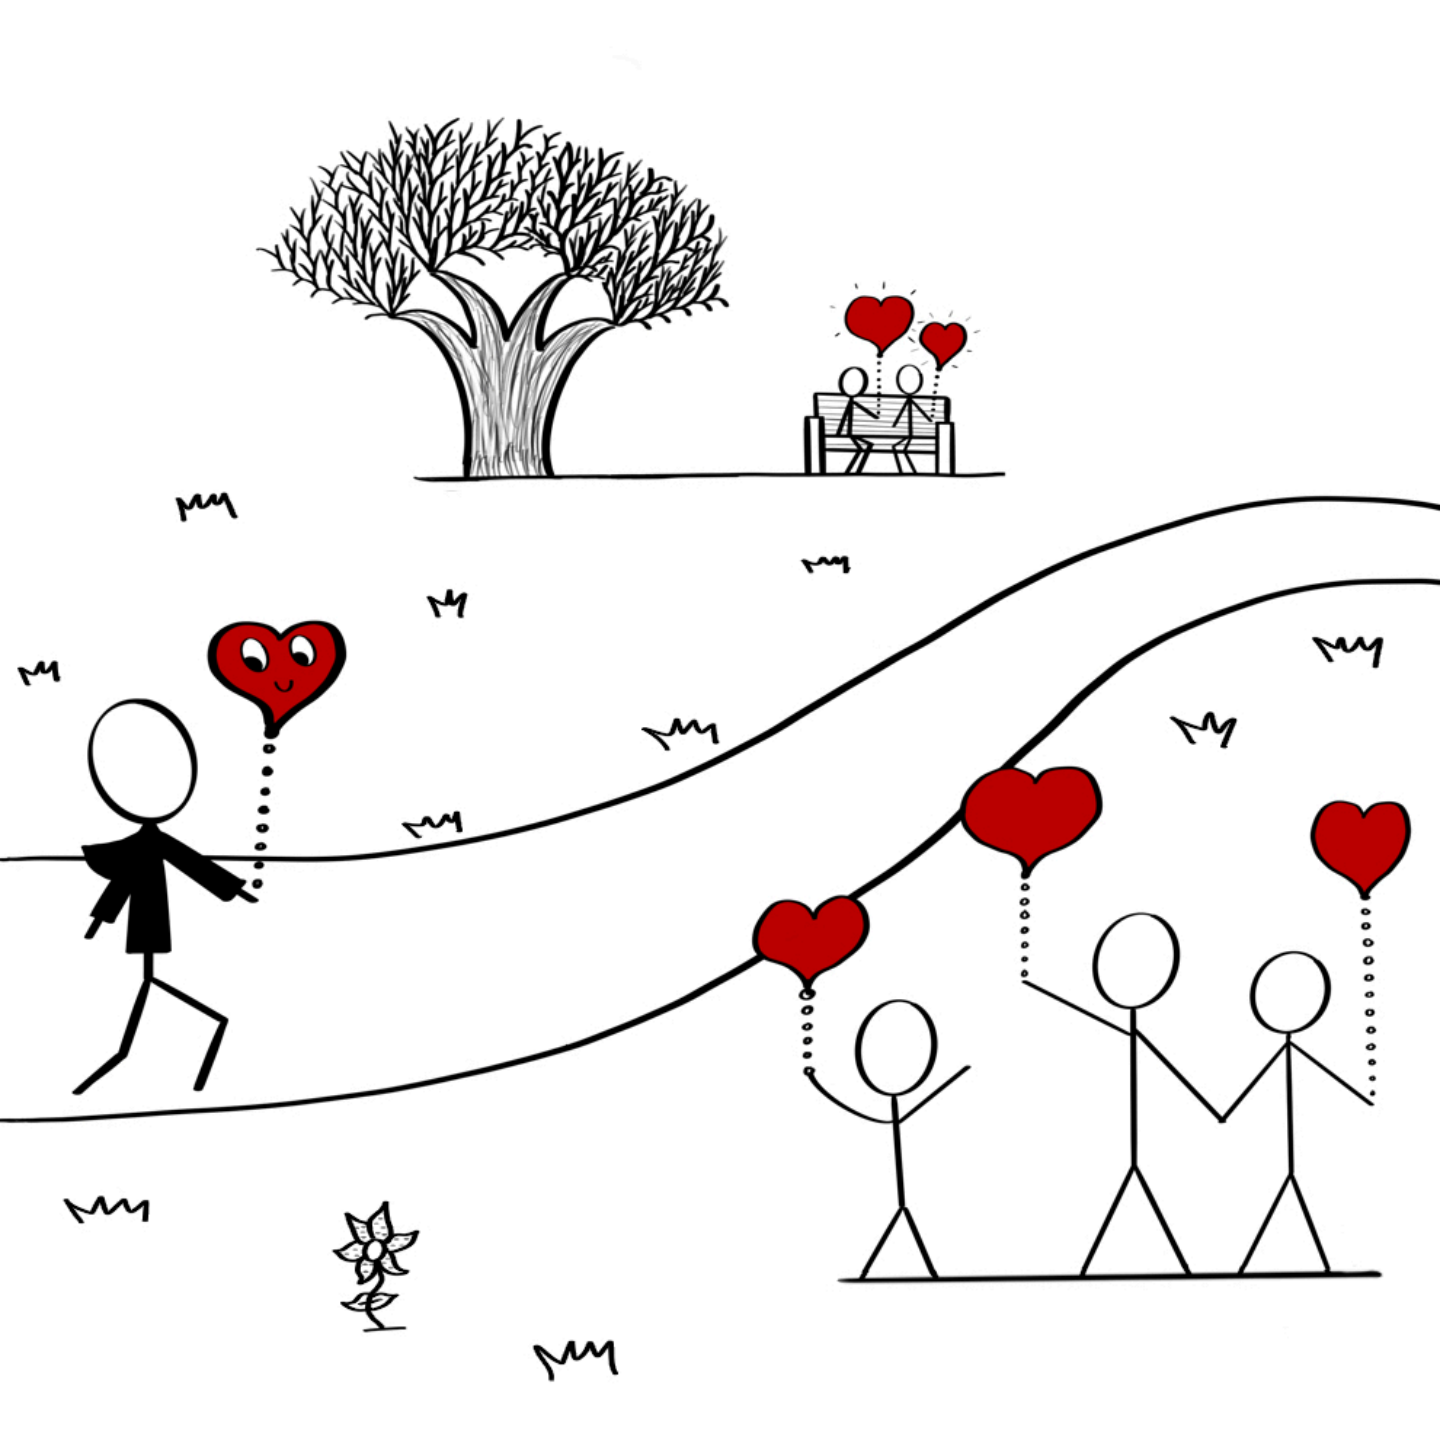
heart balloon

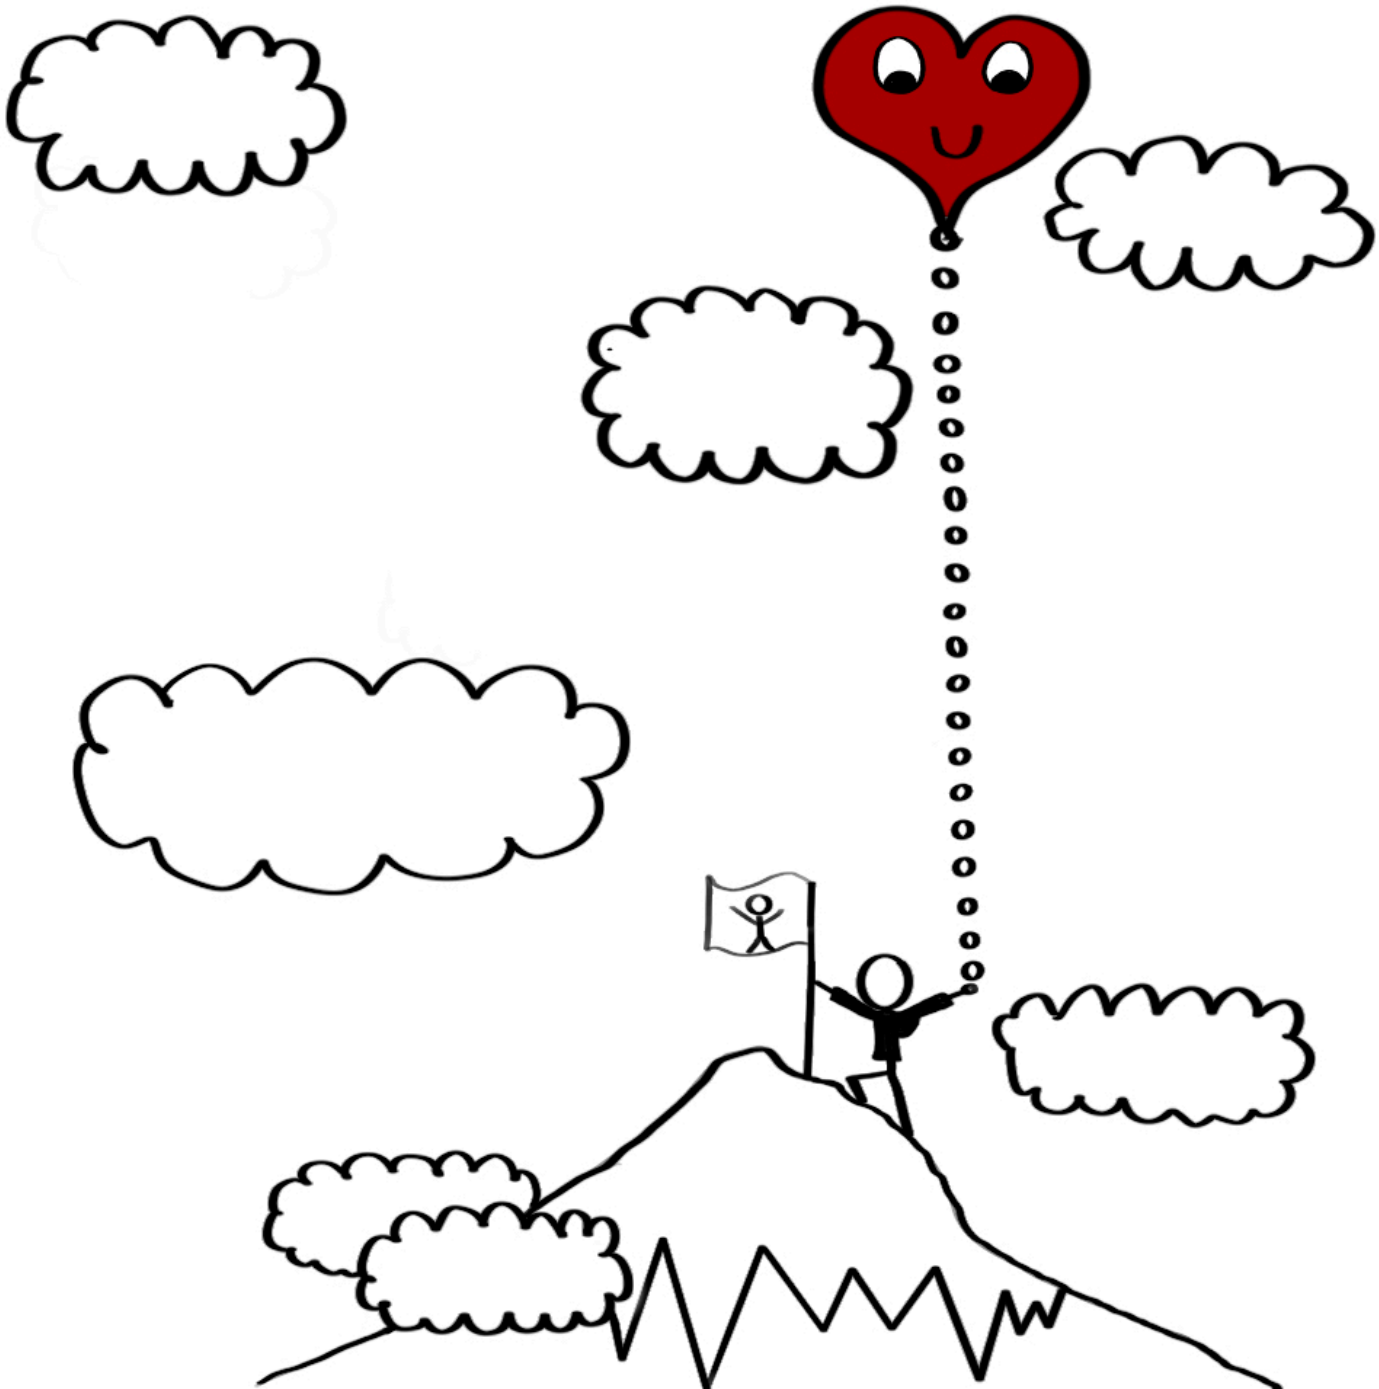
And I love mine



A heart balloon

floats high in the sky

