NATIONAL SHOWS 2023-2025

I trust everyone is gearing up for 2023 NJWRC Nationals in Canton Ohio on April 15. The Ohio Jersey Wooly Group is hosting the show this year at the Hall of Fame show. They have prepared an extensive catalog of information, which you can see on their event page on Facebook, and here in the Fluff. I'm looking forward to seeing many of you there!

Nationals in 2024 is scheduled to take place Saturday, February 17, 2024 in West Monroe, LA. This event will be hosted by Louisiana Jersey Wooly Rabbit Breeders.

Bids for hosting Nationals 2025 will be accepted up until April 15th. An application form can be obtained by sending me a message. Bid forms will indicate dates by which each information point is required—for example, we understand that banquet information will not be available two years in advance.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

The Guidebook committee is looking forward to seeing the new guidebook published in the next couple of months. The guidebook will be available on our website. The new format will allow for updates to be made easily.

The Standards Committee continues its work on refining the text. We hope to have it ready for membership review in the fall.

A new committee has been formed for Convention Judge Selection. This is comprised of 3-4 members from various locations across the country. The duty of this committee is to solicit and receive recommendations for Convention judges, discuss potential appointments for upcoming years, secure appointments and pass those on to the club secretary, president, and to ARBA host clubs. Committee members are NJWRC members in good standing, who have breadth of showing experience—that is, several years of showing with exposure to many judges from across the country. Committee members will be appointed for two-year terms. Terms will be staggered so that there is continuity of knowledge on the committee. In October of 2023, one new member with growing experience in the JW breed will be added to the committee; two new members if a more experienced member steps down.

OTHER DEADLINES:

Scholarship applications are due April 1st. Scholarships are open to any senior who is attending any college or trade school. Please look for the application in this issue of the FLUFF.

Elections this fall will be held for the position of President, and for District Representatives in all odd-numbered districts. Nominating petitions must be turned in by May 15 for all positions.

Tips/Tricks

Large national shows can sometimes be stressful for new show rabbits. To help them, try taking them to shows closer to home, or short trips to adjust to traveling and noises.

Vice President's Report

HELLO MEMBERS OF THE NJWRG;

WITH OUR SPRING NATIONALS FAST APPROACHING, I HOPE THAT EVERYONE WHO IS ABLE CHOOSES TO GO AND SUPPORT THE REGIONAL CLUB THAT IS PUTTING IT ON THIS YEAR.

From firsthand experience with helping run two national shows, I know the amount of time and energy that goes into that. I'm quite sure that it will be a good time for everyone who is able to attend.

As I am sitting here writing this article, I can't help but flash back to the last show that I was at. I have noticed in our district that the youth numbers are still not very strong. I encourage all of us to work together to try and help resolve that in any way possible. My wife, Stacy, and I have decided to reduce our herd drastically due to some unforeseen circumstances. In doing so, we decided to help a local youth exhibitor who was very interested, and gave them some of our best breeding stock as well as some show animals that would work to her advantage. I am by no means saying that is what everyone should do, but anyway that we can help our youth is for the greater good of the club. I have and will continue to say that without a strong youth following, the breed can't continue indefinitely.

That would, in my opinion, be a complete travesty. This breed is too good, and the people involved with it are as well.

That is all for this time, but please, if you have a chance, take the time to help the youth of our breed.

Thanks for your time,

Doug

Sweepstakes/Sanctions Report

Hello NJWRC Members!

The topic of this article is SANCTIONS & MEMBERSHIPS!

SANCTIONING OF SHOWS

There has been a rash of reports being received of late for which no NJWRC sanctions were issued. I've worked with the host clubs to resolve because I don't want members to lose out – and most were shows during December of 2022 when due to personal life, the website wasn't being updated as routinely as usual. That stops now! Shows can't be sanctioned after the fact and won't be going forward. If you're going to a show, please be sure the show is listed as sanctioned on my listing as opposed to only using the host club's information. Things get lost in the mail. If it's not on my list, it's not sanctioned. The NJWRC has a very liberal sanctioning policy, so there's always alternatives – but if the show is in the past, no sanctions will be issued for it. You can contact me if a club shows Jersey Woolies are sanctioned & I don't have it to reconfirm. Work with host clubs, etc. Based on the sanctions I'm currently receiving daily, clubs are submitting them a bit later than pre-Covid so you may see something now for a show in May with Jersey Woolies sanctioned that I don't have yet. That's not abnormal. But if the show date is fast approaching & it's still not on my list, ask questions because it won't be done after the fact.

MEMBERSHIPS!

