“Building For The Future”

Volume 78 Issue 23– November 2019 —Moderator: Edward Dickson - Treasurer: Suzanne Gagneur

2018-2019 Year in Review

Every year has its distinctive peculiarities.

One year, Hurricane Katrina dominated almost everything we did. Another year, it was a series of huge outreach events called Giftfest. This year, it was the year of Hurricane responses and office remodel.

Maury Baptist Associations volunteers responded to FOUR hurricanes. These were: Hurricane Florence in North Carolina; Hurricane Harvey in Texas, Hurricane Michael in Georgia and again in Panama City, Florida. Before all that, I was able to respond to Typhoon Yutu on the Pacific Island of Saipan. (Note: No MBA funds used for Saipan)

We also responded to flooding in middle Tennessee (Adamsville) and some local projects as well such as helping a family when their apartment flooded, helping another family build a bathroom for a man with ALS and building a bathroom for another family who had no functioning facilities or running water at all.

We also help build a church for the seventh straight year in Alaska. We sent two teams up there for that.

Our Vacation Bible School team went to Crossville, Tennessee to help a small church have VBS where they otherwise would not be able to do it.

In addition to all the above and mixed in-between we've been remodeling our MBA office. We're about 75% finished with that and it's really starting to look nice.

Sadly, we lost three pillars of our association in the last few weeks. Retired pastors Jack Taylor and J. O. Martin along with one of our most loved volunteers, Raybon Kelley, are all enjoying their heavenly home.

We welcomed Esperanza Church to our membership. They're a bilingual Hispanic congregation meeting in Williamson County near I-840.

Our annual meeting had such a sweet spirit and we're looking forward to another year serving our Lord side by side.

Nothing on planet earth I'd rather be doing.

Blessings, Bro. Dale
