➤ Community Service: Card for Soldiers (Available All Day / Every Day)

Come make cards to send out to deployed or wounded soldiers & veterans. Volunteer to man the booth for community service hours - contact 4-H Department Coordinator to sign-up.

➤ Community Service: Holiday Ornaments for Soldier's Angels (Available All Day / Every Day)

Come make ornaments to send out to deployed or wounded soldiers & veterans. Volunteer to man the booth for community service hours - contact 4-H Department Coordinator to sign-up.

➤ Button Making Activity (Available All Day)

Come make your very own 4-H button for you to wear or put on your backpack to show your support for 4-H!

➤ Origami & Cloverbud Activities (Available All Day)

Calling all Cloverbuds! Join us at the 4-H Department where we'll be hosting all kinds of activities geared for Cloverbuds (ages 5-7). Learn how to make your own 4-H cootie catcher!

Interested in being a demonstrator? Show off your demonstration from Communications Day or demonstrate what you do in your 4-H project area. The setup will be informal - we will have tables setup for demonstrators to display posters, tools, decorations, etcetera on. Demonstrators will interact with the public one-on-one, versus speaking to an audience. This is an excellent introductory opportunity for anyone wanting to get into demonstration or public speaking to help build their confidence and presentation skills. Clubs can also setup a display to promote their club. SIGN-UP HERE: <https://bit.ly/3AB8bxP>

If you are interested in covering a shift at the booth for any of these activities for community service and leadership experience, please contact the 4-H Department Coordinator.

If any clubs or individuals are interested in helping with any of these events or have ideas for future events that you'd like to participate in at the fair please contact the 4-H Department Coordinator Jaime Flora at JaimeFlora@live.com or 623-225-9506.

4-H Presentations

Share your project knowledge and hone your public speaking skills!

Saturday, October 5th, 2024 @ 4:00pm

Presentations can be from any project area and the subject matter must be directly related to one of the member's enrolled projects.

Presentations will be given to a small audience in a casual setting for any newbies afraid of stage fright – perfect opportunity to dip your toes into public speaking!

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Presentation may be either demonstration or illustrated talk format. Visual aids are key to contest presentations. Posters (title, body and summary) as well as any props that enhance the presentation are allowed and highly encouraged. Must be on regular poster boards (no trifold boards or PowerPoints). One table and one easel will be provided. Additional equipment needs must be provided by the presenter and arranged in advance if accommodation can be made. A public address system will not be used in the contest. Live animals are not allowed. The use of notes, while not forbidden, is highly discouraged. Judges may penalize contestants for use of notes.

TIME LIMITS

Junior members (9-13) presentations should be 3-10 minutes in length.

Senior members (14-19) presentations should be 10-15 minutes in length.

Time will begin when the member has been cleared to start and begins to speak and will end when the presenter concludes and asks for questions from the judges. Each judge may deduct 1 point from the total score for each minute over the maximum or under the minimum time.

Questions may only be asked by the judge(s). Question/answer period is not counted in the presentation time limit. Presenter may cite major references during this period if desired or asked. Presenter should repeat the question or incorporate the question into the answer.

Once a contestant(s) have begun the presentation, they may not receive assistance of any kind from any person (parent, coach, sibling, leader, members, audience member, etc.) except the contest official (room monitor).

Contest is open to individuals only, no teams. Contestant order of presentation will be determined by random drawing.

Contest is open to any 4-H member, ages 5-19.

Cloverbuds (ages 5-7) will not be judged and will receive a participation prize only.

Must pre-register for free fair admission/parking.