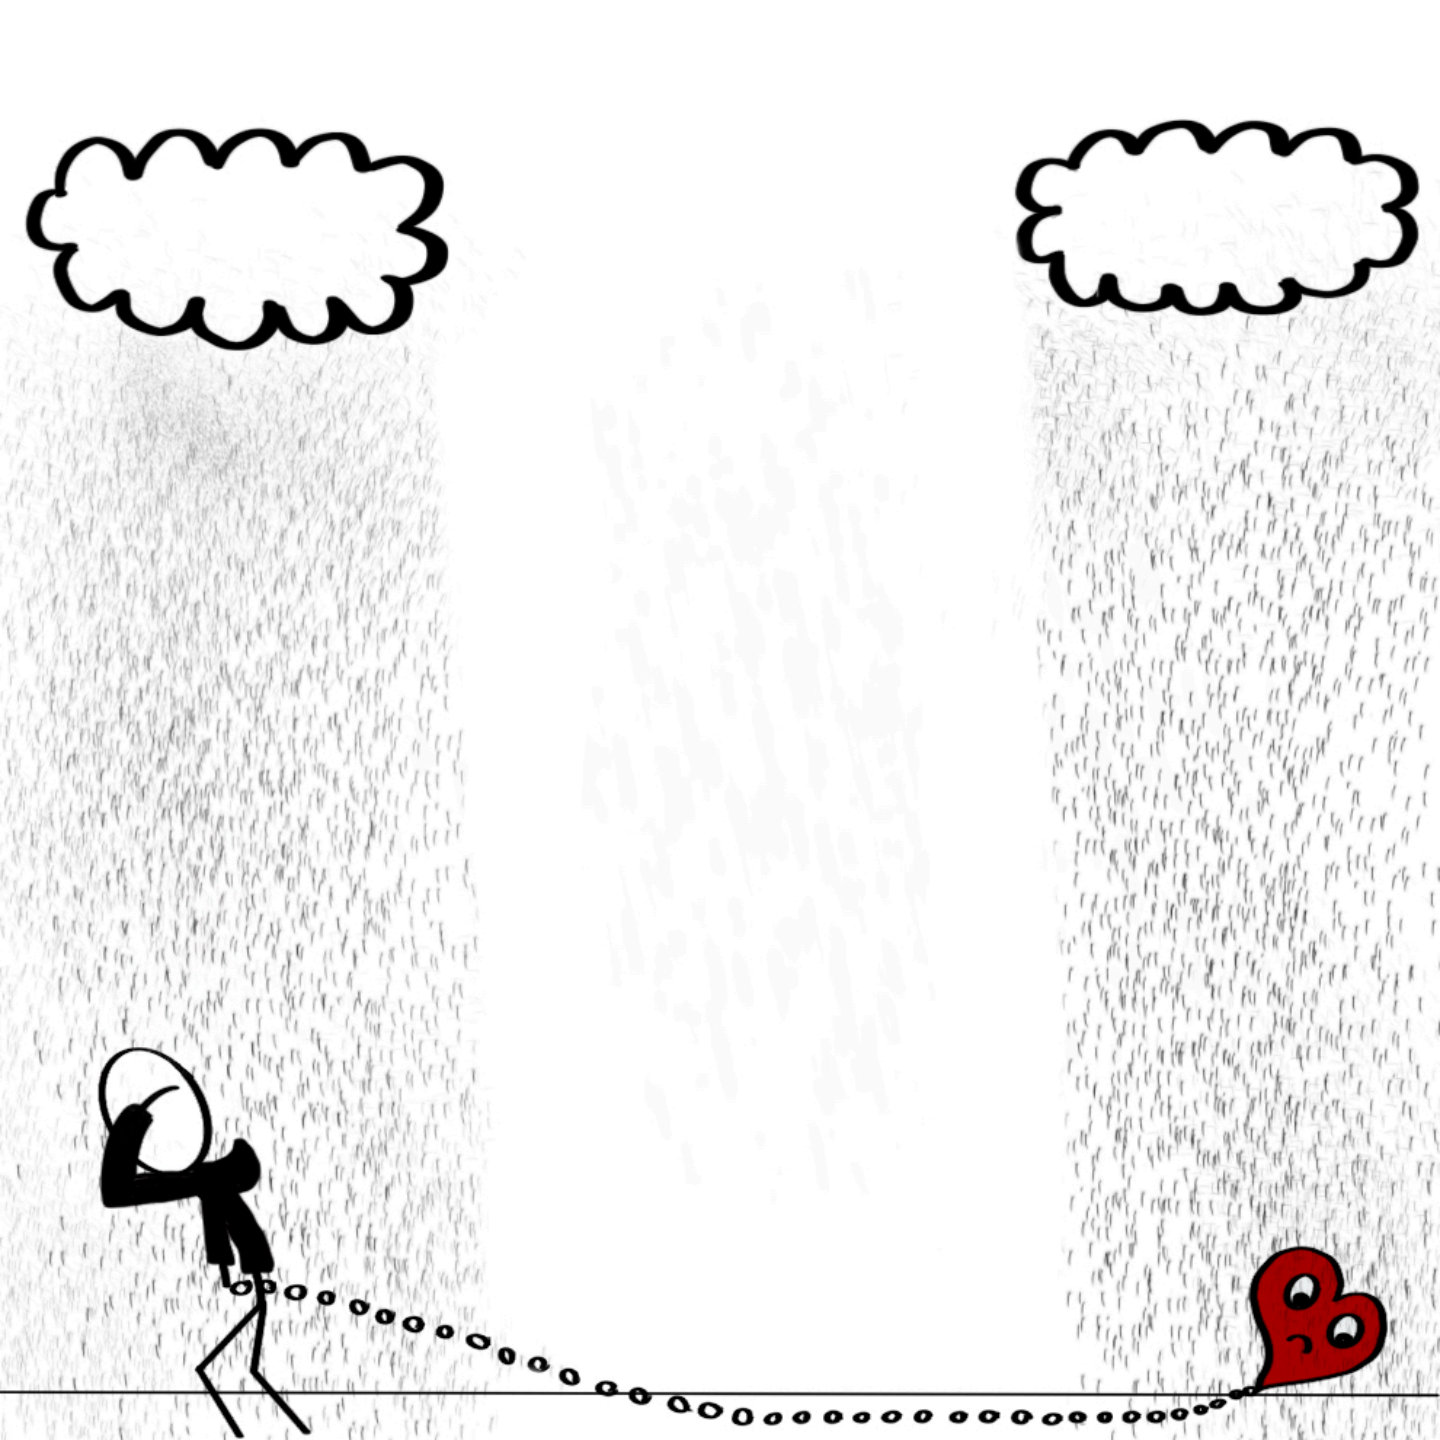
when you're happy



And sinks

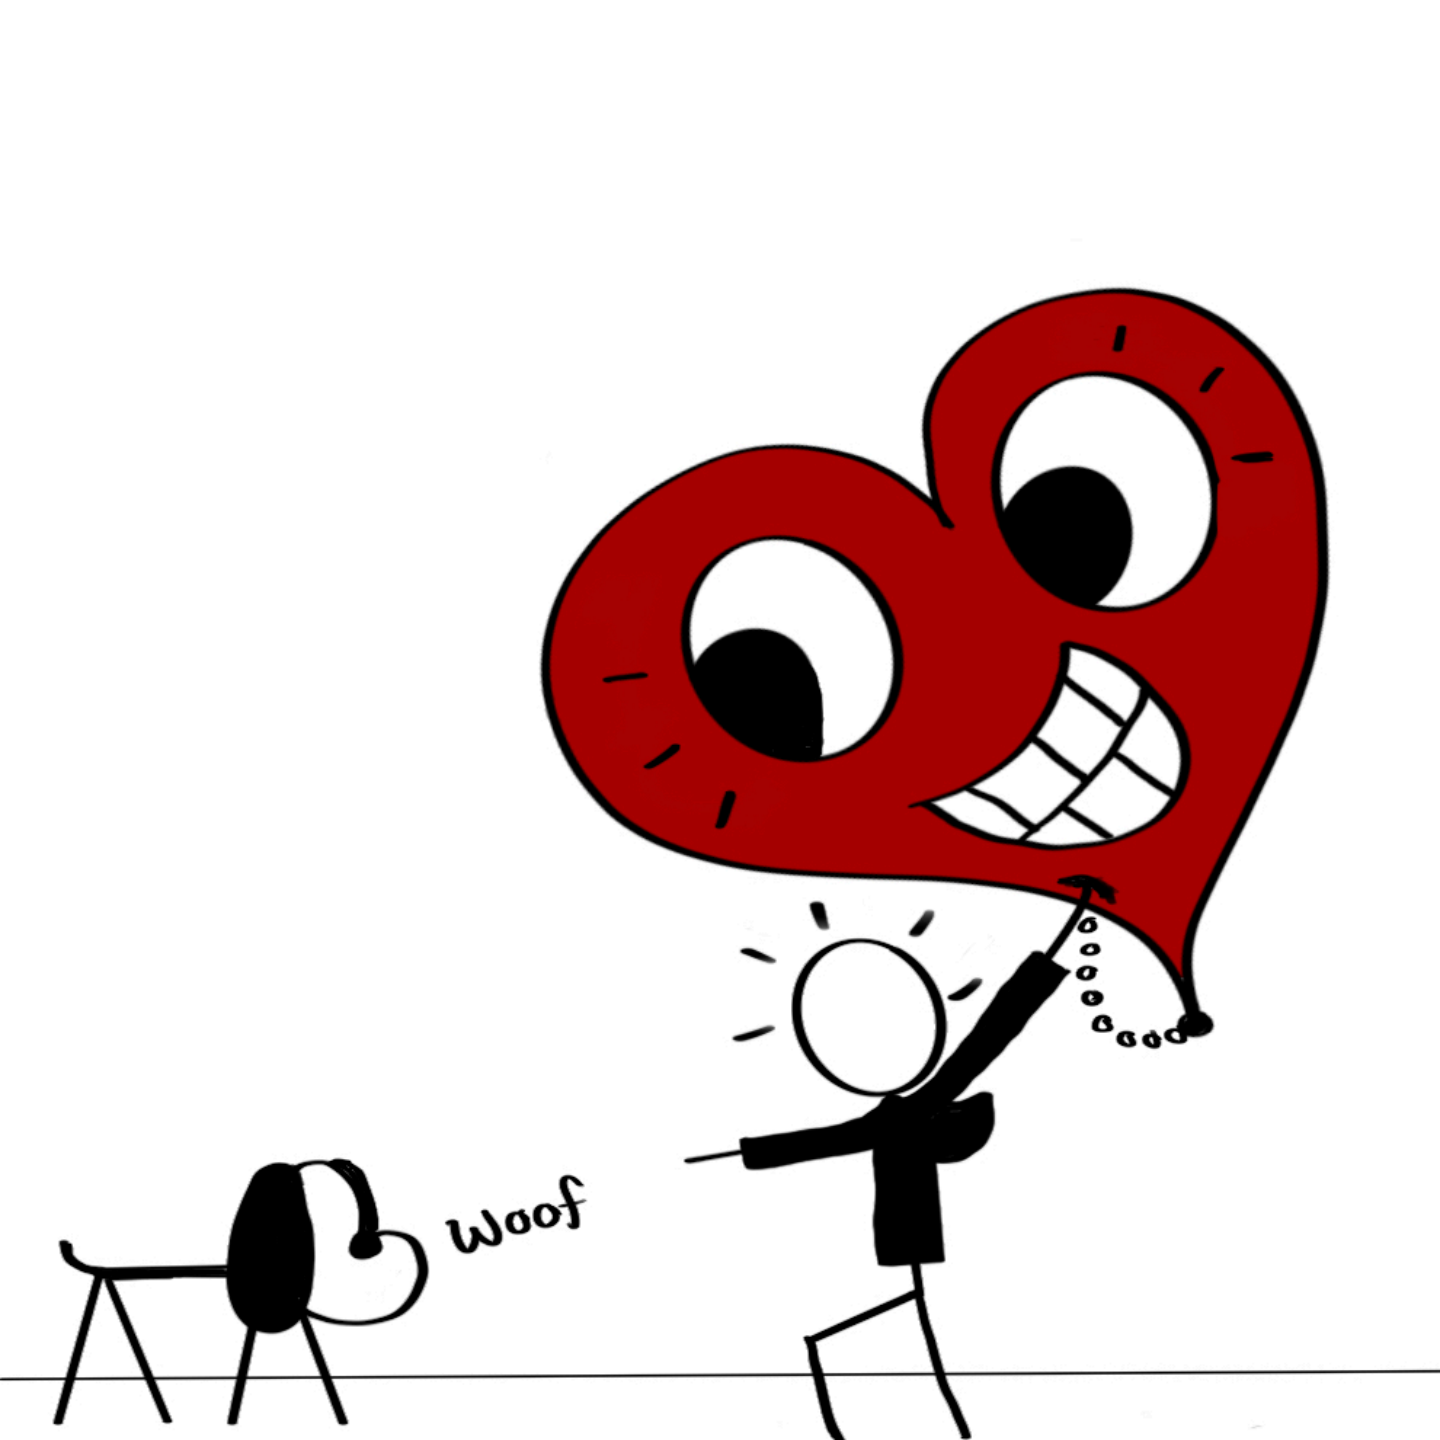
low to the ground

