LESSON PART ONE
RULES 1 - 31
NEVADA RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE
ADOPTED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA

Effective July 1, 1973
and Including
Amendments Through June 8, 2020

PREFACE

Pursuant to its rule-making powers (NRS 2.120), the Supreme Court of Nevada in 1970 appointed the undersigned Committee to study that part of the Supreme Court Rules governing practice and procedure in the Supreme Court, and to propose amendments or revision.

On January 24, 1972, the Committee submitted to the Court a report of its activities and recommended adoption of a complete revision of the rules governing practice and procedure, to be known as Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure. The Court referred back to the Committee certain minor amendments which were then integrated into the proposed draft.

The format of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure was chosen as particularly harmonious with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (governing practice and procedure in the lower courts), the latter having been adopted earlier and successfully used in Nevada. Also convenient to the lawyer is the similarity of these rules to those in use in the U.S. Courts of Appeals. The federal numbering system is preserved to facilitate research and amendment.

In the opinion of the Committee, the bar should experience little difficulty in transition from practice under SCR to practice under these rules.

AMENDED ORDERS ADOPTING NEVADA RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE

Pursuant to the appellate authority vested in this Court by Section 4 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Nevada, and the rule-making authority vested in this Court by NRS 2.120, the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada has adopted new rules governing appellate practice before this Court, and has heretofore on March 7, 1973, entered an order adopting such rules and directing their publication. Said order of March 7, 1973, is amended and superceded by this order. Good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the Rules hereto annexed as Exhibit "A," to be known as the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure, be, and they are hereby prescribed to govern the procedure in appeals from the District Courts and in applications for writs and other relief which the Supreme Court or a justice thereof is competent to give. The full text of the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure, a copy of which is hereto annexed as Exhibit "A," is hereby by reference incorporated herein.

2. That the foregoing rules shall take effect on the 1st day of July, 1973, and shall govern all proceedings and appeals and extraordinary writs hereafter taken, and in all such proceedings therein pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the Supreme Court their application in a particular proceeding then pending would not be feasible or would work an injustice, in which case the former procedure may be followed.

3. That Rule 6 and 81 of Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure of the District Courts of Nevada be, and they are hereby, amended effective the 1st day of July, 1973, as set forth in Exhibit "B" hereto annexed and hereby by reference incorporated herein.

4. That all of Rules 72, 73, 74, 75, 76 and 76A of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts of Nevada, and Form 27 annexed to the said rules, be, and they hereby are, abrogated, effective the 1st day of July, 1973.

5. That Rules 6 to 38, inclusive, of the Supreme Court Rules, be, and they hereby are, abrogated, effective the 1st day of July, 1973.

6. That the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure shall appear in the April, 1973 issue of the Nevada State Bar Journal, which shall constitute publication of such rules as required by NRS 2.120, and the official Appellate Procedure Rules of this Court until amended by further order of this Court.

RULE 1. SCOPE, CONSTRUCTION OF RULES

(a) Scope of Rules. These Rules govern procedure in the Supreme Court of Nevada and the Nevada Court of Appeals.

(b) Rules Not to Affect Jurisdiction. These Rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals as established by law.

(c) Construction of Rules. These Rules shall be liberally construed to secure the proper and efficient administration of the business and affairs of the courts and to promote and facilitate the administration of justice by the courts.

(d) Effect of Rule and Subdivision Headings. Rule and subdivision headings set forth in these Rules shall not in any manner affect the scope, meaning or intent of any of the provisions of these Rules.

(e) Definitions of Words and Terms. In these Rules, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

(1) "Appellant" includes, if appropriate, a petitioner.

(2) "Case" includes action and proceeding.

(3) “Clerk” and “clerk of the Supreme Court” means the person appointed to serve as clerk of both the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals.

(4) “Court” means the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals.

(5) “Party,” “applicant,” “petitioner” or any other designation of a party include such party’s attorney of record. Whenever under these Rules a notice or other paper is required to be given or served on a party, such notice or service shall be made on his attorney of record if he has one.

(6) “Person” includes and applies to corporations, firms, associations and all other entities, as well as natural persons.

(7) “Pro se” refers to a party acting on his or her own behalf without the assistance of counsel.

(8) “Postconviction appeal” includes any appeal from an order resolving a postconviction challenge to a judgment of conviction, sentence, or the computation of time served under a judgment of conviction, including, but not limited to, proceedings instituted under NRS Chapter 34.

(9) “Shall” is mandatory and “may” is permissive.

(10) The past, present and future tense shall each include the others; the masculine, feminine and neuter gender shall include the others; and the singular and plural numbers shall each include the other.

[As amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

RULE 2. SUSPENSION OF RULES

On the court’s own or a party’s motion, the court may — to expedite its decision or for other good cause — suspend any provision of these Rules in a particular case and order proceedings as the court directs, except as otherwise provided in Rule 26(b).

