

K9 DECOY DEVELOPMENT COURSE

OCTOBER 21-24, 2019

Hosted By: Institute of Public Safety

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

High Drive K-9 has created a current and explosive decoy course that will expose you to a whole new look at decoying. Handlers know how important a decoy is to a dog's growth and development, but at High Drive K-9 we will take that to the next level. This course offers an explosive, disciplined training approach dealing solely with implementing the most important techniques and strategies as it applies to the decoy's involvement with Canine Aggression, Hidden Sleeves, Muzzles, Leg engagements and much more. The results of our course will directly build, strengthen, and prepare all handlers for successful and safe Decoy Application within your K-9 Unit. K9 Decoy Development 40-hour Certification will be awarded upon completion of this course.

INSTRUCTOR:

Scott Clark, Owner and Head Trainer of High Drive K-9, has been a Police Officer for the City of Coral Springs Police Department (FL) since January 1999 and a current K-9 Handler with them since 2001. He has been working and training patrol and detection dogs since 2002. He is a current certified State of Florida FDLE K-9 Team Instructor and FDLE K-9 Team Evaluator. In addition, Scott is an expert in K9 behavior & Decoy Development, K-9 Unit Head Trainer, Multi-Jurisdictional K-9 Head Trainer, SWAT K-9 Instructor, Team Leader and SWAT Handler, Firearms Instructor, MP5/MP7 Instructor, Sig Rifle Instructor and has trained numerous K-9 Teams across the Country. He is a National Instructor for Law Dog, Police K-9 Magazine & K-9 Cop Magazine, Blueline K-9, HITS Conference; as well as, an active writer for Police K-9 Magazine and K-9 Cop Magazine, where several of his articles have been published. He is currently working his third dual-purpose patrol/narcotics dog.