when you're sad



It grows big

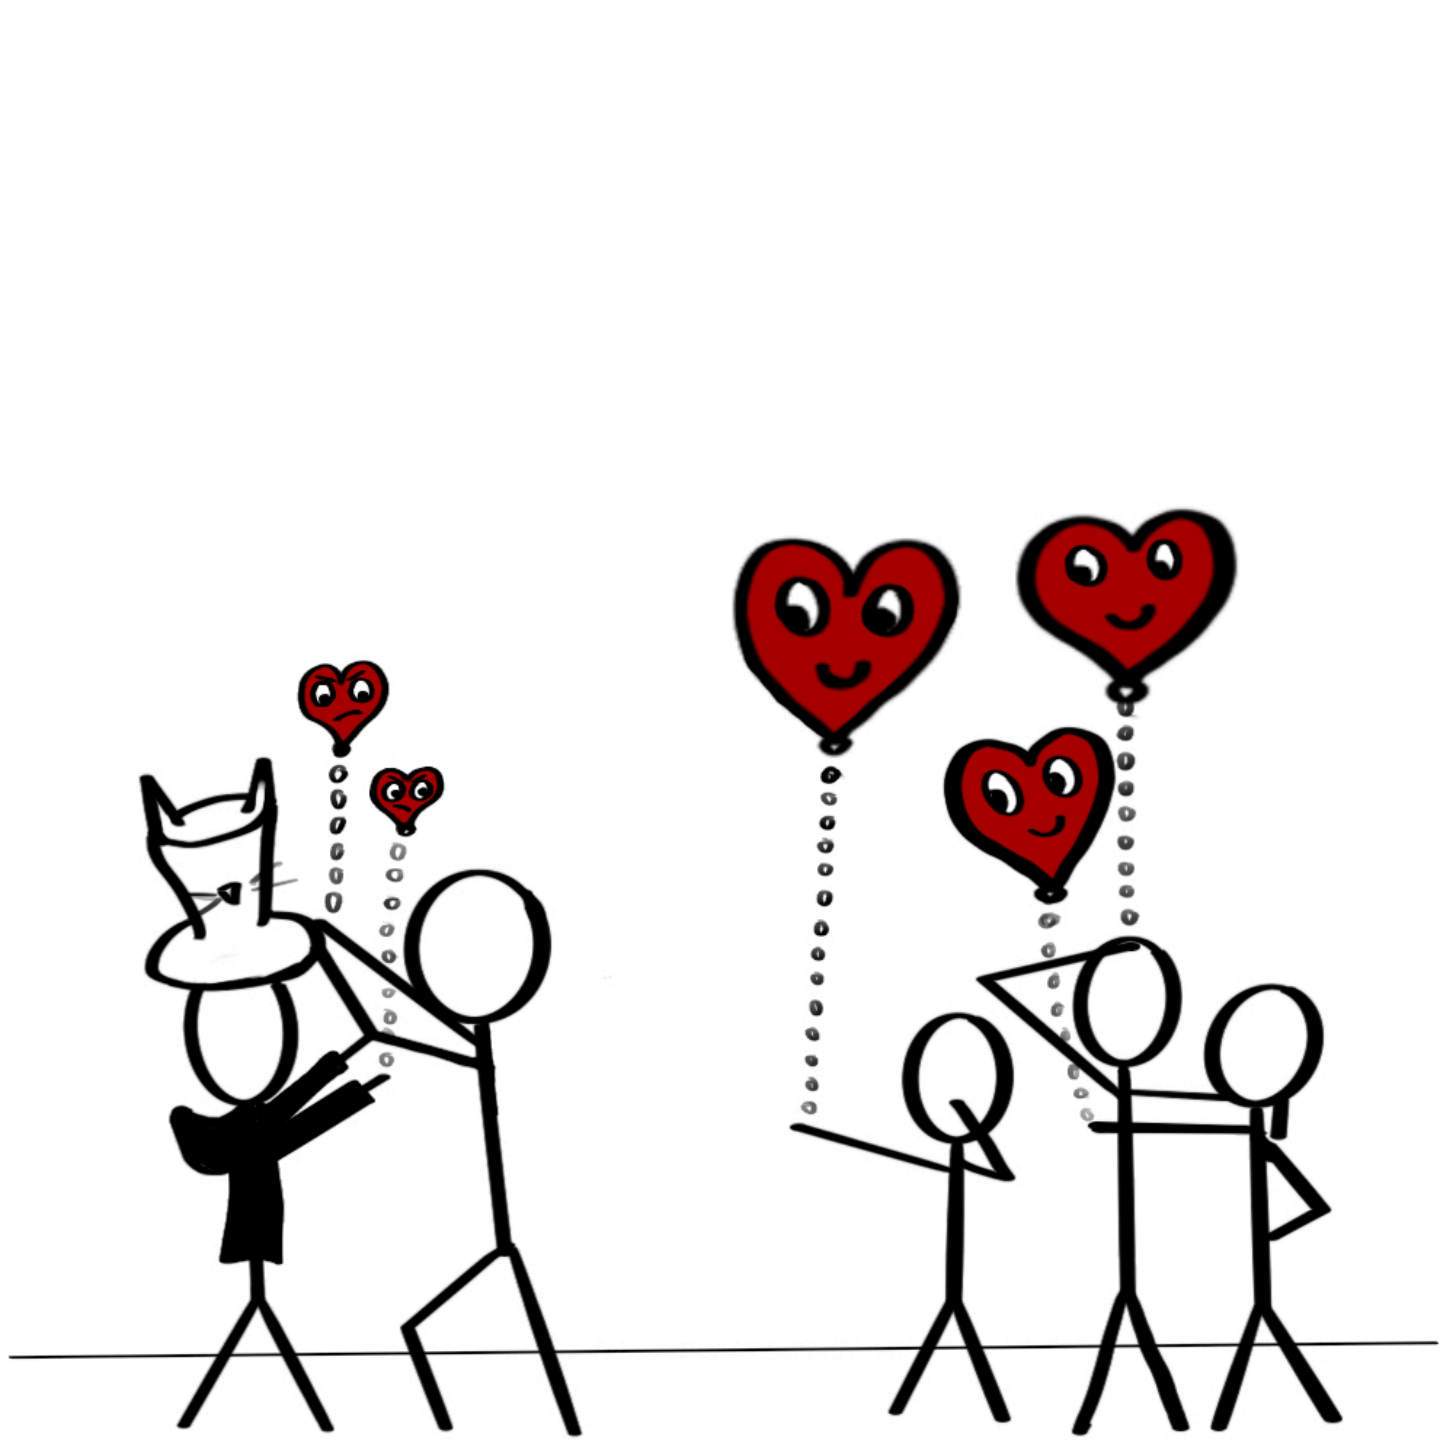
when you're excited



Woof

And Shrinks small

when you're mad