[As amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

II. APPEALS FROM JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS OF DISTRICT COURTS

RULE 3. APPEAL — HOW TAKEN

(a) Filing the Notice of Appeal.

(1) Except for automatic appeals from a judgment of death under NRS 177.055, an appeal permitted by law from a district court may be taken only by filing a notice of appeal with the district court clerk within the time allowed by Rule 4.

(2) An appellant’s failure to take any step other than the timely filing of a notice of appeal does not affect the validity of the appeal, but is ground only for the court to act as it deems appropriate, including dismissing the appeal.

(3) Deficient Notice of Appeal. The district court clerk must file appellant’s notice of appeal despite perceived deficiencies in the notice, including the failure to pay the district court or Supreme Court filing fee. The district court clerk shall apprise appellant of the deficiencies in writing, and shall send the notice of appeal to the Supreme Court in accordance with subdivision (g) with a notation to the clerk of the Supreme Court setting forth the deficiencies. Despite any deficiencies in the notice of appeal, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall docket the appeal in accordance with Rule 12.

(b) Joint or Consolidated Appeals.

(1) When two or more parties are entitled to appeal from a district court judgment or order, and their interests make joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal. They may then proceed on appeal as a single appellant.

(2) When the parties have filed separate timely notices of appeal, the appeals may be joined or consolidated by the court upon its own motion or upon motion of a party.

(c) Contents of the Notice of Appeal.

(1) The notice of appeal shall:

(A) specify the party or parties taking the appeal by naming each one in the caption or body of the notice, but an attorney representing more than one party may describe those parties with such terms as “all plaintiffs,” “the defendants,” “the plaintiffs A, B, et al.,” or “all defendants except X”;

(B) designate the judgment, order or part thereof being appealed; and

(C) name the court to which the appeal is taken.

(2) In a class action, whether or not the class has been certified, the notice of appeal is sufficient if it names one person qualified to bring the appeal as representative of the class.

(3) Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of a notice of appeal.

(d) Serving the Notice of Appeal.

(1) In General. The appellant shall serve the notice of appeal on all parties to the action in the district court. Service on a party represented by counsel shall be made on counsel. If a party is not represented by counsel, appellant shall serve the notice of appeal on the party at the party's last known address. The appellant must note, on each copy, the date when the notice of appeal was filed. The notice of appeal filed with the district court clerk shall contain an acknowledgment of service or proof of service that conforms to the requirements of Rule 25(d).

(2) Service in Criminal Appeals. When a defendant in a criminal case appeals, appellant's counsel shall also serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the defendant, either by personal service or by mail addressed to the defendant. In criminal appeals governed by Rule 3C, appellant's trial counsel must comply with the provisions of this Rule and Rule 3C(c) governing service of the notice of appeal.

(e) Payment of Fees. Except where provided by statute, upon filing a notice of appeal, the appellant must pay the district court clerk the Supreme Court filing fee and any fees charged by the district court. Except for amended notices of appeal filed under Rule 4(a)(7), the Supreme Court filing fee is $250 for each notice of appeal filed.

(f) Case Appeal Statement.

(1) Appellant's Duty to File Case Appeal Statement. Upon filing a notice of appeal, the appellant shall also file with the district court clerk a completed case appeal statement that is signed by appellant's counsel.

(2) District Court's Duty to Complete Case Appeal Statement. When the appellant is not represented by counsel, the district court clerk shall complete and sign the case appeal statement.

(3) Contents of Case Appeal Statement. The case appeal statement must contain the following information:

(A) the district court case number and caption showing the names of all parties to the proceedings below, but the use of et al. to denote parties is prohibited;

(B) the name of the judge who entered the order or judgment being appealed;

(C) the name of each appellant and the name and address of counsel for each appellant;

(D) the name of each respondent and the name and address of appellate counsel, if known, for each respondent, but if the name of a respondent's appellate counsel is not known, then the name and address of that respondent's trial counsel;

(E) whether an attorney identified in response to subparagraph (D) is not licensed to practice law in Nevada, and if so, whether the district court granted that attorney permission to appear under SCR 42, including a copy of any district court order granting that permission;

(F) whether the appellant was represented by appointed counsel in the district court, and whether the appellant is represented by appointed counsel on appeal;

(G) whether the district court granted the appellant leave to proceed in forma pauperis, and if so, the date of the district court's order granting that leave;

(H) the date that the proceedings commenced in the district court;

(I) a brief description of the nature of the action and result in the district court, including the type of judgment or order being appealed and the relief granted by the district court;

(J) whether the case has previously been the subject of an appeal to or original writ proceeding in the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals and, if so, the caption and docket number of the prior proceeding;

(K) whether the appeal involves child custody or visitation; and

(L) in civil cases, whether the appeal involves the possibility of settlement.

(4) Form Case Appeal Statement. A case appeal statement must substantially comply with Form 2 in the Appendix of Forms.

(g) Forwarding Appeal Documents to Supreme Court.

