

DEVOTIONAL

Preserved Status

MARKED SAFE BY THE
HAND OF THE LORD

CONNIE MORRIS

Chapter 250: Preserved Status: Marked Safe by the Hand of the Lord

Preface

In today's digital world, we've come to recognize a particular phrase that brings momentary relief in the face of chaos: "Marked Safe." During hurricanes, shootings, natural disasters, and moments of public crisis, Facebook allows users to post this status to assure their loved ones they've survived.

But before the world offered a digital check-in, Heaven declared something far greater.

Long before danger formed against you, God marked you safe—by His blood, His Word, and His Spirit.

"When I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you..."

— Exodus 12:13 (NIV)

"You are sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, which is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance..."

— Ephesians 1:13–14 (NIV)

"The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous run in and are safe."

— Proverbs 18:10 (KJV)

This isn't symbolic—it's supernatural. You weren't just spared by chance; you were divinely preserved. Every bullet that missed, every car crash avoided, every night you didn't lose your mind—those weren't coincidences. Those were coverings.

Psalms 121:7–8 declares,

"The Lord will keep you from all harm—He will watch over your life; the Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore."

That's your status. That's your identity. Preserved. Protected. Marked Safe.

When the world says, "Let us know if you made it,"

Heaven says, "I already wrote your name in the Lamb's Book of Life."

This devotional is for the one who's been through fire and flood (Isaiah 43:2), for the one who's walked through heartbreak, hardship, and hell—and came out still standing.
Not because you were lucky but because God wouldn't let you fall.

"Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling..."

— Jude 1:24 (KJV)

You were marked safe by the hand of the Lord—not just to survive, but to testify.

Welcome to your Preserved Status.

Introduction

The world is full of risks—natural disasters, violent acts, emotional upheavals, spiritual warfare, and unpredictable storms. In such times, fear tries to creep in, whispering, "You're not safe... You might not make it this time."

But for the believer, there's a different report—one that silences fear with faith and panic with peace. Heaven's record over your life is not "vulnerable," "exposed," or "forgotten." Instead, it is boldly stamped:

PRESERVED. MARKED SAFE. SEALED. KEPT.

"The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade at your right hand."

— Psalms 121:5 (KJV)

This devotional journey is a reminder that God's protection is not temporary or selective—it's relational and eternal. You are not preserved by accident. You are preserved on purpose and for a purpose. God's keeping power is active in your life through three divine forces:

- The Blood of Jesus – covering and protecting from judgment and destruction (Exodus 12:13)
- The Word of God – speaking life, warning, wisdom, and direction (Psalm 119:114)
- The Holy Spirit – sealing, guiding, and empowering you daily (Ephesians 4:30)

You've been kept through things others didn't survive. That's not something to feel guilty about—it's something to praise God for. It's proof of a promise in motion: "No weapon formed against you shall prosper" (Isaiah 54:17).

In this devotional, we will walk through what it means to be:

- Preserved in the storm
- Marked safe in the fire
- Hidden in plain sight
- Sealed for future glory
- Guarded in your coming and going

This isn't just about survival. It's about living with awareness of the divine hand that's been on your life all along. As you read, reflect, and decree these truths, may your faith be stirred and your identity as one "kept by God" be sealed afresh in your Spirit.

Welcome to a sacred journey through Psalm 121 and beyond—

Where preservation isn't just a promise, it's your current reality.

DAILY DEVOTIONALS

Day 1: Kept by Covenant

Scripture Focus:

"He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: He that keepeth thee will not slumber." — Psalm 121:3
(KJV)

Devotional:

Before you were born, before the attack even formed, God had already established a covenant over your life. Not a casual promise—but a binding agreement, sealed with His name, His Word, and the blood of His Son.

Psalm 121 reminds us that our safety is not based on visibility or physical strength. It's not in the locks on our doors or the alarms we install. Our safety is covenantal.

"He will not suffer thy foot to be moved."

That means God has secured your stability within His divine will.

You may shake, but you will not fall.

You may weep, but you will not break.

You may wander, but you will not be lost.

Because He who keeps you neither slumbers nor sleeps.

While others clock out, God clocks in. He does not nap. He does not miss a moment. Even when you sleep, God is active—warring, watching, intervening. Covenant means He is not doing this out of obligation—He's doing it out of relationship.

"For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but My covenant of peace shall not be removed," says the Lord, who has compassion on you. — Isaiah 54:10 (ESV)

He keeps your soul, your purpose, your destiny, and your future under a divine watch.

You are not simply alive because of good choices or lucky timing.

You are alive because God made a covenant to keep you.

Decree:

I declare that I am kept by the covenant of God.

I will not be moved because the Lord is my Keeper.

His Word surrounds me. His promises uphold me.