A heart balloon can be very hard to take care of

Up, up, up Uh oh
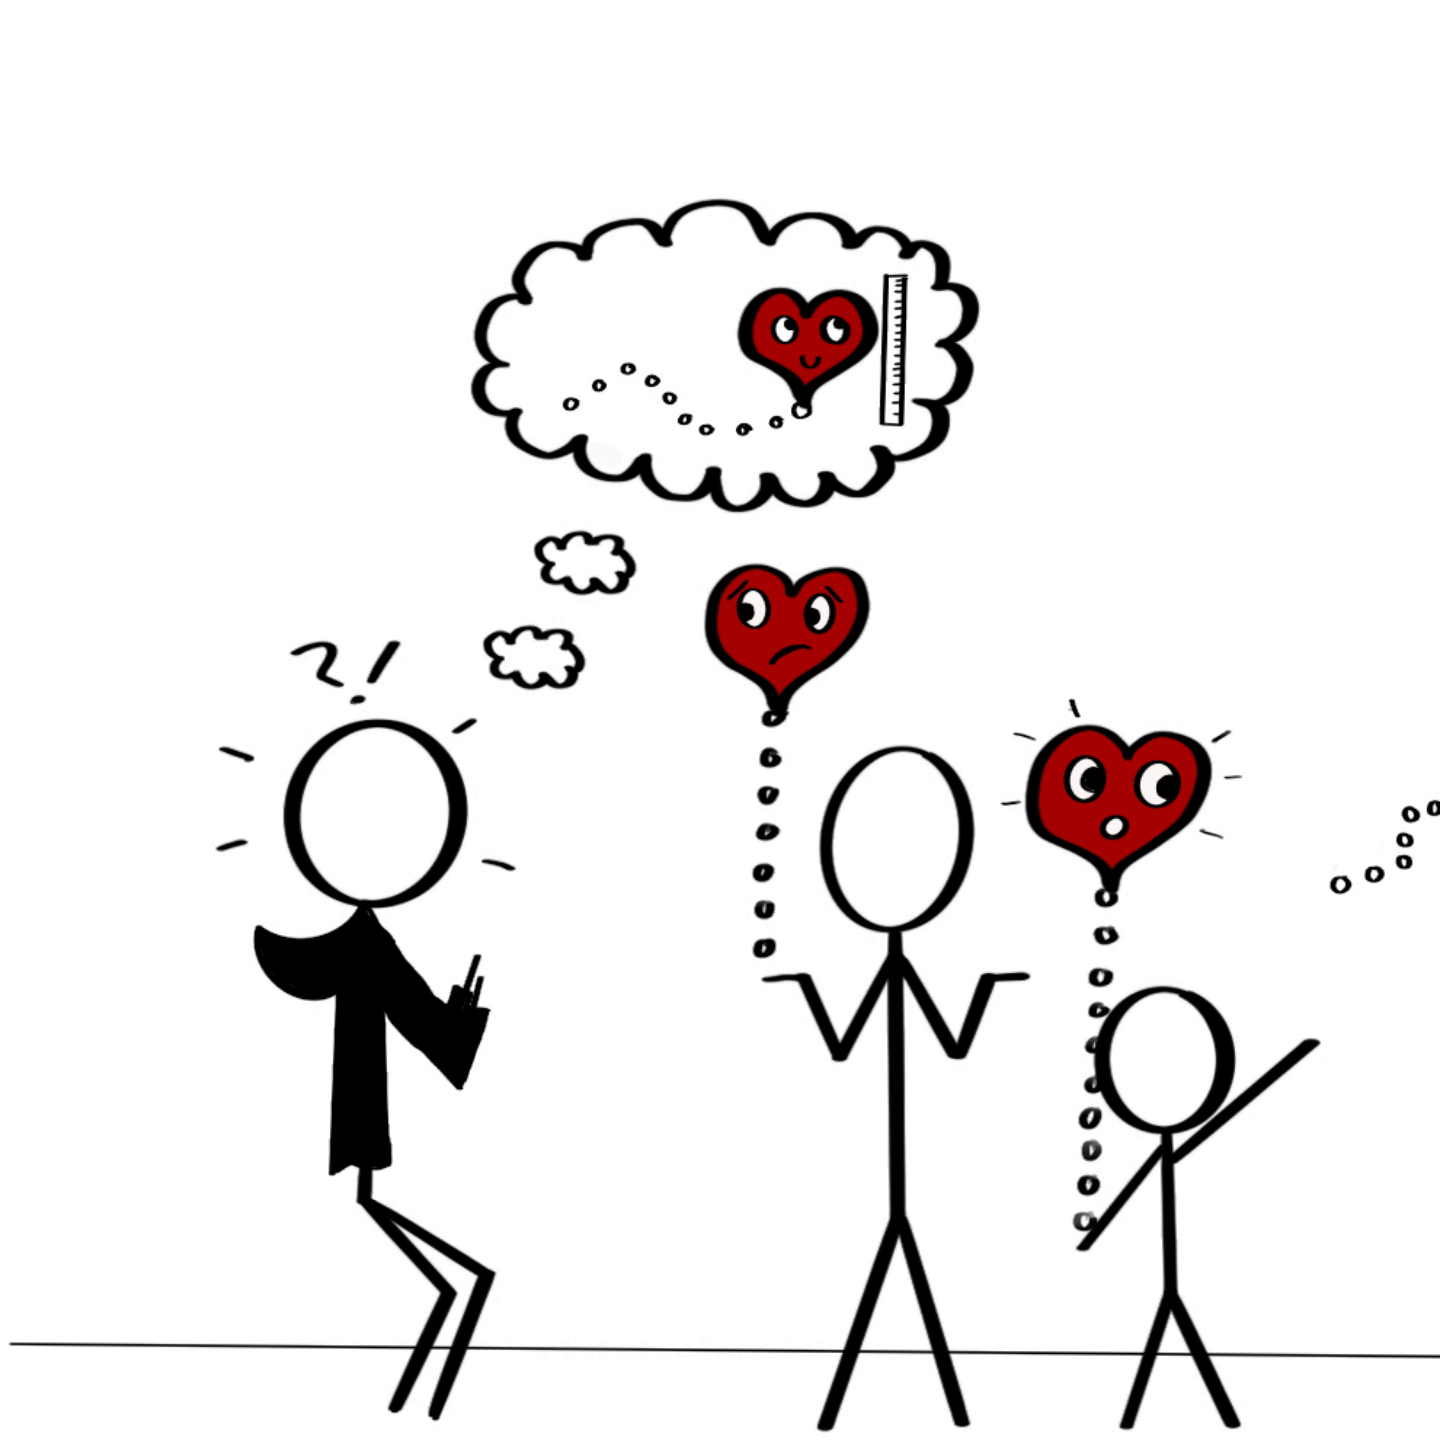
Surprise!
Aaaaaaah

I get scared

when I can't find

