MOAA $1,500 Scholarships Available to Graduating Kent County DE JROTC Cadets

Dover, DE. – The Dover Delaware Chapter of the Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) has $1,500 scholarships available for Class of 2023 JROTC cadets, graduating from the following Kent County Delaware area high schools:

- Caesar Rodney, USAF JROTC
- Dover, USAF JROTC
- First State Military Academy, USMC JROTC
- Smyrna, USAF JROTC.

These scholarship awards are based on the cadet's JROTC training accomplishments, academic performance, and community service involvement.

The scholarship applications are available from the Senior JROTC Instructor at each high school named above.

Completed application must be received by Dover MOAA not later than Saturday, March 18th, 2023.

Dover MOAA prides itself on supporting local JROTC cadets and, on being one powerful voice, speaking out on behalf of active and retired military and their families. Our motto is "Never Stop Serving."