(1) District Court Clerk's Duty to Forward.

(A) Upon the filing of the notice of appeal, the district court clerk shall immediately forward to the clerk of the Supreme Court the required filing fee, together with 3 certified, file-stamped copies of the following documents:

the notice of appeal;

the case appeal statement;

the district court docket entries;

the civil case cover sheet, if any;

the judgment(s) or order(s) being appealed;

any notice of entry of the judgment(s) or order(s) being appealed;

any certification order directing entry of judgment in accordance with NRCPC 54(b);

the minutes of the district court proceedings; and a list of exhibits offered into evidence, if any.

(B) If, at the time of filing of the notice of appeal, any of the enumerated documents have not been filed in the district court, the district court clerk shall nonetheless forward the notice of appeal together with all documents then on file with the clerk.

(C) The district court clerk shall promptly forward any later docket entries to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(2) Appellant's Duty. An appellant shall take all action necessary to enable the clerk to assemble and forward the documents enumerated in this subdivision.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 3A. CIVIL ACTIONS: STANDING TO APPEAL; APPEALABLE DETERMINATIONS

(a) Standing to Appeal. A party who is aggrieved by an appealable judgment or order may appeal from that judgment or order, with or without first moving for a new trial.

(b) Appealable Determinations. An appeal may be taken from the following judgments and orders of a district court in a civil action:

(1) A final judgment entered in an action or proceeding commenced in the court in which the judgment is rendered.

(2) An order granting or denying a motion for a new trial.

(3) An order granting or refusing to grant an injunction or dissolving or refusing to dissolve an injunction.

(4) An order appointing or refusing to appoint a receiver or vacating or refusing to vacate an order appointing a receiver.

(5) An order dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment.

(6) An order changing or refusing to change the place of trial only when a notice of appeal from the order is filed within 30 days.

(A) Such an order may only be reviewed upon a timely direct appeal from the order and may not be reviewed on appeal from the judgment in the action or proceeding or otherwise. On motion of any party, the court granting or refusing to grant a motion to change the place of trial of an action or proceeding shall enter an order staying the trial of the action or proceeding until the time to appeal from the order granting or refusing to grant the motion to change the place of trial has expired or, if an appeal has been taken, until the appeal has been resolved.

(B) Whenever an appeal is taken from such an order, the clerk of the district court shall forthwith certify and transmit to the clerk of the Supreme Court, as the record on appeal, the original papers on which the motion was heard in the district court and, if the appellant or respondent demands it, a transcript of any proceedings had in the district court. The district court shall require its court reporter to expedite the preparation of the transcript in preference to any other request for a transcript in a civil matter. When the appeal is docketed in the court, it stands submitted without further briefs or oral argument unless the court otherwise orders.

(7) An order entered in a proceeding that did not arise in a juvenile court that finally establishes or alters the custody of minor children.

(8) A special order entered after final judgment, excluding an order granting a motion to set aside a default judgment under NRCP 60(b)(1) when the motion was filed and served within 60 days after entry of the default judgment.

(9) An interlocutory judgment, order or decree in an action to redeem real or personal property from a mortgage or lien that determines the right to redeem and directs an accounting.

(10) An interlocutory judgment in an action for partition that determines the rights and interests of the respective parties and directs a partition, sale or division.

[As amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

RULE 3B. CRIMINAL ACTIONS: RULES GOVERNING

Appeals from district court determinations in criminal actions shall be governed by these Rules and by NRS 176.09183, NRS 177.015 to 177.305, and NRS 34.575. All appeals in capital cases are also subject to the provisions of SCR 250. Rule 3C applies to all other direct and postconviction criminal appeals, except those matters specifically excluded by Rule 3C(a).

[As amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

RULE 3C. FAST TRACK CRIMINAL APPEALS

(a) Applicability.

(1) This Rule applies to an appeal from a district court judgment or order entered in a criminal or postconviction proceeding, whether the appellant is the State or the defendant.

(2) The Supreme Court may exercise its discretion and apply this Rule to appeals arising from criminal and postconviction proceedings that are not subject to this Rule.

(3) Unless the court otherwise orders, an appeal is not subject to this Rule if:

(A) the appeal challenges an order or judgment in a case involving a category A, category B, or non-probationable category C felony, as described in NRS 193.130(2)(a), (b), or (c);

(B) the appeal is brought by a defendant or petitioner who was not represented by counsel in the district court; or

(C) the appeal is filed in accordance with Rule 4(c).

(b) Responsibilities of Trial Counsel.

(1) Definition. For purposes of this Rule, “trial counsel” means the attorney who represented the defendant or postconviction petitioner in district court in the underlying proceedings that are the subject of the appeal.

(2) Responsibilities. Trial counsel shall file the notice of appeal, rough draft transcript request form, and fast track statement and consult with appellate counsel for the case regarding the appellate issues that are raised. Trial counsel shall arrange their calendars and adjust their public or private contracts for compensation to accommodate the additional duties imposed by this Rule.

