

GRACE KNOX

Bartender, Hospitality Worker

Profile

Grace Knox is a multimedia installation artist whose work relates their experiences with mental health to similar phenomena visible in nature. Knox earned a BFA with an emphasis in Art Practices in 2024 from the University of Colorado Denver. They have shown work at Pirate: Contemporary Art, Emmanuel Art Gallery, University of Colorado Denver, RedLine Contemporary Art Center, and Four Mile Historic Park in Denver, Colorado. They currently live and work in Fort Collins, Colorado.

Work Experience

Sep 2022 -
Apr 2024

Junction Food and Drink

Bartender

- Served beer, wine, liquor, and mixed drinks to customers
- Assisted in cleaning, prepping ingredients, and organizing tips, cash, and receipts
- Checked identification consistently, prevented over intoxication, and de-escalated conflicts with intoxicated customers

May 2022 -
Aug 2022

Birdcall

Crew Member

- Successfully completed orders at a fast paced chicken restaurant by managing drive-through orders
- Communicated orally with customers to complete requests and problems when needed

May 2021 -
Jan 2022

Cheba Hut

Certified Crew Member

- Successfully completed orders at a fast paced sandwich shop through making sandwiches, communicating with others, and quality checking at expo
- Assisted with training new hires and helping shift leads run the store

Jan 2021 -
Mar 2021

Meow Wolf Denver

Production Design Intern

- Assisted Production Designers with tasks involving quality checking, planning, and documentation
- Communicated and collaborated with other designers, directors, and interns to complete tasks

 References available upon request

 717-253-3295

 knox.art.jpg@gmail.com

 www.knox-art-jpg.com

 Fort Collins, CO

Education

Bachelor of Fine Art

Emphasis in Painting, Drawing,
& Transmedia Sculpture

University of Colorado - Denver
2020-2024

Skills

Adobe Suite, Microsoft Suite,
Google Suite

Creative problem solver

Organized thinker

Hard worker

Quick learner

TIPS Certified