I walk in peace, power, and protection—because God has not forgotten His covenant with me.

Prayer:

Lord, thank You for keeping me in every season.

Even when I didn't understand what was happening around me, You were the anchor beneath me.

Remind me daily that I am not just surviving—I am kept by covenant.

Strengthen my heart with this truth, and let it silence every fear.

In Jesus' name, amen.

Day 2: Marked by the Blood

Scripture Focus:

"When I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you..." — Exodus 12:13 (NIV)

Devotional:

Long before there were sirens or security systems, God established the blood as a divine signal. In the land of Egypt, it wasn't status, strength, or speech that saved a household—it was the blood on the doorpost.

That same principle still stands.

You, beloved, are marked by the blood of Jesus. Not just cleansed. Not just forgiven. But sealed and spared.

The enemy recognizes that mark.

Hell trembles at that mark.

Destruction must pass over because of that mark.

The blood is your divine shield. It doesn't mean you won't go through hard things—it means the enemy can't take you out before your time. It means no curse, no hex, no generational chain can override the crimson covering that declares:

This one belongs to the Lord.

*"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony..." —
Revelation 12:11 (KJV)*

You are marked safe—not because danger never tried, but because the blood still speaks (Hebrews 12:24). It speaks of protection. It speaks of redemption. It speaks of ownership.

You've been purchased at a price (1 Corinthians 6:20), and that price ensures your preservation.

Decree:

I declare that I am marked by the blood of Jesus.

No weapon formed against me shall prosper.

The blood shields my mind, my home, my family, and my purpose.

I am not afraid of the terror by night nor the arrow by day—

For I dwell under the blood, and the blood speaks for me.

Prayer:

Jesus, thank You for the blood.

Thank You for paying a price I could never afford.

Let me walk every day in the confidence of that covenant.

Help me remember that I am not only cleansed—I am covered.

Let every attack pass over me because of the mark You placed on me through Calvary.

In Your holy name, amen.

Day 3: The Shade at Your Right Hand

Scripture Focus:

"The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade at your right hand." — Psalm 121:5 (KJV)

Devotional:

In a sun-scorched land, shade is not a luxury—it's a necessity. Spiritually, emotionally, and physically, life can burn hot with pressure, battles, and burdens. But Psalm 121 gives a quiet yet powerful promise:

"The Lord is your shade at your right hand."

God doesn't send someone else to cover you—He comes Himself.

Not at a distance. Not with delay.

But right beside you—at your right hand, the place of strength, authority, and action.

The enemy wants you exposed.

The world wants you exhausted.

But God says, "I'll be your covering. I'll absorb what was meant to weaken you."

"He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

— Psalms 91:1 (KJV)

The "shade" is not just a metaphor—it is a manifestation of God's nearness and nurture. When you feel scorched by criticism, rejection, temptation, or fatigue, the Lord becomes your shadow—guarding your steps and cooling your Spirit.

And notice where He positions Himself: your right hand—the hand of battle. That means in every fight, every courtroom, every hospital room, every meeting—He's standing right there.

Decree:

I declare that the Lord is my Keeper and my shade.

I will not be burned by the heat of life nor shaken by its pressure.

God is near me, beside me, and before me.

Every step I take is guarded. Every battle I face is covered.

I rest under the shadow of the Almighty.

Prayer:

Lord, thank you for being with me in every situation.

When life feels too intense, remind me that You are my shade—my covering and comfort.

Thank You for protecting me from things I didn't even see coming.

Let me feel Your nearness today. Keep me under the shadow of Your wings.

In Jesus' name, amen.

Day 4: Hidden in Plain Sight

Scripture Focus:

"For in the day of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; in the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me; He shall set me up upon a rock." — Psalm 27:5 (KJV)

Devotional:

There are moments when the attacks seem relentless, the pressure unbearable, and the enemy seems far too close. And yet—you're still standing.

Why?

Because while the enemy was watching, God was hiding you.

You've been hidden in plain sight—surrounded by threats but untouched, seen by others but shielded by God.

This isn't about invisibility. It's about divine covering. You're walking through things that should've taken you out. You're showing up while hell has been trying to shut you down. You're present but protected.

"Your life is hidden with Christ in God." — Colossians 3:3 (NIV)

That means your identity, purpose, and survival aren't up for public debate.

You've been tucked under His wing, guarded by His hand, and cloaked in divine protection. The enemy may have plotted, but God rerouted their plans.

They saw you, but they couldn't touch what heaven had hidden.

"You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from trouble..." — Psalm 32:7 (NKJV)

This kind of preservation is personal. It doesn't always make sense on paper. Others might wonder how you're still going. But you know:

You've been hidden in plain sight—by the One who sees all.

Decree:

I declare that I am hidden in Christ.