(3) Withdrawal. To withdraw from representation during the appeal, trial counsel shall file with the clerk a motion to withdraw from representation. The motion shall be considered only after trial counsel has filed the notice of appeal, rough draft transcript request and fast track statement. The granting of such motions shall be conditioned upon trial counsel’s full cooperation with appellate counsel during the appeal.

(c) Notice of Appeal. When an appellant elects to appeal from a district court order or judgment governed by this Rule, appellant’s trial counsel shall serve and file a notice of appeal pursuant to applicable rules and statutes.

(d) Rough Draft Transcript. A rough draft transcript is a computer-generated transcript that can be expeditiously prepared in a condensed fashion, but is not proofread, corrected or certified to be an accurate transcript.

(1) Format. For the purposes of this Rule, a rough draft transcript shall:

- (A) Be printed on paper 8 1/2 by 11 inches in size, double-sided, with the words “Rough Draft Transcript” printed on the bottom of each page;
- (B) Be produced with a yellow cover sheet;
- (C) Include a concordance indexing key words in the transcript; and
- (D) Include an acknowledgment by the court reporter or recorder that the document submitted under this Rule is a true original or copy of the rough draft transcript.

(2) Notification of Court Reporter or Recorder. When a case may be subject to this Rule, the presiding district court judge shall notify the court reporter or recorder for the case before trial that a rough draft transcript may be required.

(3) Request for Rough Draft Transcript.

- (A) Filing and Service.
 - (i) When a rough draft transcript is necessary for an appeal, trial counsel shall file a rough draft transcript request form with the district court and shall serve a copy of the request form upon the court reporter or recorder and opposing counsel.

(ii) Trial counsel shall serve and file the rough draft transcript request form on the same date the notice of appeal is served and filed.

(iii) Trial counsel shall file with the clerk 2 file-stamped copies of the rough draft transcript request form and proof of service of the form upon the court reporter or recorder and opposing counsel.

(B) Form. The rough draft transcript request shall substantially comply with Form 5 in the Appendix of Forms.

(C) Necessary Transcripts. Counsel shall order transcripts of only those portions of the proceedings that counsel reasonably and in good faith believes are necessary to determine whether appellate issues are present. In particular, transcripts of jury voir dire, opening statements, closing arguments, and the reading of jury instructions shall not be requested unless pertinent to the appeal.

(D) No Transcripts. If no transcript is to be requested, trial counsel shall serve and file with the clerk a certificate to that effect within the same period that a rough draft transcript request form must be served and filed under subparagraph (A). Such a certificate shall substantially comply with Form 14 in the Appendix of Forms.

(E) Court Reporter or Recorder's Duty.

(i) The court reporter or recorder shall submit an original rough draft transcript, as requested by appellant's or respondent's counsel, to the district court no more than 21 days after the date that the request is served.

(ii) The court reporter or recorder shall also deliver certified copies of the rough draft transcript to the requesting attorney and counsel for each party appearing separately no more than 21 days after the date of service of the request. The court reporter or recorder shall deliver an additional certified copy of the rough draft transcript to the requesting attorney for inclusion in the appendix. Within 7 days after delivering the certified copies of the rough draft transcript, the court reporter or recorder shall file with the clerk a certificate acknowledging delivery of the completed transcript and specifying the transcripts that have been delivered and the date that they were delivered to the requesting party. Form 15 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of certificate of delivery.

(iii) Relevant portions of the trial or hearing that were audio recorded or video recorded shall be submitted in typewritten form. The court will not accept audio- or videotapes in lieu of a rough draft transcript.

(4) Supplemental Request for Rough Draft Transcript.

(A) Opposing counsel may make a supplemental request for portions of the rough draft transcript that were not previously requested. The request shall be made no more than 3 days after opposing counsel is served with the transcript request made under Rule 3C(d)(3)(A).

(B) In all other respects, opposing counsel shall comply with the provisions of this Rule governing a rough draft transcript request when making a supplemental rough draft transcript request.

(5) Sufficiency of the Rough Draft Transcript. Trial counsel shall review the sufficiency of the rough draft transcript. If a substantial question arises regarding an inaccuracy in a rough draft transcript, the court may order that a certified transcript be produced.

(6) Exceptions. The provisions of Rule 3C(d)(1) shall not apply to preparation of transcripts produced by means other than computer-generated technology. But time limits and other procedures governing requests for and preparation of transcripts produced by means other than computer-generated technology shall conform with the provisions of this Rule respecting rough draft transcripts.

(e) Filing of Fast Track Statement, Appendix, and Fast Track Reply.

(1) Fast Track Statement.

(B) Length and Contents. Except by court order granting a motion filed in accordance with Rule 32(a)(7)(D), the fast track statement shall not exceed 16 pages in length or shall comply with the type-volume limitations stated in Rule 3C(h)(2). The fast track statement shall include the following:

If the appellant believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment under Rule 17 to the Court of Appeals, the statement shall identify the specific issue(s) or circumstance(s) that warrant retaining the case and an explanation of their importance or significance.

