

11-27-23

to Yah,

You have brought me to my knees, once again, Father. In awe of Your Presence and Glory, You recycle the garbage we create into beautiful things. I will give You Your due! You have given me great wisdom to see the great number of things I do not understand. You give me, sometimes, possible solutions without further direction. You go before me and behind me to fix problems from my dumb mistakes. You take pity on me and give me much grace & mercy, even when I don't know what to apologize for. I live in a warm blanket of Your forgiveness.

if you ever want
anything, hit me up, but...
if you need, seek God

#haiku for Jesus