my heart balloon



But,

It is never too

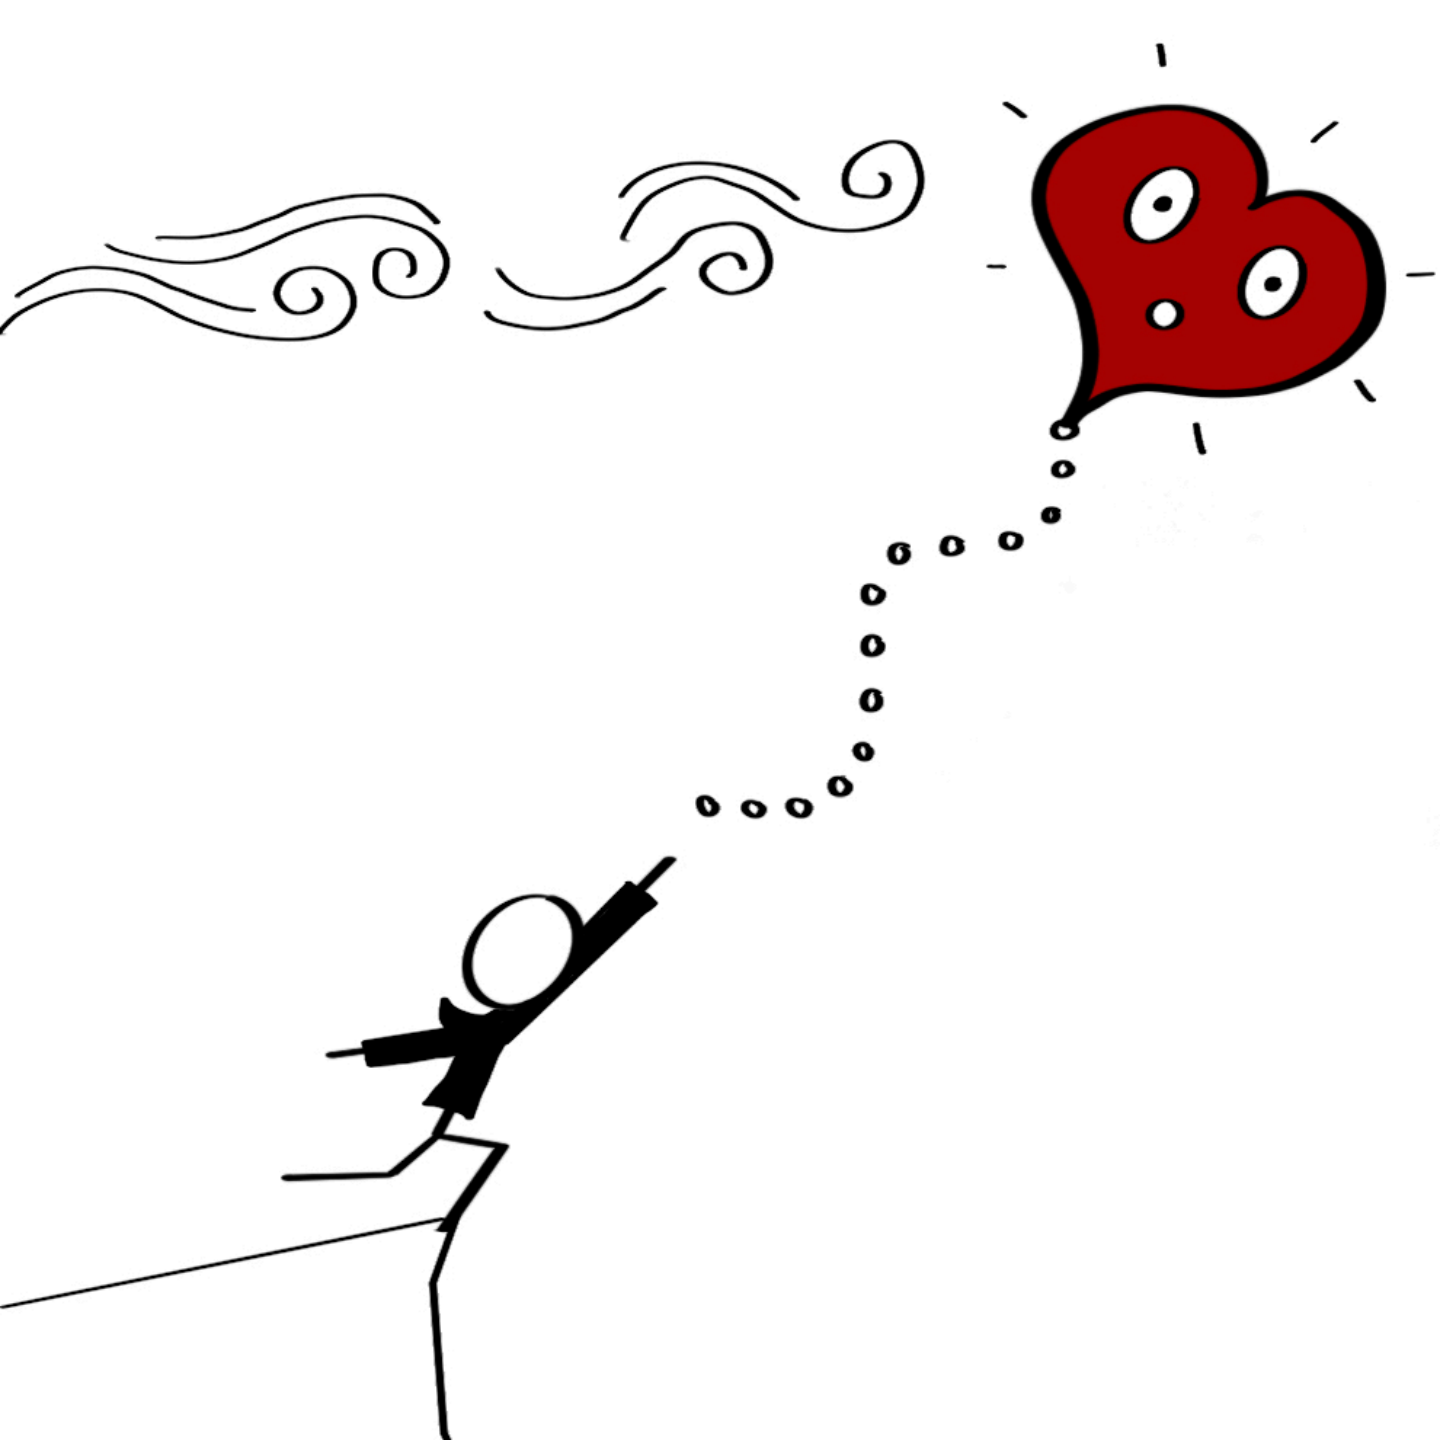
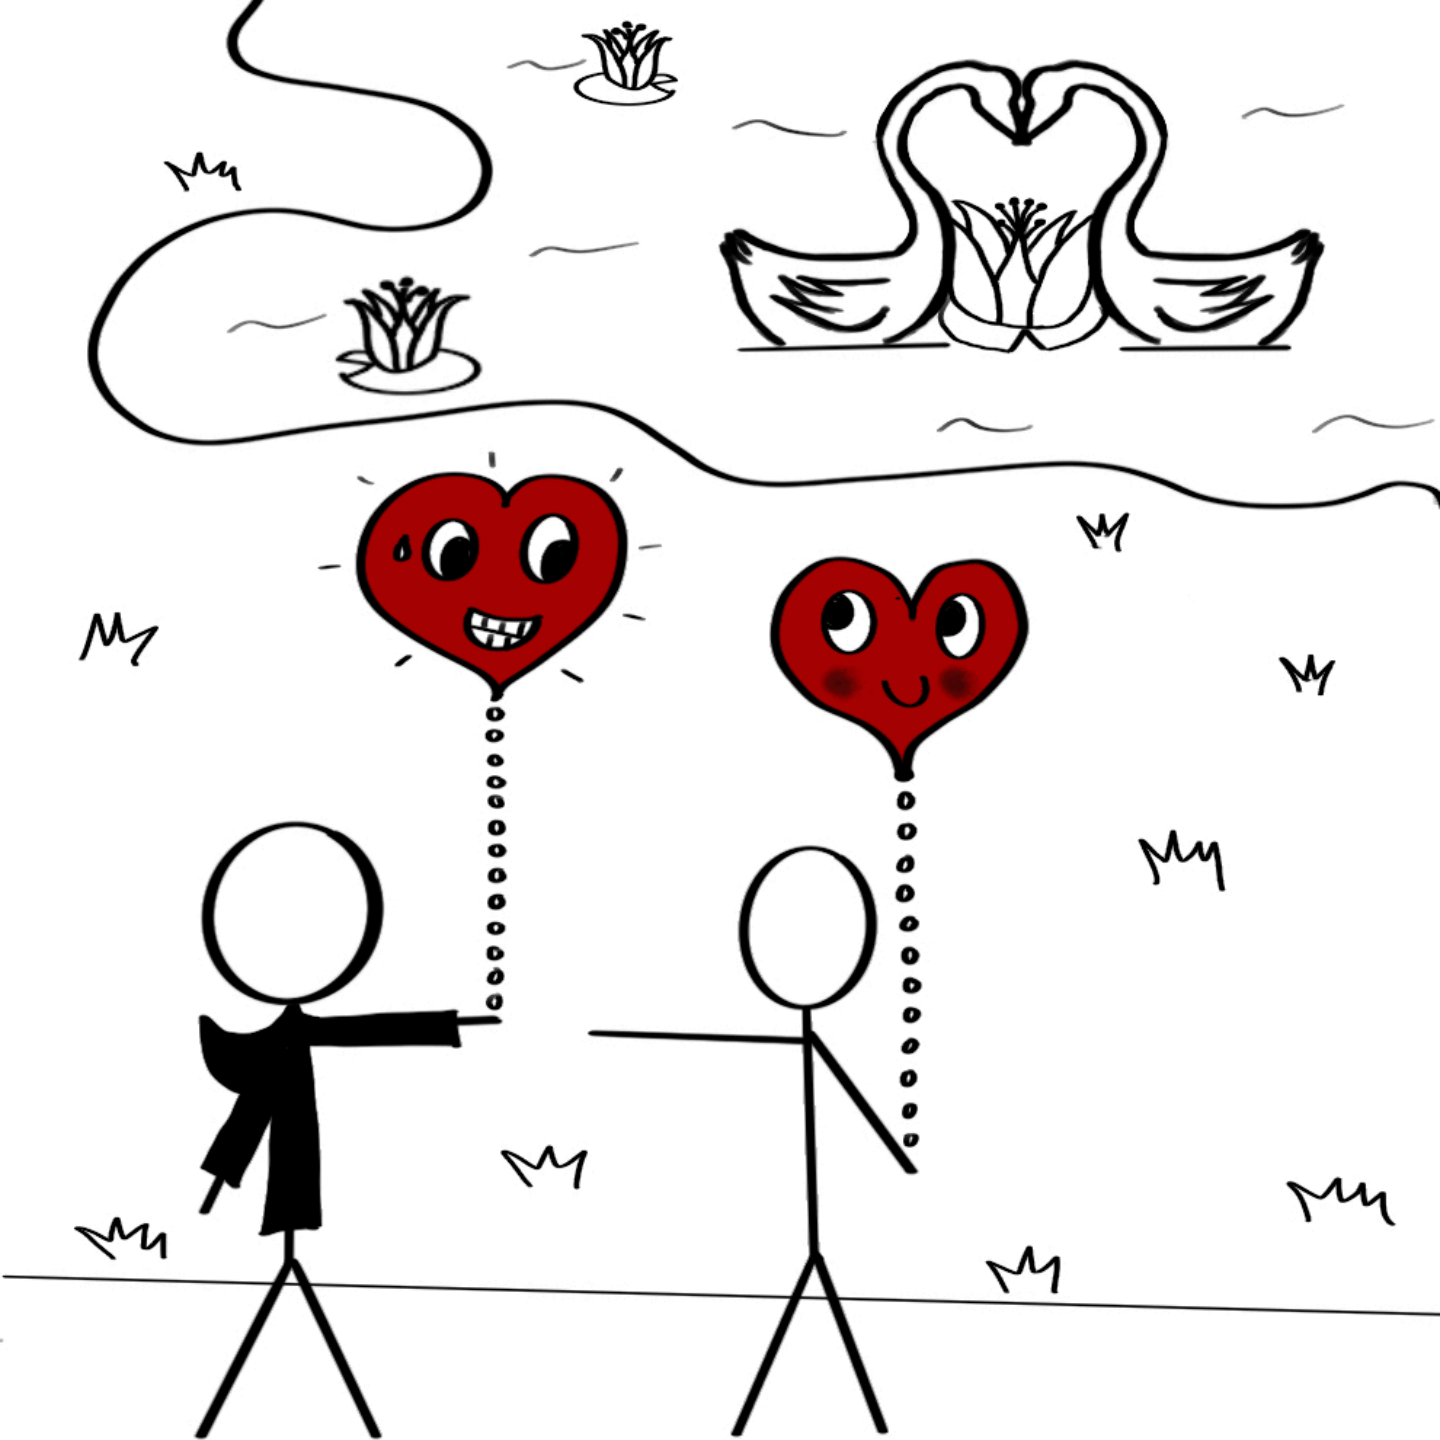
far away



