# Black Box Blackout: Celebrating Black Creativity

Founded in 2022 by Jazz singer Kristen Warren, and managed by community builder and advocate Amber Bullard, Black Box Blackout is dedicated to honoring black creatives across various disciplines. Since its inaugural season, over 200 black artists have graced the Black Box platform, including actors, comedians, chefs, musicians, and painters. As we embark on our fifth season, we remain committed to enhancing and continuing this vital mission.