(C) References to the Appendix. Every assertion in the fast track statement regarding matters in a rough draft transcript or other document shall cite to the page and volume number, if any, of the appendix that supports the assertion.

The fast track response shall include additional authority and factual information necessary to rebut the contentions in the fast track statement. The fast track response also shall include a statement, setting forth whether the matter should be retained by the Supreme Court or assigned to the Court of Appeals, including reference to any appropriate provisions in Rule 17. If the respondent believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment under Rule 17 to the Court of Appeals, the statement shall identify the specific issue(s) or circumstance(s) that warrant retaining the case and an explanation of their importance or significance.

(C) References to the Appendix. Every assertion in the fast track response regarding matters in a rough draft transcript or other document shall cite to the page and volume number, if any, of the appendix that supports the assertion.

(g) Filing of Supplemental Fast Track Statement and Response.

(1) Supplemental Fast Track Statement.

(A) When Permitted; Length. A supplemental fast track statement of not more than 5 pages or its equivalent calculated under the type-volume limitation provisions of Rule 3C(h)(2) may be filed when appellate counsel differs from trial counsel and can assert material issues that should be considered but were not raised in the fast track statement.

(B) Time for Service and Filing; Number of Copies. When permitted under subparagraph (A), an original and 1 copy of a supplemental fast track statement shall be filed with the clerk, and 1 copy shall be served upon opposing counsel, no more than 21 days after the fast track statement is filed or appellate counsel is appointed, whichever is later.

(2) Supplemental Fast Track Response. No later than 14 days after a supplemental fast track statement is served, the respondent may file and serve a response of not more than 5 pages or its equivalent calculated under the type-volume limitation provisions of Rule 3C(h)(2).

type-volume in lieu of page limitation. Using a type-volume limitation, a fast track statement is acceptable if it contains no more than 7,267 words or 693 lines of text. A fast track response is acceptable if it contains no more than two-thirds the type-volume specified for a fast track statement (4,845 words or 462 lines of text); and a fast track reply or supplement is acceptable if it contains no more than 2,333 words or 216 lines of text.

(3) Certificate of Compliance. Fast track filings must include a certificate of compliance in substantially the form required by Rule 32(a)(8). A certificate that includes the first two paragraphs under “Verification” in Forms 6 and 7 of the Appendix of Forms will be regarded as sufficient to meet the requirements of this Rule.

(i) Extensions of Time.

(1) Preparation of Rough Draft Transcript.

(A) Seven-Day Telephonic Extension. A court reporter or recorder may request by telephone a 7-day extension of time to prepare a rough draft transcript if the preparation requires more time than is allowed under this Rule. If good cause is shown, the clerk or a designated deputy may grant the request by telephone or by written order of the clerk.

(B) Additional Extensions by Motion. Subsequent extensions of time for filing rough draft transcripts shall be granted only upon motion to the court. The motion shall justify the requested extension in light of the time limits provided in this Rule, and shall specify the exact length of the extension requested. Extensions of time for the filing of rough draft transcripts shall be granted only upon demonstration of good cause. Sanctions may be imposed if a motion is brought without reasonable grounds.

(2) Fast Track Statement and Response; Supplemental Statement and Response.

(A) Seven-Day Telephonic Extension. Counsel may request by telephone a 7-day extension of time for filing fast track statements and responses, and supplemental fast track statements and responses. If good cause is shown, the clerk may grant the request by telephone or by written order of the clerk.

(B) Additional Extensions by Motion. Subsequent extensions of time for filing fast track statements and responses, and supplemental fast track statements and responses shall be granted only upon motion to the court. The motion shall justify the requested extension in light of the time limits provided in this Rule, and shall specify the exact length of the extension requested. Extensions of time for the filing of fast track statements and responses, and supplemental fast track statements and responses shall be granted only upon demonstration of extreme need or merit. Sanctions may be imposed if a motion is brought without reasonable grounds.

(j) Amendments to Statements and Responses. Leave to amend fast track statements and responses, or supplemental fast track statements and responses shall be granted only upon motion to the court. A motion to amend shall justify the absence of the offered arguments in the initial or supplemental fast track statement or response. The motion shall be granted only upon demonstration of extreme need or merit.

(k) Full Briefing, Calendaring or Summary Disposition.

(1) Based solely upon review of the rough draft transcript, fast track statement, fast track response, and any supplemental documents, the court may summarily dismiss the appeal, may affirm or reverse the decision appealed from without further briefing or argument, may order the appeal to be fully briefed and argued or submitted for decision without argument, may order that briefing and any argument be limited to specific issues, or may direct the appeal to proceed in any manner reasonably calculated to expedite its resolution and promote justice.

(2) Motion for Full Briefing.