Sometimes

I give my heart balloon

to someone else



Sometimes

They give it back

I always try to keep

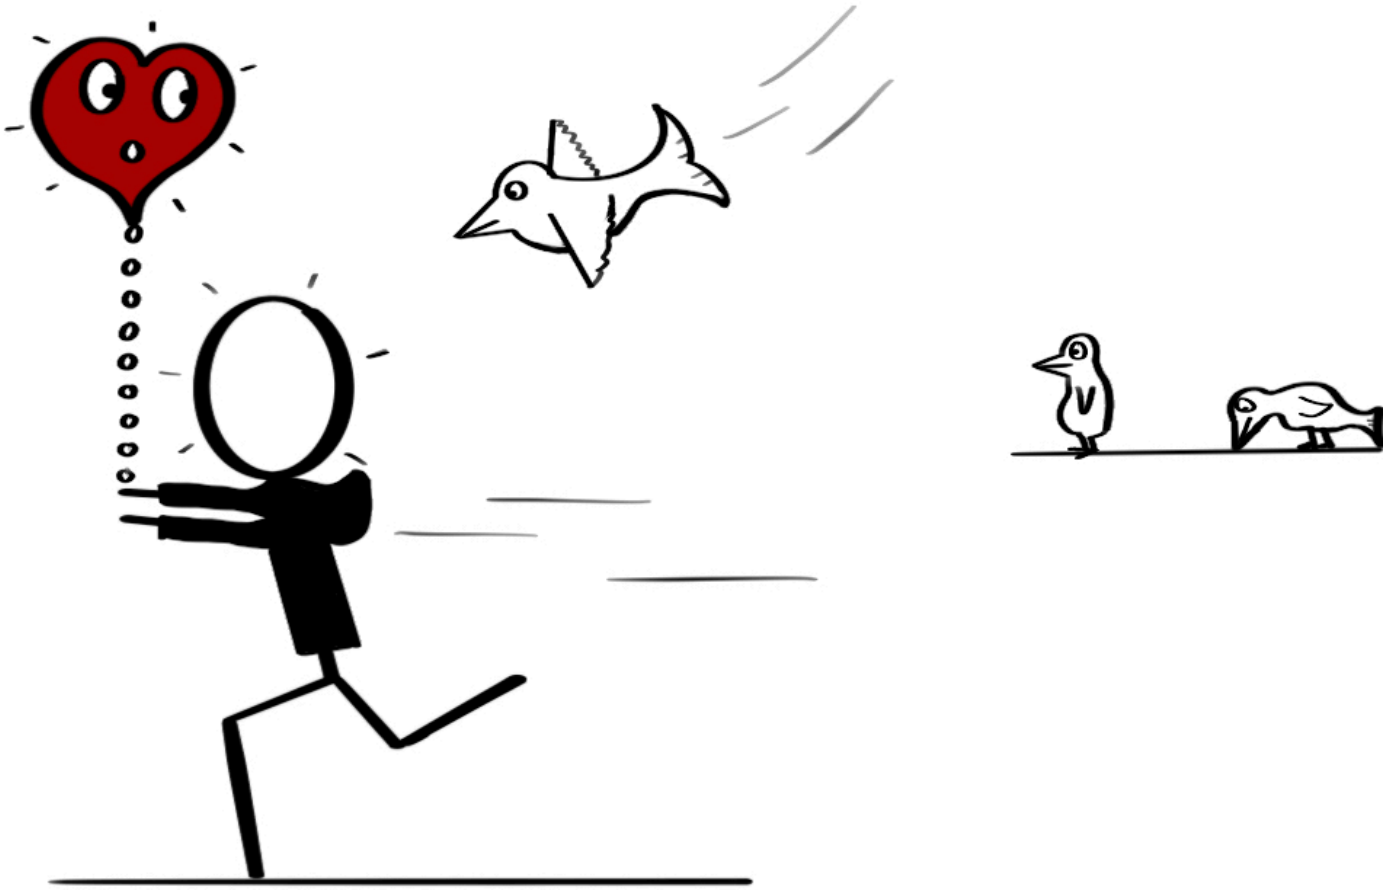
my heart balloon

safe

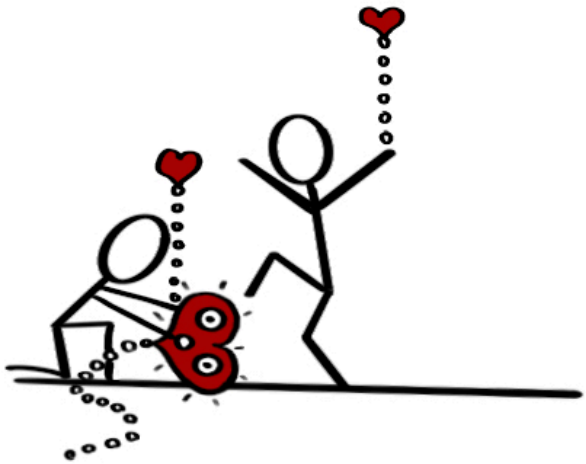


