

Andy's Attic

Teenagers Helping the Community

Our Mission + Vision

MISSION

Our mission is to provide for families the ability to have warm and comfortable clothing so that they can advance in everyday life.

VISION

To clothe the community from head to toe.

Who We Are + What We Do

- 501(c)3 non-profit
- Student volunteers
- Anyone in need of clothes
- Seasons worth of clothes
- Current Goal

How we started

Testimonials

“Through guest speakers and impactful assignments, the students behind the organization are confident and glad to help those in need.”

- Volunteer

“As a student volunteer I get to see all the smiles and all the different people we help everyday. I love helping everyone and this organization helps me feel important and very helpful.” - Volunteer

“My Experience at Andy's Attic was fantastic they provided everything I asked for and more.” - Client

“Andy's Attic really does care about their community, this is a great organization.” - Volunteer

“Love seeing our community's needs met with the hard work of Ms. Foley and her students!” - Volunteer

“Working with Ms. Foley herself is a joy. She is such a fun, energetic, and sweet person to work with. No way in a million years will I forget this woman or the beautiful experience and opportunity she gave to me and hundreds of other students.” - Volunteer

“All of the kids who run the business take it very seriously and are focused on helping people in their community. These kids are all real hometown heroes and show it every day.”

3,000

The image features three stylized parachutes at the top, each with a red canopy and a book inside. The left parachute has a purple book with a green heart, the middle one has a green book with a blue heart, and the right one has a blue book with a red heart. A dotted line connects the three parachutes. Below them is a large, dark purple rounded rectangle containing the number '3,000' in white.
