In celebration of the 188th anniversary of Frederick Douglass' escape from slavery to freedom, BAATC/BBH Tours is hosting a multi-day tribute to the legendary freedom fighter, Mr. Frederick Augustus Washington Bailey-Douglass. In 2000, Lou Fields created the highly popular Frederick Douglass Path to Freedom Walking Tour in the historic waterfront Fell's Point community.

During the week of September 3-6, 2026, Lou will lead the walking tour and host the Douglass lecture, a book fair and the Douglass exhibit. All events will be held at venues in Fell's Point, Baltimore.

My latest book, Freedom Seekers, the Story of Early Abolitionists in Antebellum Baltimore ($24.95) will be available for purchase and book signings during the celebration. My digital publication, A TASTE OF SOUL, is a Maryland culinary tourist guidebook listing minority-owned businesses, tourism partners, special events and service providers. See the digital version at www.atasteofsoul.biz.

Organizations and businesses interested in participating as contributing donors, sponsors, or program book advertisers are encouraged to confirm their involvement as soon as possible to ensure inclusion in promotional materials and program planning. Tour registration, book orders, sponsorship opportunities, and additional details will be available at www.bdxlive.biz.