(A) A party may seek leave of the court to remove an appeal from the fast track program and direct full briefing. A motion for full briefing shall be granted unless it is filed solely for purposes of delay. It may be filed in addition to or in lieu of the fast track pleading.

(B) The motion must identify specific reasons why the appeal is not appropriate for resolution in the fast track program. Such reasons may include, but are not limited to, the following circumstances:

(i) The case raises one or more issues that involve substantial precedential, constitutional, or public policy questions; and/or

(ii) The case is legally or factually complex.

(C) No opposition may be filed unless ordered by the court.

(3) If the court orders an appeal to be fully briefed, and neither party objects to the sufficiency of the rough draft transcripts to adequately inform this court of the issues raised in the appeal, counsel are not required to file certified transcript request forms under Rule 9(a). If a party's brief will cite to a transcript not previously included in an appendix submitted to this court, that party shall file and serve a transcript request form in accordance with Rule 9 within the time specified for filing the brief in the court's briefing order. If a party's brief will cite to documents not previously filed in the court, that party shall file and serve an appropriately documented supplemental appendix with the brief.

(l) Withdrawal of Appeal. If an appellant no longer desires to pursue an appeal after the notice of appeal is filed, counsel responsible for the appeal at that time shall file with the clerk a notice of withdrawal of appeal. The notice of withdrawal of appeal shall substantially comply with Form 8 in the Appendix of Forms.

(m) Court Reporter or Recorder Protection and Compensation.

(1) Liability. Court reporters or recorders shall not be subject to civil, criminal or administrative causes of action for inaccuracies in a rough draft transcript unless the court reporter or recorder willfully:

(A) Fails to take full and accurate stenographic notes of the criminal proceeding for which the rough draft transcript is submitted, or willfully and improperly alters stenographic notes from the criminal proceeding, or willfully transcribes audio- or videotapes inaccurately; and

(B) Such willful conduct proximately causes injury or damage to the party asserting the action, and that party demonstrates that appellate or postconviction relief was granted or denied based upon the court reporter's or recorder's inaccuracies.

(2) Compensation. Court reporters shall be compensated as follows:

(A) For preparing a rough draft transcript, the court reporter shall receive 100 percent of the rate established by NRS 3.370 for each transcript page as defined by NRS 3.370 and $25 for costs. Costs include the cost of delivery of the original and copies of the rough draft transcript. In the event that overnight delivery is required to or from outlying areas, that cost shall be additional.

(B) In the event a certified transcript is ordered after the rough draft transcript is prepared, the court reporter shall receive an additional fee equal to 25 percent of the amount established by NRS 3.370 for the already prepared rough draft portion of the transcript. Any portions not included with the rough draft transcript will be compensated by the amount established by NRS 3.370.

(n) Sanctions. Any attorney, court reporter, or court recorder who lacks due diligence in compliance with this Rule may be subject to sanctions by the court. Sanctionable actions include, but are not limited to, failure of trial counsel to file a timely fast track statement or fast track response; failure of trial counsel to fully cooperate with appellate counsel during the course of the appeal; and failure of counsel to raise material issues or arguments in a fast track statement, response, supplemental statement or supplemental response.

(o) Conflict. The provisions of this Rule shall prevail over conflicting provisions of any other rule.

[Added; effective September 1, 1996; as amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 3D. JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE: RIGHT TO APPEAL; HOW TAKEN; RULES GOVERNING

(a) Definitions. As used in this Rule:

(1) “Respondent” means any Supreme Court justice, Court of Appeals judge, district judge, justice of the peace, or municipal court judge or referee, master, or commissioner who is the subject of any disciplinary or removal proceedings instituted before the commission on judicial discipline.

(2) “Service” means service by personal delivery or by registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested.

(b) Who May Appeal. Any Supreme Court justice, Court of Appeals judge, district judge, justice of the peace, or municipal court judge or referee, master, commissioner or other judicial officer who is the subject of any disciplinary or removal proceedings instituted before the commission on judicial discipline may appeal to the Supreme Court from the orders set forth in Rule 3D(c).

(c) Appealable Decisions. An appeal may be taken:

(1) From an order of suspension from the exercise of office under NRS 1.4675.

(2) From an order of censure, removal, retirement, or other form of discipline.

(d) Notice of Appeal. An appeal to the Supreme Court from a commission order shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the clerk of the commission and serving a copy of the notice on the prosecuting counsel, if any. Filing and service must be made within 14 days after service on the respondent of the commission’s formal order of suspension, censure, removal, retirement, or other discipline, together with its formal findings of fact and conclusions of law. Upon the filing of the notice of appeal, the clerk of the commission shall immediately transmit to the clerk of the Supreme Court 2 file-stamped copies of the notice of appeal.

(e) Transcripts. Any request for all or part of a transcript must be made in accordance with rules adopted by the commission in regard thereto.

