

2018 AERC CENTRAL REGION

100 / 55 / 35 MILE ENDURANCE CHAMPIONSHIP RIDES

Sponsored by Glendale Grace Farm, Fort Gibson, Oklahoma

Held in conjunction with the Indian Territory Endurance Ride at Lake Carl Blackwell in Stillwater, Oklahoma on November 10, 2018.

The goal of this championship is to encourage Central Region riders to ride more Central Region rides.

Qualifications: Must be a member in good standing of the American Endurance Ride Conference and live in the Central Region.

35 Mile Qualifications: Four limited distance rides completed in the Central Region in the 2018 ride season for both horse and rider. At least two of those rides must be as a team.

55 Mile Qualifications: Three endurance rides completed in the Central Region in the 2018 ride season for both horse and rider. At least one of those rides must be as a team.

100 Mile Qualifications: At least one 75- or 100-mile ride completed as a team in the Central Region during the 2018 ride season, OR four endurance-length rides completed in the Central Region in the 2018 ride season for both horse and rider with at least two of those rides completed as a team.

Awards: All entrants will receive a participation T-Shirt. Each distance will award Top Ten, Champion and Best Condition, and 1st Place Junior.

Entry Fee & Deadline: Entry Form and $30 fee must be postmarked no later than October 20, 2018. A charge of $10 is non-refundable if you don't start the ride. Rider must be officially entered in and have paid the additional fees for the Indian Territory Endurance Ride. Entry form and release forms for the Indian Territory Endurance Ride must be signed.

Ride Rules/Regulations: This ride will be conducted in accordance with AERC rules and regulations, and any additional rules ride management of Indian Territory imposes. For information regarding AERC rules, contact AERC (866) 271-2372 or visit the AERC website: www.aerc.org.
