In 2000, Lou created the highly popular Frederick Douglass Path to Freedom Walking Tour in the historic waterfront community of Fell's Point. During the week of September 3-6, 2026, Lou will lead the walking tour and host the Douglass lecture, a book fair, and the Douglass exhibit in Fell's Point Square. All events will be held at venues in Fell's Point.

Organizations and businesses are invited to participate as contributing donors, sponsors, or program book advertisers. Please see the next page for sponsorship and program book advertisement opportunities. Tour registration information and other details will be available at www.bdxlive.biz. For additional details, please contact Lou by email at bbhtours@gmail.com or call/text 443.983.7974.

LOU FIELDS is the co-founder and President of the Baltimore African American Tourism Council of MD, Inc. The Council's mission "is to research, preserve, protect and promote Baltimore/Maryland's African American History & Culture, and to utilize this heritage as a vital and beneficial product and a very important part of the Baltimore/Maryland tourism industry."

Since 1996, Lou has collaborated with co-founder the late Steven Pace, Errol E. Brown, Sr., and other supporters as the Council has continued to serve as the exclusive statewide minority tourism organization focused on the growth and development of African American tourism in the State of Maryland. In 2006, Lou served as the founding president of the Greater Baltimore Black Chamber of Commerce. With over four decades of experience in tourism and hospitality, Lou remains active in Maryland and Baltimore tourism and heritage preservation sectors.

The Council provides services to families, school groups, communities, organizations, and public entities that need heritage tourism development programs, research assistance, and information and referral services. Other services include tours, lectures, exhibits, and special events such as dedications and tributes to notable and unknown Baltimoreans and Marylanders.

Through the Council's tourism division, we provide educational heritage tours in Baltimore and across Maryland, including the popular Frederick Douglass Path to Freedom Walking Tour in historic Fell's Point, Baltimore, Maryland.