(f) Applicable Rules. In all other respects an appeal from a commission order shall proceed in the same manner as a civil appeal except that the provisions of Rule 4(f) for expediting criminal appeals shall apply to all appeals from orders or actions taken by the commission. Other provisions in the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure apply to appeals from a commission order, unless this Rule expressly provides to the contrary or application of a particular rule is clearly impracticable, inappropriate, or inconsistent. All references to the district court in applicable portions of the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure must be deemed references to the commission.

(g) Interlocutory Orders. Review of interlocutory orders of the commission, which are considered either by the prosecuting officer or the respondent judge to be without or in excess of jurisdiction, may be sought by way of petition for an appropriate extraordinary writ.

(h) Disqualification of Supreme Court Justices. Any justice who sat on the commission is disqualified from participating in the consideration or decision of an appeal from an action that was taken by the commission during his or her membership on the commission.

[Added; effective February 21, 2003; as amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 3E. FAST TRACK CHILD CUSTODY APPEALS

(a) Applicability. This Rule applies to appeals and cross-appeals from district court orders pertaining to child custody or visitation.

(b) Responsibilities of Appellant. Appellant and cross-appellant are responsible for filing the notice of appeal, case appeal statement, docketing statement, a transcript request form, and a fast track statement for the case identifying the appellate issues that are raised. An appellant and/or cross-appellant who is proceeding without counsel need not prepare a case appeal statement, as the district court clerk will prepare this document in accordance with Rule 3(f)(2).

(c) Request for Transcripts or Rough Draft Transcripts.

(1) Rough Draft Transcript. For the purposes of this Rule, a rough draft transcript is a computer-generated transcript that can be expeditiously prepared in a condensed fashion, but is not proofread, corrected or certified to be an accurate transcript. A rough draft transcript shall:

(A) be printed on paper 8 1/2 by 11 inches in size, double-sided, with the words “Rough Draft Transcript” printed on the bottom of each page;

(B) be produced with a yellow cover sheet;

(C) include a concordance, indexing key words contained in the transcript;

and

(D) include an acknowledgment by the court reporter or recorder that the document submitted pursuant to this Rule is a true original or copy of the rough draft transcript.

(2) Transcript Requests.

(A) Filing and Serving Request Form. The parties have a duty to confer and attempt to reach an agreement concerning the transcripts necessary for the court’s review on appeal. When a transcript is necessary for an appeal, appellant shall file the transcript or rough draft transcript request form with the district court and shall serve a copy of the request form upon the court reporter or recorder and the opposing party. Appellant shall file and serve the request form within 14 days of the date that the Supreme Court approves the settlement conference report indicating that the parties were unable to settle or, if the case was exempted or removed from the settlement program, within 14 days of the date that the case was exempted or removed from the settlement program. Appellant shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court 2 file-stamped copies of the transcript or rough draft transcript request form and proof of service of the form upon the court reporter or recorder and the opposing party. The transcript request form shall substantially comply with Form 3 or 11 in the Appendix of Forms unless the party filing the form is proceeding pro se, in which case the transcript request form shall substantially comply with Form 17 in the Appendix of Forms. If no transcript is to be requested, appellant shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court and serve the opposing party with a certificate to that effect within the same period that the transcript request form must be filed and served under this subsection. Such a certificate shall substantially comply with Form 14 in the Appendix of Forms.

(B) Appellant shall order transcripts of only those portions of the proceedings that appellant reasonably and in good faith believes are necessary to determine the appellate issues.

(C) The court reporter or recorder shall submit an original transcript or rough draft transcript, as requested by appellant, to the district court no more than 21 days after the date that the request is served. The court reporter or recorder shall also deliver certified copies of the transcript or rough draft transcript to the requesting and opposing parties no more than 21 days after the date when the request is served. Within 7 days after delivering the certified copies of the rough draft transcript, the court reporter or recorder shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court a certificate acknowledging delivery of the completed transcript and specifying the transcripts that have been delivered and the date that they were delivered to the requesting party. Form 15 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of certificate of delivery. The preparation of transcripts shall conform with the provisions of this Rule.

(D) When a transcript request form is submitted by a pro se party who is proceeding in forma pauperis, the court reporter or recorder shall take no action on the request unless directed to do so by the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals in accordance with Rule 9(b).

(E) Relevant portions of the trial or hearing that were audio recorded or video recorded shall be submitted in typewritten form. The court will not accept audio- or videotapes in lieu of transcripts.

(3) Supplemental Request for Transcripts or Rough Draft Transcripts. The opposing party may make a supplemental request for portions of the transcript or rough draft transcript that were not previously requested. The request shall be made no more than 7 days after appellant served the transcript request made pursuant to subsection (c)(2) of this Rule. In all other respects, the opposing party shall comply with the provisions of this Rule governing a transcript or rough draft transcript request when making a supplemental transcript request.