But

Someone might

b r e a k

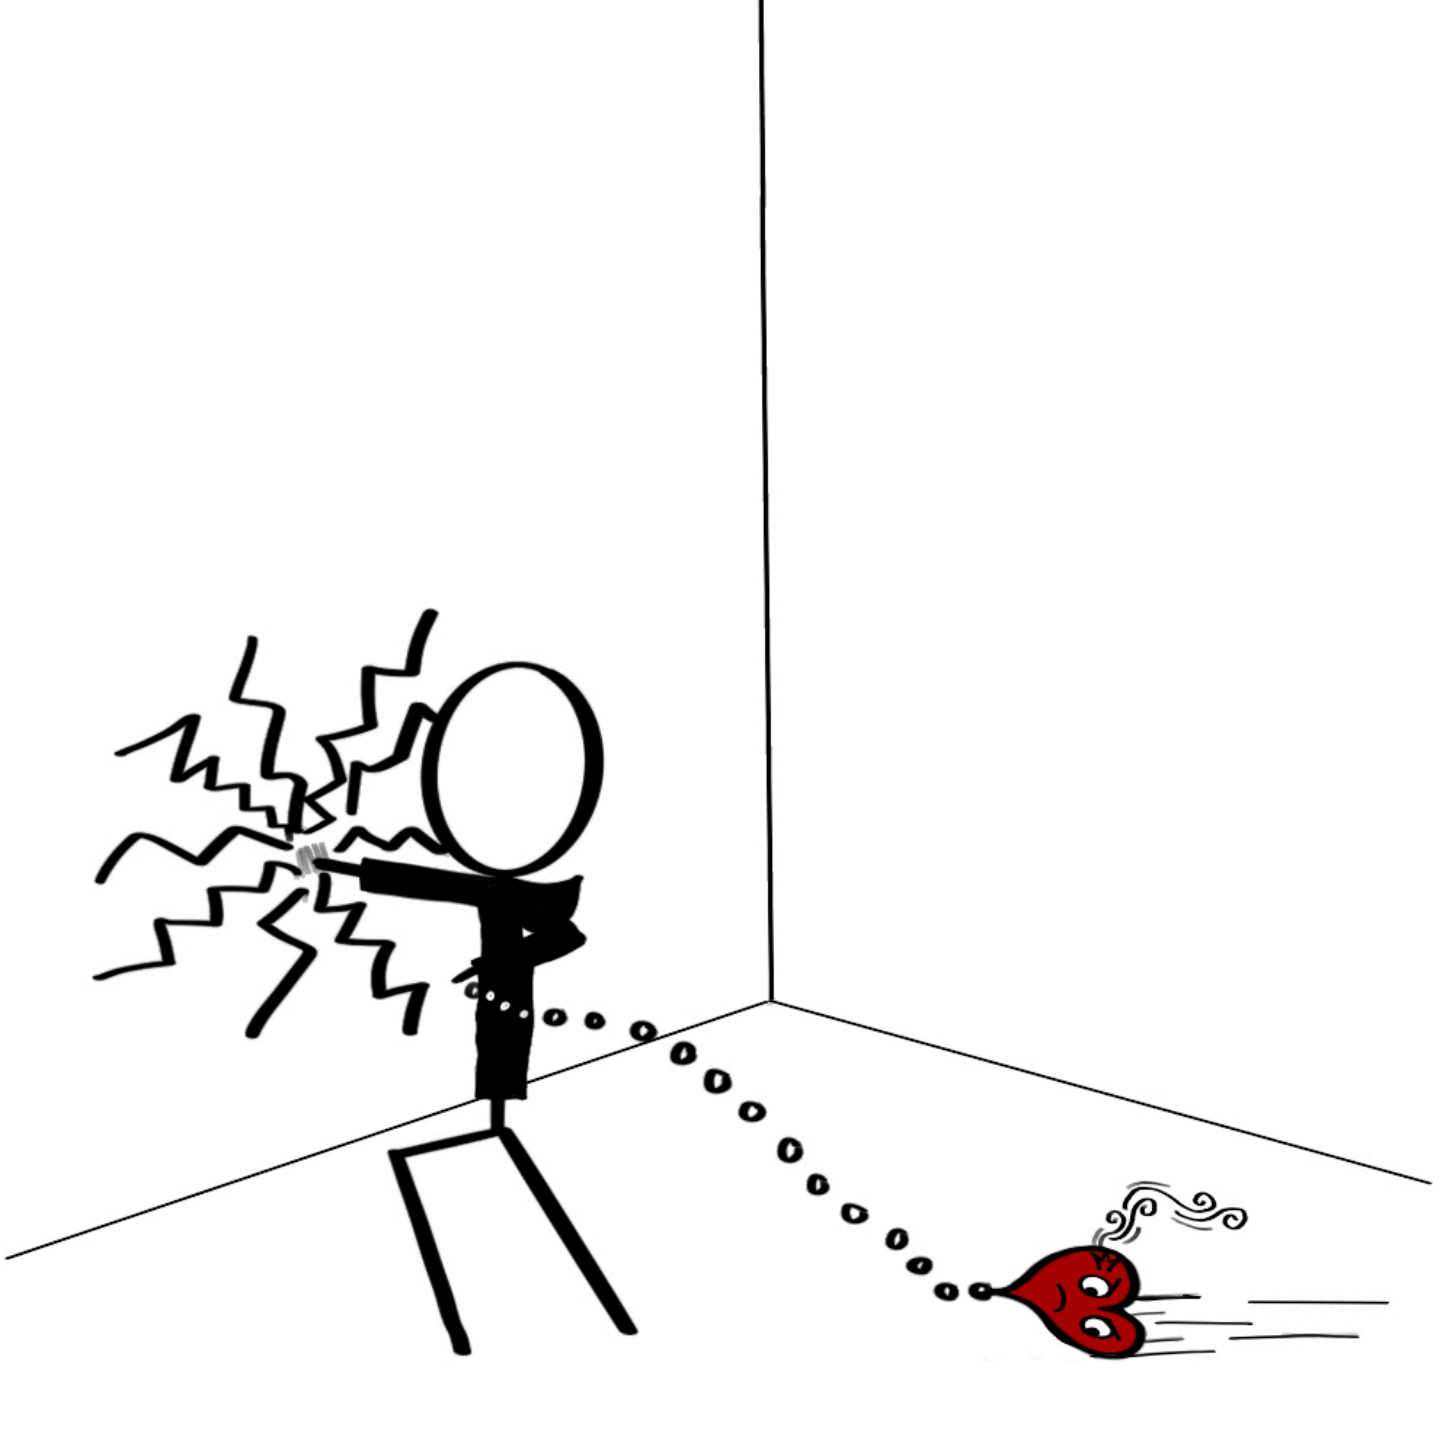
my heart balloon



And I will feel

both

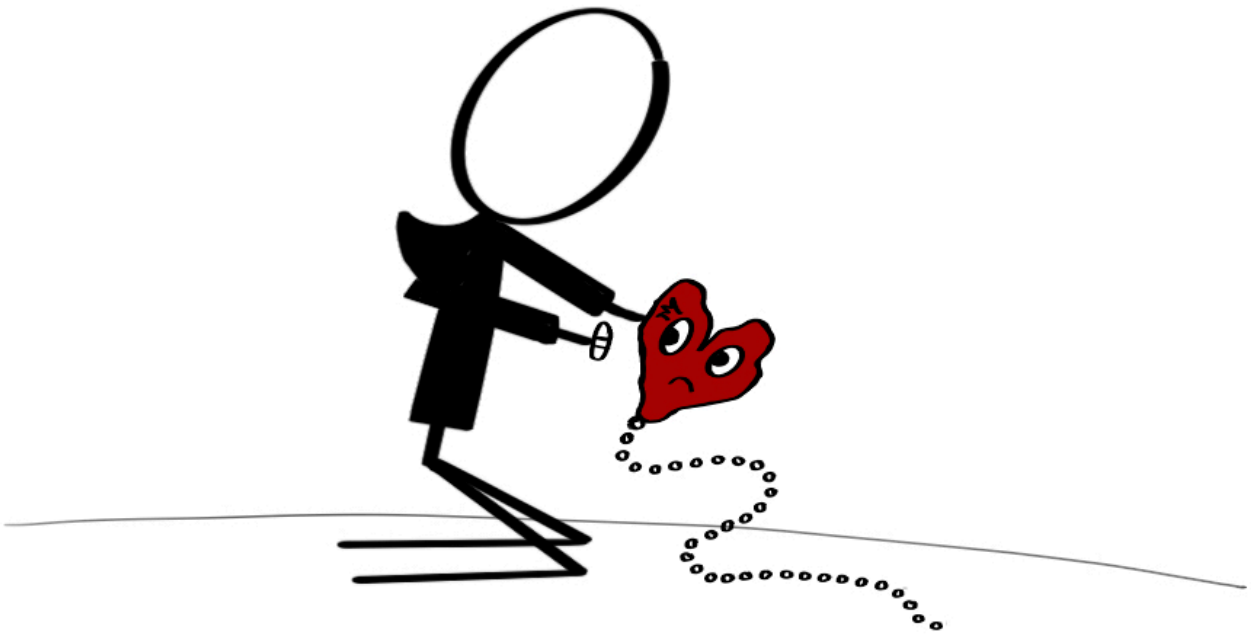
mad and sad



It will be hard

but

it can be fixed