This is a more basic topic – primarily pertaining to partnerships. If you're showing as a partnership, all exhibitors on the entry must be NJWRC members in good standing in order to receive points. (Continued on page 8)

District 2 Report

HAPPY SPRING ALL! I hope your nest boxes are full of darling Jersey Wooly babies. Good luck and safe travels to those who will be attending Nationals. It should be a fun and well attended show.

Here in District 2 our breed has been represented at most shows. We don't have a large number of breeders but, those few do attend many shows. On 12-10-22 in Chino, CA at the Keep It Hopping Rabbit Club show A, Michaeline's Emerson (Broken Sr buck) owned and bred by Michaeline McConnell, won RIS under Judge Misty Polasik. This young buck was 2nd place Sr buck at Convention and has a very bright future. Epona Siggins was also awarded RIS at the Humboldt County Fair with her Wooly. CONGRATULATIONS to you both!

On the NJWRC members FB group there was a question regarding advice to new breeders. There were many great answers and suggestions for both new and current Wooly breeders. My addition to this topic is to take into account the time it takes to provide proper care for your herd. Our breed should have an easy care coat but, they still require grooming. Cages need to be cleaned regularly. I clean cages once a week for everyone and twice a week for litters. Add in, do you work, have other hobbies, family/children or other commitments? All this should go into the decision of how many holes you are comfortable with in your rabbitry. You do not need a large herd to be successful, many breeders have proved that. Success comes from hard work, dedication, smart decisions, focus and a little help from your Wooly friends from time to time. Time required for my hobby is actually something I'm dealing with right now myself, so, this is my cautionary tale.

Take care all and until next time, don't put on lip balm right before you blow out your rabbits!

SWEEPSTAKES REPORT CONTINUED

Also be sure to watch your show reports! A lot of shows now are using Easy2Show where you enter your own entry online, so that shouldn't ever really be wrong, LOL! But in the cases where show personnel are entering data, things can happen and exhibitor changes from year to year aren't always caught. Watch your reports – if any data at all is incorrect, you need to contact the show secretary (and me!) and be sure corrections are being made promptly.

Lastly – just a note about the shows included in this Fluff. I haven't been this caught up in a long time! These reports cover all shows with dates through the end of January for which reports were received prior to 2/13/2023.

Till next time!

District 5 Report

HELLO DISTRICT 5!

Hope you all have had a mild winter and ready for all the Spring litters and shows! I am happy to say that our district has added 3 new youth members since January 2022. Let's welcome Colson Enfield, Eleanor Lefebvre, and Kainen Reker. They are all from Missouri and off to a good start!

I was recently ask to write about show etiquette, so here's my take on that. Putting on a show is hard work and expensive. Do what you can to help out. It can be as simple as cleaning up after yourself and your tribe. Writers are always needed. If you can only do 1 or 2 breeds that's still helping. Most shows will post the order of breeds at the judges table. Keep an eye on what's being judged and get your rabbits to the table as quickly as possible. We don't always here the announcements but if you are checking on the judging order you will have a good idea of when your breed is up. Some exhibitors show more than one breed, so if you know they are showing on another table you can offer to get their Woolies on the table for them. Don't spread out any more than absolutely necessary. Some showrooms are packed and everyone needs to have room to move around and get to the tables. Be respectful of others.

Mark your carriers. It makes it easier for you to grab the right buns or if you are needed to write or showing another breed someone else can put your rabbits up, with your permission of course.

Judges have worked hard to earn that title and we need to respect them. You may not always like how they placed your rabbit but, that is their opinion. If you don't like it, shake it off and keep your opinion to yourself. You aren't the one being paid to judge. Pay attention to what's happening on the table. If you have been showing for awhile you know what group and class is up next, be ready. The judge should not have to stand around waiting for us to get our rabbits on and off. Pay attention to comments, the judge should not have to talk "over" us. Even if it isn't your rabbit, you might learn something.

Children should not be allowed to run around all over the showroom. It's not only disruptive, but they can be injured or cause someone else to be.

Your breed does not have to be sanctioned for you to show. If you want Sweepstakes points it needs to be sanctioned with the NJWRC. If open is sanctioned and youth is not, your youth can show in open and points will count towards their youth standings. You can reach out to the show secretary and offer to pay for sanctions. Everything you need to know about Sweepstakes can be found on NJWRC Sweeps. Nicole Schmitt does an amazing job of keeping up with all of that.

Most all shows have gone to pre-entry now. If you enter and do not attend you will most likely be charged for your entries unless there is an unavoidable emergency. That's up to each individual show committee.

Tips/Tricks

Did you know your breed doesn't have to be sanctioned to show?

Sanctions ensure you earn sweeps points, but doesn't determine if you can show at any show or not.