I am protected from the plans of the enemy, shielded from premature exposure, and covered by the presence of the Lord.

What was meant to destroy me has passed me by—because God has hidden me in His pavilion.

Prayer:

Father, thank You for hiding me when I didn't even know I needed to be hidden.

Thank You for preserving my life, my mind, and my mission.

Even when I walk through dark valleys, I trust that You are my secret place.

Keep me near, and help me to rest in the safety of Your presence.

In Jesus' name, amen.

Day 5: Preserved in the Fire

Scripture Focus:

"When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you." — Isaiah 43:2 (NKJV)

Devotional:

Fire doesn't just test what's real—it reveals what's divine.

You've walked through seasons that felt like a furnace:

Betrayal that seared.

A loss that scorched.

Pressure that could've incinerated your peace.

And yet, here you are.

Not smelling like smoke. Not buried in the ashes.

But preserved by the presence of the Fourth Man in the fire.

"Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?... I see four men loose, walking... and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God." — Daniel 3:24–25 (KJV)

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego weren't just spared from the fire—they were preserved in it.

They didn't avoid the heat—they survived it because God intervened on their behalf.

That's your testimony, too.

The fire didn't kill you—it purified you. It didn't erase your identity—it refined it.

You are stronger now. Clearer. Unshakable. Why?

Because you learned what it means to be kept by the God who governs the flames.

"The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold, but the Lord tests the heart." — Proverbs 17:3 (NKJV)

You are not damaged goods—you're divine evidence. A living reminder that God's preservation doesn't prevent the fire, but it nullifies its power.

Decree:

I declare that I have been preserved in the fire.

The flames did not destroy me—they revealed God's glory in me.

Every trial has been filtered through His hand.

I will not be afraid of adversity because I do not walk through it alone.

I am refined, not ruined.

Prayer:

Lord, thank You for standing with me in the fire.

Thank You for proving Yourself faithful when everything else was failing.

Though it hurt, I know You used it to strengthen me, to purify me, and to bring me out better.

Teach me to trust You, not just to deliver me from the fire, but to walk me through it.

In Jesus' name, amen.

Day 6: Secured by the Spirit

Scripture Focus:

"And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth... When you believed, you were marked in Him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit." — Ephesians 1:13 (NIV)

Devotional:

You don't belong to the world—you belong to God. And to make sure heaven, hell, and all of creation knows it, He marked you.

Not with ink. Not with status.

But with the seal of the Holy Spirit.

This seal is divine evidence—a spiritual stamp of ownership. It's God's way of saying: "This one is Mine. Hands off."

The Holy Spirit does more than comfort. He guards. He speaks. He leads. He corrects. And He secures.

"Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption." — Ephesians 4:30 (NKJV)

You are not out here uncovered. You are not drifting through life vulnerable.

You are secured by the indwelling power of God Himself.

His Spirit is your Counselor, your Protector, your Intercessor.

And when the enemy comes looking, all he sees is the seal.

A seal that says: "Access Denied. Blood Bought. Spirit Filled."

Even when you feel weak, the Spirit is strong. Even when you lose your way, the Spirit knows the route.

He is the security system hell can't hack.

"Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, who also has sealed us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee." — 2 Corinthians 1:21–22 (NKJV)

Decree:

I declare that I am sealed by the Spirit of the living God.

I am not uncovered—I am divinely secured.

The Holy Spirit surrounds me, speaks to me, and preserves me.

No force of darkness can override the mark of God on my life.

Prayer:

Holy Spirit, thank You for sealing me with Your presence.

Remind me daily that I am not alone, not exposed, and not forgotten.

Help me to lean on Your voice, follow Your promptings, and rest in Your power.

Let the seal You placed on me speak louder than every lie of the enemy.

In Jesus' name, amen.

Day 7: From Preservation to Purpose

Scripture Focus:

"You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last..." — John 15:16 (NIV)

Devotional:

You weren't just kept to say, "I survived."

You were preserved so you could produce.

Every attack that failed, every snare that didn't catch you, every battle you came out of—was all leading you to this:

Purpose.

The enemy tried to take you out early because he saw what God put in you.

He saw your call before you fully understood it.

He recognized your impact before you ever picked up the mic, stood at the altar, wrote the book, or led the prayer.

But God preserved you.

Not to hide. Not to sit silent. Not to stay broken.

But to walk boldly in the very thing you were born to do.

"You shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord." — Psalm 118:17 (KJV)

There's fruit inside of you. Testimony that needs to be told.

Healing that others will find through your obedience.

A legacy that will be born from your survival.

You have Preserved Status because God has a plan that includes your voice, your gifts, your scars—and your surrender.

Don't waste the preservation. Walk in the purpose.

Decree:

I declare that I was preserved for a purpose.

Every fiery trial was preparation. Every delay was divine alignment.