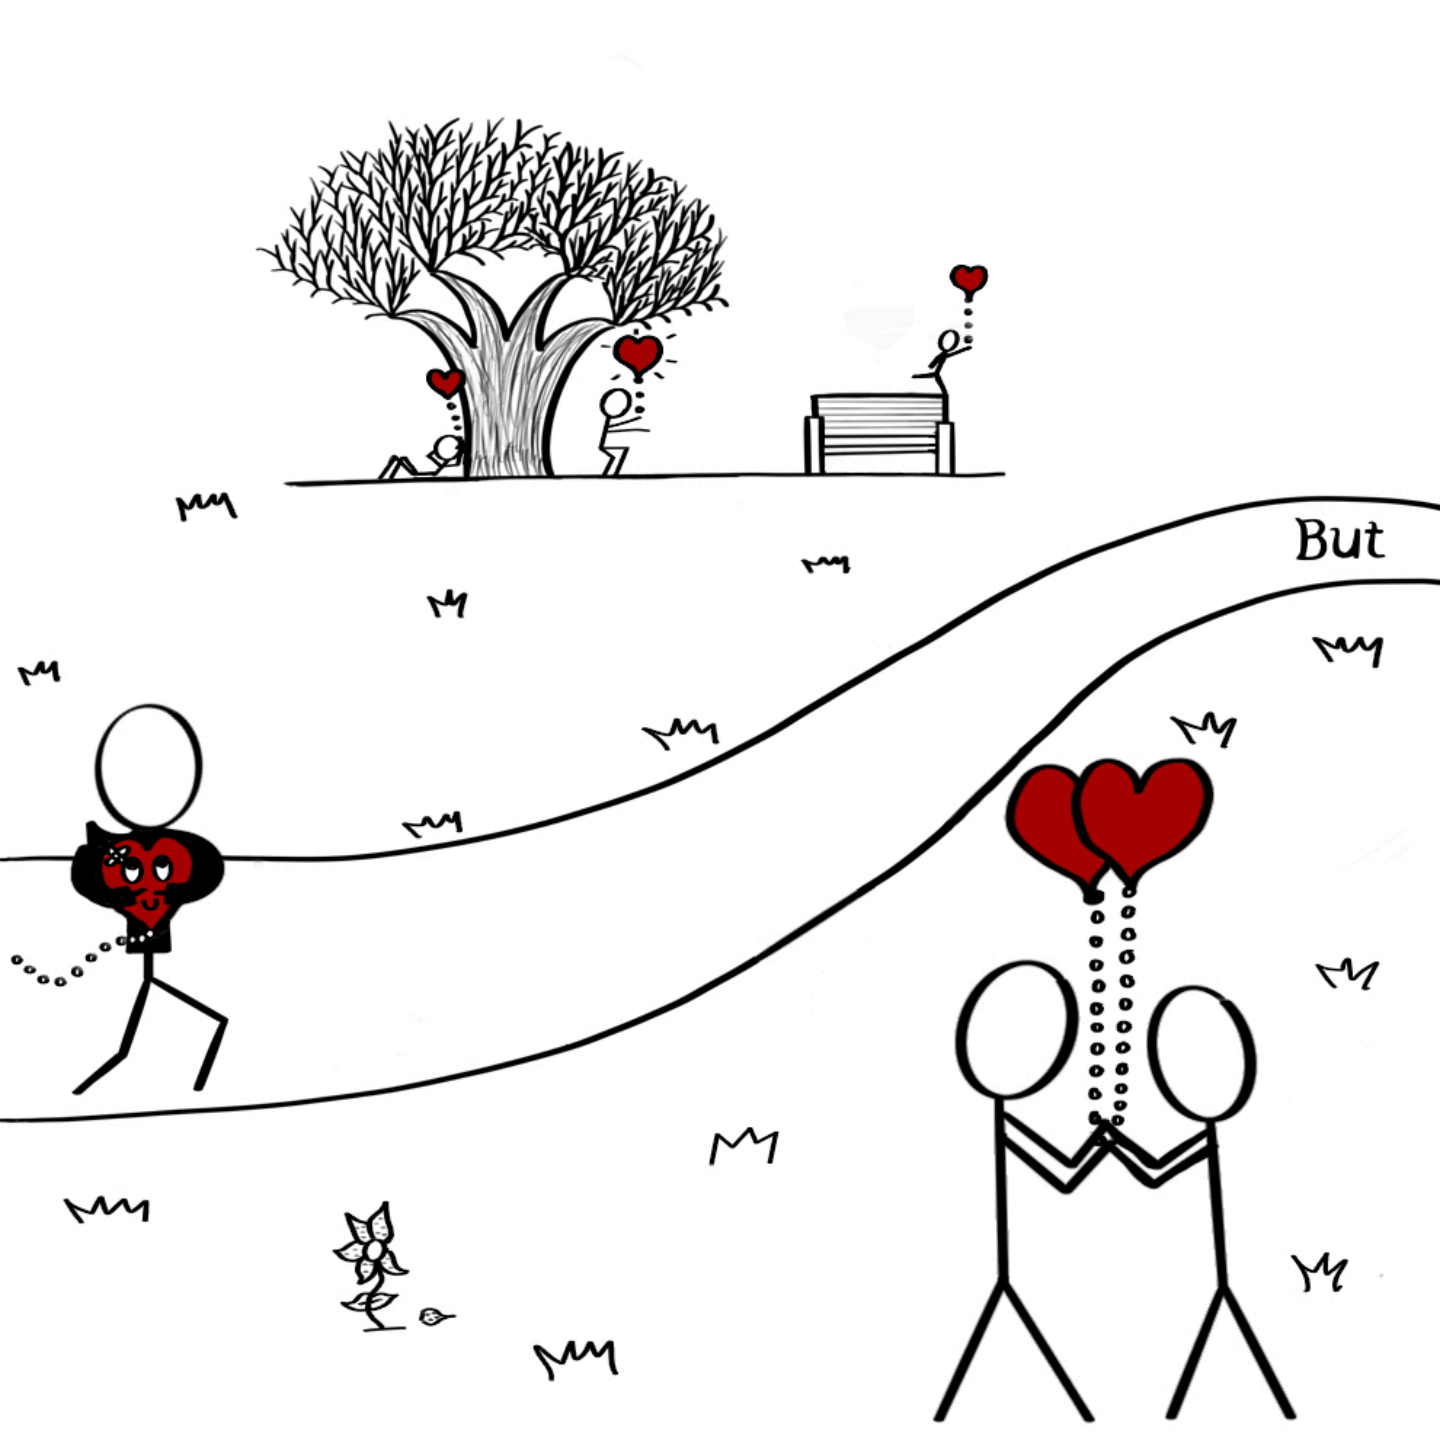


And I may

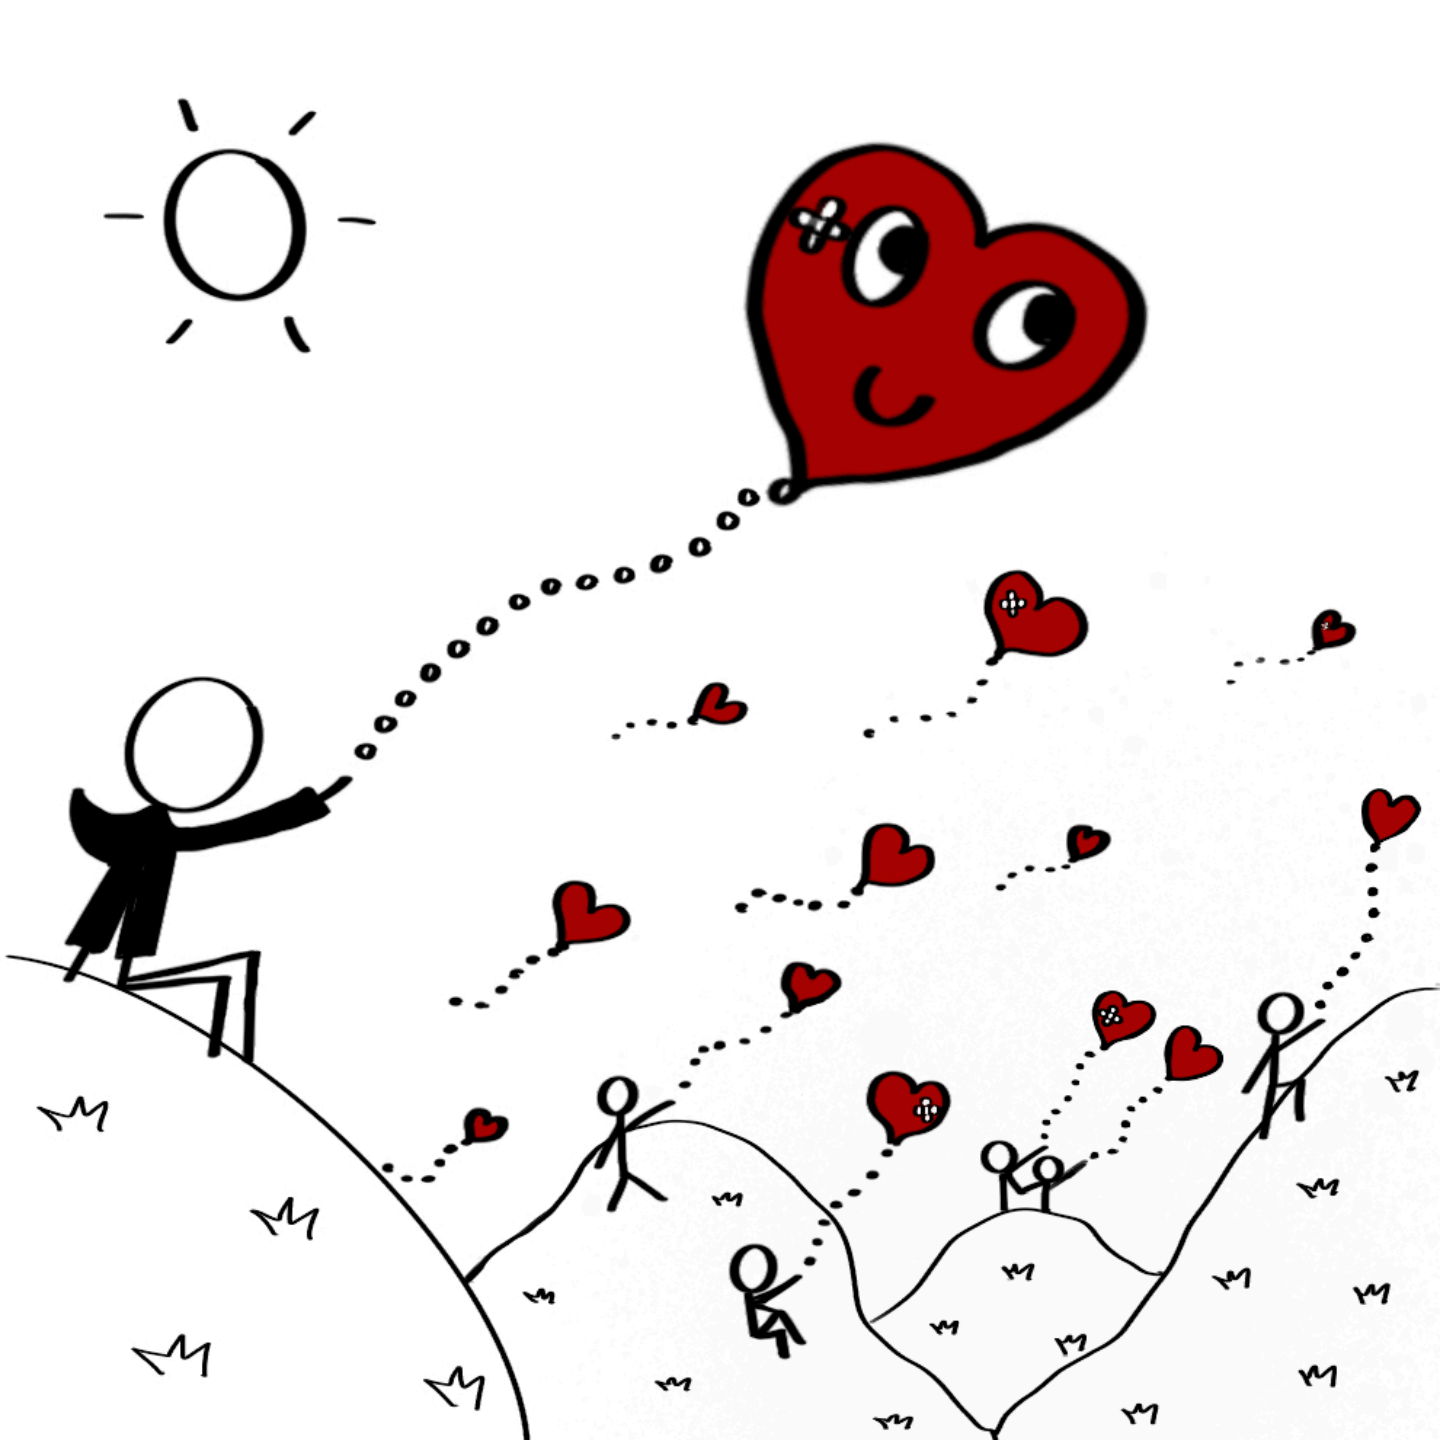
hold onto

my heart balloon

even tighter



But



With love in the air

My Heart Balloon

will always rise again