District 6 Report

There hasn't been much to report in district 6 due to lack of shows and quite a few wooly members taking a sabbatical. However one District 6 members Abi Evans has been traveling all over and getting quite a few impressive wins. She traveled all the way to Lebanon Indiana on December 17th picking up a BOB with her sr agouti buck Sweater Weather's Paprika. And a BOSB with the same buck in Dalton Georgia on January 28th. Congratulations Abi on your astounding wins.

District 7 Report

WE'VE HAD EXTREMES IN WEATHER HERE, RANGING FROM -22 ° TO 50 °. AS WORRIED AS I'VE BEEN ABOUT HOW THE BUNNIES WOULD HANDLE THESE FLUCTUATIONS, EVERYONE HAS BEEN DOING WELL.

I tend to not breed much during the coldest months, but for the first time in several years I didn't try for *any* litters this winter. With the days becoming longer, I plan on pairing up some rabbits very soon. I've heard about some promising juniors others are seeing in their nest boxes, though! It'll be exciting to see some of these juniors on the show table this spring!

I've heard Angelina DeVito is doing extremely well at the shows. She won two RIS: at the YCRBA with a REW Jr Doe and at GSYRBA with a Tan Jr Doe. She attended PaSRBA and won Best Colored Wool with her Orange Buck in the youth specialty and BOG Tan in shows A, B and C. Some of these animals were from her own breedings. Congratulations Angelina!

Tips/Tricks

First thing to check if a rabbit isn't eating is if they have water and/or their water bottle is working.

"If (rabbits) dont have water, they will not eat and lose condition."
~Julie Aversa

District 8 Report

We are currently in the midst of winter as I write this article and it is 20 degrees outside. Which, reminds me to remind everyone that we need to have water available to our rabbits at all times. If they do not have water they will not eat and will loose condition.

I am getting excited for the 2023 National Show hosted by the Ohio Jersey Wooly Club. They have been hard at work to put on an awesome show. I am so looking forward to getting to see everyone and their beautiful buns. It will be upon us before we know it.

This month we are going to discuss the Shaded group and our Standard of Perfection for them. Included in the showable colors are Tortoise shell: blue, black, chocolate and lilac, Sable Point, Seal, Siamese Sable and Smoke Pearl. Chocolate and Lilac tort were passed at 2022 ARBA Convention.

Blue Tortoise Shell-The face, ears, feet, and tail are to be smoky blue. Body wool is to be fawn, shading to a smoky blue on the rump, flanks, haunches and belly. Undercolor is to be pale cream. Eyes-Blue-gray.

Black Tortoise Shell-The face, ears, feet and tail are to be smoky black. Wool is to be orange, shading to a smoky black on the rump,, flanks, haunches, and belly. Undercolor is to be cream. Eyes-Brown. Disqualification from Competition-White Belly or underside of the tail.

Sable Point-The face, ears, feet, and tail are to be sepia brown. Body wool is to be cream. Undercolor is to be light cream or white. Eyes Brown, ruby cast permissible. Faults-Blotchy color: heavy shading on body. (Note: most of the dark Sable Points are actually Seal Points, possessing two shaded genes.) Disqualification from Competition-Body wool pure white. White on the underside of the tail.

Seal-Color is to be rich, sepia (almost black) on the face, ears, saddle, feet, and tail. Body wool is to shade only slightly to a dark sepia on the flanks, chest, and belly. Eyes-Brown, ruby cast permissible.

Disqualification from Competition-Lack of discernible shading.

Siamese Sable-Color is to be a rich, sepia on the face, ears, saddle, feet and tail. Saddle color is to shade off gradually to a paler sepia on the flanks, chest, and belly. Eyes-Brown, ruby cast permissible. Fault-Blotchy shading

Smoke Pearl-color is to be a rich smoke gray on face, ears, saddle feet, and tail. Saddle color is to shade off to a soft pearl gray on the flanks, chest, and belly. Eyes-Bue-gray, ruby cast permissible. Fault Blotchy shading

That is our shaded group, one of my favorite groups. I would love to see more shaded on the tables!!!!

This years challenge: To grow our youth. Let's do it.

Don't forget to share your fliers for shows, and your winning photos on our District 8 facebook page.

District 9 Report

I hope that this finds everyone enjoying the Winter and Early Spring shows. It has been an unusually warm February for us here in PA. We are loving this weather and continuing to breed for Convention. Crossing my fingers that all of your nestboxes are full of beautiful show prospects.

This year's Jersey Wooly Nationals is at the Hall of Fame Show in Canton, OH which is an amazing venue. The host club has been hard at work getting ready for all of us to join them in celebrating our awesome breed. I encourage all of you to come to Nationals as it is a wonderful time to see old friends as well as make new ones. After all, Jersey Wooly Breeders are super friendly and extremely helpful! It is also a great time to gain knowledge from talking to other breeders and also get some new bloodlines from around the country.