I will not hide from my calling. I will walk boldly in what God kept me for.

I am fruitful. I am chosen. I am appointed—and I will not be silent.

Prayer:

Father, thank You for preserving my life—not just for me, but for others You’ve called me to reach.

Let every experience work for Your glory.

Help me to walk in confidence, knowing I am not here by chance.

Use my life as a living testimony of what it means to be preserved on purpose, for purpose, and through purpose.

In Jesus’ name, amen.

Final Declarations & Decrees

Preserved. Marked. Sealed. Sent.

I decree and declare...

1. I am preserved by covenant.

The Lord is my Keeper. My feet will not slip. I am anchored in God's promises.

(Psalm 121:3, Isaiah 54:10)

2. I am marked by the blood of Jesus.

No plague, curse, or destruction will overtake me. I am shielded by the blood that still speaks.

(Exodus 12:13, Revelation 12:11)

3. I am hidden in plain sight.

When the enemy comes, he finds the hand of God over my life. I dwell in the secret place of the Most High.

(Psalm 27:5, Psalm 91:1)

4. I am preserved in the fire.

Trials refine me but do not consume me. The flames cannot scorch what God has anointed.

(Isaiah 43:2, Daniel 3:24–25)

5. I am secured by the Spirit.

I am sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise. My identity is guarded, and my future is guaranteed.

(Ephesians 1:13, 2 Corinthians 1:21–22)

6. I walk with divine protection.

The sun will not smite me by day nor the moon by night. The Lord watches over all my steps.

(Psalm 121:6–8)

7. I was not just preserved—I was prepared.

I walk in purpose, authority, and boldness. What God started in me will not be aborted—it will be fulfilled.

(John 15:16, Philippians 1:6)

8. I live under heaven's banner: MARKED SAFE.

My life is evidence that God still preserves, still protects, and still has a plan.

(Psalm 118:17, Isaiah 46:10)

Spoken Affirmation:

"I didn't just survive—I was preserved. I'm not just here—I've been kept for such a time as this. I will walk boldly in my preserved status, marked safe by the hand of the Lord."

A Word from the Lord: I Have Marked You Safe

My beloved,

You've questioned why you're still here.

You've looked back at the fire, the flood, the warfare—and wondered, "Why did it miss me?"

Here is My answer: I marked you safe.

Not with a symbol the world can see, but with the blood of My Son.

Not with a social media post but with a covenant that cannot be broken.

Before the foundation of the world, I chose you.

I wrapped you in purpose. I covered you in grace. I sealed you with My Spirit.

While others slept, I kept watch.

While weapons formed, I blocked their power.

While the enemy strategized, I surrounded you.

I preserved your mind when anxiety tried to break it.

I preserved your body when sickness tried to claim it.

I preserved your purpose when weariness tried to silence it.

You are not merely surviving—you are standing as living proof that I still preserve, I still protect, and I still perform My Word.

The mark on you cannot be removed.

The seal on you cannot be reversed.

The purpose in you will not be aborted.

So walk boldly, daughter.

Speak freely. Love deeply. Live unshaken.

For I, the Lord your Keeper, have declared over you:

“You are preserved. You are appointed. You are marked safe by My hand.”

And no weapon, no storm, no season will change what I’ve spoken.

Now go—testify of My keeping power, and lead others into the safety I have given you.

—Your Keeper, Your Father, Your Hiding Place.

© 2025 Diary of a Black Woman LLC

The Diary of a Black Woman Podcast

All rights reserved. No part of this devotional may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise—without prior written permission from the publisher, except for brief quotations used in reviews, articles, or teaching materials with proper citation.

Unless otherwise noted, Scripture quotations are taken from the New International Version® (NIV). Copyright ©1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc.™ Used by permission. All rights reserved worldwide.

Other translations used:

- The Holy Bible, King James Version (KJV) – Public Domain
- The New King James Version (NKJV). Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson. Used by permission. All rights reserved.
- The English Standard Version (ESV). Copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Cover design and devotional content by Connie Morris

Founder, Diary of a Black Woman LLC | Host of The Diary of a Black Woman Podcast

Visit us at:

📍 Lincoln, Nebraska, 68526

✉️ diaryofablackwomanpodcast@gmail.com

🌐 www.diaryofablackwomanllc.com

Chapter 250: Preserved Status

In a world fraught with peril and uncertainty, "Chapter 250 Preserved Status" reminds you that you are not just a survivor; you are divinely protected and marked safe by God's unwavering grace. Through trials that could have broken you, discover how His blood, Word, and Spirit have sealed your identity and purpose, ensuring that you emerge not only whole but empowered to testify. Embrace your sacred journey of preservation, where every hardship reveals your strength and every moment of survival is a testament to His faithfulness.