WHY ARE THE SUMMER WALKS, TOWN MEETINGS, AND COFFEE HOURS SO IMPORTANT?

Because leadership belongs in the community, not behind a desk.

As Mayor, I will walk every neighborhood each summer, hold Town Meetings every month, and host Coffee Hours across the city, because accessibility, accountability, and action aren't just promises. They are how I lead.

★ FOR WARD A ★

1. HOUSING STABILITY: Cap rent hikes, reform tax breaks, and support nonprofit housing to combat displacement.
2. PUBLIC SAFETY: Increase walking patrols, regulate e-bikes, and invest in youth violence prevention.
3. CITY SERVICES: Upgrade street maintenance, improve parking systems, and clarify trash fee policies.
4. CLEAN & GREEN: Enhance sanitation staffing, enforce waste disposal laws, and maintain parks throughout the year.
5. SENIOR SUPPORT: Expand senior citizen healthcare services, affordable housing, and improve local transportation and home services.
6. COMMUNITY HUBS: Construct recreational center with job training, youth programs, and senior wellness services.
7. COMMUNITY POLICING & TRANSPARENCY: Ensure police transparency and foster trust through data sharing and community policing initiatives.
8. EDUCATION EXCELLENCE: Modernize schools, strengthen instruction, and expand childhood literacy, phonics, and access to books. Introduce block scheduling in middle schools and grow career and technical education programs.
9. TRANSPARENCY: Inform neighbors of planning, development, and government actions.