As we are getting closer to Nationals, I encourage everyone to up their care of their rabbits even more than normal. Keep those cages super clean, coats properly groomed, nails trimmed and stains removed. Keep an extra careful eye on eating, water intake, proper poop and body condition. Prep, disinfect and label your carriers and show equipment ahead of time so that you are ready when it is time to head out. If you have space and feel comfortable with it, offer to take and show a Jersey Wooly or 2 for a local Youth breeder who might not be able to attend Nationals. We want to encourage our youth as much as possible. Drive safe everyone and see you in Canton!

Best Of Breed ~Youth~

2022 ARBA Convention
Reno, NV

Cody Landis
AFB's Panda: Broken Sr. Buck

Convention was so much fun this year getting to hang out with all of our friends in Reno!

Winning Youth BOB with AFB's Panda Bear was such a huge honor. Like always, Panda celebrated by chewing holes in my sweatshirt. LOL!

Panda (or PB as we call him) is one of those "once in a lifetime" kind of rabbits. He is awesome and yet so sweet and snuggly too. Panda currently has 52 legs which includes 11 BIS, 5 RIS, 32 BOBs and 8 BOSBs. He was also the Youth BOSB at the 2021 Convention in Kentucky and the Youth Best Junior at the JW Nationals in Louisiana. He is the kind of rabbit that we dreamed of for years.

Panda comes from a breeding that combines Allstar's lines and our old shaded/self lines. His sire Allstar's Leo is a great broken black buck that has 11 legs (2 BIS & 3 BOB – 1 of them was Youth BOB at JW Nationals in Louisiana). We can't thank Julie & Lindsay Aversa enough for letting us buy him a few years ago. He and his offspring have become the backbone of our Broken, Shaded, Self and Tan Jersey Woolies.

Panda's dam is a big blue brood doe named AFB's Charmaine whose pedigree includes AFB's Zeke, Fuzzyville's Show Me Off and Fuzzyville's Broken Tear. She may not be much to look at, but she is solid and has produced most of our best rabbits.

Panda, his dad Leo and his siblings have been very prolific breeders and it is hard to find a rabbit in our barn that doesn't have their lines in their pedigrees. We have also been trying to spread his genes around to as many breeders as possible and love to hear how his kids and grandkids are doing for their new owners.

I wanted to say Congratulations to everyone that showed at convention. A special congratulations to Rose-Marie "Bunny" Turley on passing those awesome Oranges!! I told mom that we might have to get a few. 12 Congrats to Makayla Wallock on winning Youth BOSB with her beautiful homegrown Pointed Black Sr Doe, Congrats to Cheryl Loesch on winning Open BOB with your gorgeous Self SR Doe and Congrats to Amber Henderson on winning Open BOSB with your stunning Broken SR Buck. There were soooo many beautiful Jersey Woolies there.

Best Opposite Of Breed ~Youth~

2022 ARBA Convention
Reno, NV

*Makayla Wallock
AOV Sr. Doe
Wallock's Woolies Nala*

Wow, what can I say other than my second year showing at ARBA Convention did not disappoint!

I took a small, but mighty team of Jersey Woolies. I only showed five Jersey Woolies of which four were homegrown. Three out of the five were also juniors. I was happy with how they all did and the comment they received. Pretty girl, Wallock's Woolies Nala, was honored with BOS and I couldn't be prouder of her and her success. She is a typey doe with a wonderful coat. She truly loves to show and pose. And to put the cherry on top, she is a pointed white, my favorite color!

I love the himi color so much that when I decided to start showing a six class breed I went with the Californian. I am also working on a himi mini satin project. Although as much I love the pointed whites, himi's, when it comes to breeding and keeping in my barn color isn't deciding factor. It is all about type and proper coats.

Congratulations to all of the exhibitors and winners at ARBA Convention this past year! I hope everyone's nest boxes are full. Already looking forward to Kentucky, can't wait to see my jersey wooly wooly family, as that is the best part of showing.

The friends and fun is priceless!

Letter From The Editor.....

Anyone else ready for Spring? I'm sure many of us are in the midst of a false spring. We have been unseasonably woarm, and then the tide quickly turns and we get snow.

Hopefully everyone is staying dry and making plans for Nationals in Canton, OH in April. The Ohio club has been working diligently to ensure everything runs as smoothly as possible. I look forward to seeing everyone and attending my first nationals since 2004 when I was showing as a youth exhibitor.

As everyone is venturing out in better weather, please continue to send photos to your district representatives to be featured in the next edition. Sending to your district representatives help ensure I can get them organized by district and labeled properly.

As always, best wishes to everyone and safe travels! Hope to see you all in Canton!
