President's Message

Happy Holidays,

We are in the midst of the holiday season, and I am so thankful to be associated with the great women of the BWC! Our Holiday Boutique was a fun time and a successful fundraiser for our club.

Thank you for your toy and book donations. Your community service effort is making a difference in our community outreach. The donated toys are being delivered to Day One, a nonprofit that assists victims of sexual assault and trauma. The books and stuffed animals are slated for Crossroads of RI, whose mission is to help those experiencing homelessness.

We have great programs planned for Jan, Feb and March. Arlene Violet, first female Attorney General of RI and a practicing attorney is our January speaker. Before you know it, our spectacular combined Fashion Show and Spring Luncheon will be here. Save the date for April 22, 2026.

At our December meeting we enjoyed a menu of calzones and pasta salads. We will be returning to the finger sandwich menu for January and will try a new menu for February.

Our next meeting is Monday January 7. We will be installing new member, Deborah Hetrick, sponsored by Pauline Woods. Invite a guest and remind your club friends to attend. Anyone inviting a guest please contact Membership Chair, Pat O'Neill.

See you in January!