(4) Sufficiency of the Rough Draft Transcript. In the event that appellant elects to use rough draft transcripts, appellant shall be responsible for reviewing the sufficiency of the rough draft transcripts. In the event that a substantial question arises regarding a rough draft transcript's accuracy, the court may order the production of a certified transcript.

(d) Filing Fast Track Statement, Response and Appendix.

(1) Filing Fast Track Statement. Within 40 days after the Supreme Court approves the settlement conference report indicating that the parties were unable to settle the case or, if the appeal is removed or exempted from the settlement program, within 40 days after the appeal is removed or exempted, appellant and cross-appellant shall file and serve an original and 1 copy of both a fast track statement form and an appendix with the clerk of the Supreme Court and serve 1 copy of the fast track statement and appendix on the opposing party. The fast track statement shall substantially comply with Form 12 in the Appendix of Forms. The fast track statement shall not exceed 16 pages in length or shall comply with the type-volume limitations stated in Rule 3E(e)(2). The fast track statement shall include the following:

- (A) A statement of jurisdiction for the appeal;
- (B) A statement of the case and procedural history of the case;
- (C) A concise statement summarizing all facts material to a consideration of the issues on appeal;
- (D) An outline of the alleged district court error(s);
- (E) Legal argument, including authorities, pertaining to the alleged error(s) of the district court;
- (F) When applicable, a statement regarding the sufficiency of the rough draft transcript;
- (G) When applicable, a reference to all related or prior appeals, including the appropriate citations for those appeals; and
- (H) A statement, setting forth whether the matter should be retained by the Supreme Court or assigned to the Court of Appeals, including reference to any appropriate provisions in Rule 17. If the appellant believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment under Rule 17 to the Court of Appeals, the statement shall identify the specific issue(s) or circumstance(s) that warrant retaining the case and an explanation of their importance or significance.

(2) Filing Fast Track Response. Within 21 days from the date a fast track statement is served, the respondent and cross-respondent shall file an original and 1 copy of a fast track response and serve 1 copy of the fast track response on the opposing party. The fast track response shall substantially comply with Form 13 in the Appendix of Forms. The fast track response shall not exceed 11 pages in length or shall comply with the type-volume limitations stated in Rule 3E(e)(2). The fast track response shall include additional authority and factual information necessary to rebut the contentions in the fast track statement. In cases involving a pro se appellant and/or cross-appellant, Rule 46A(c) shall not apply and the respondent/cross-respondent shall file a fast track response as required by this Rule.

(3) Expanded Fast Track Statement or Response. A party may seek leave of the court to expand the length of the fast track statement or response. The requesting party must demonstrate that the complexity of the case and the issues presented warrant granting the request. A request for expansion must be filed at least 14 days before the fast track statement or response is otherwise due, and must specify the number of additional pages requested.

(4) Appendix. The parties have a duty under Rule 30 to confer and attempt to reach an agreement concerning a possible joint appendix to be filed with the fast track statement. In the absence of an agreement respecting a joint appendix, appellant shall prepare and file a separate appendix with the fast track statement, and respondent may prepare and file a separate appendix with the fast track response. The preparation and contents of appendices shall comply with Rules 30 and 32 and shall be paginated sequentially. Every assertion in the fast track statement or response regarding matters in an appendix shall cite to the specific page number that supports that assertion.

(5) Pro Se Appellant; Appendix. A pro se appellant or cross-appellant shall not file an appendix. If the court's review of the record is necessary in such a case, the court may direct that the complete record be transmitted as provided in Rule 11(a)(2). Pro se parties are encouraged, but not required, to support assertions made in the fast track statement or response regarding matters in the record by citing to the specific page number in the record that supports the assertions.

(e) Format; Type-Volume Limitation; Certificate of Compliance.

(1) Format. Fast track filings shall comply with the formatting requirements of Rule 32(a)(4)-(6), and Rule 32(a)(7)(C) shall apply in computing permissible length, and Rule 32(a)(8) shall apply with regard to handwritten documents by pro se parties.

(2) Type-Volume Limitation. The size of a fast track filing may be calculated by type-volume in lieu of page limitation. Using a type-volume limitation, a fast track statement is acceptable if it contains no more than 7,267 words or 693 lines of text. A fast track response is acceptable if it contains no more than two-thirds the type-volume specified for a fast track statement (4,845 words or 462 lines of text); and a fast track reply or supplement is acceptable if it contains no more than 2,333 words or 216 lines of text.

(3) Certificate of Compliance. Fast track filings must include a certificate of compliance in substantially the form required by Rule 32(a)(8). A certificate that includes the first two paragraphs under “Verification” in Forms 6 and 7 of the Appendix of Forms will be regarded as sufficient to meet the requirements of this Rule.

(f) Extensions of Time.

(1) Transcripts or Rough Draft Transcripts. A court reporter or recorder may request, by telephone, a 7-day extension of time for the preparation of a transcript or rough draft transcript if such preparation requires more time than is allowed under this Rule. The clerk of the Supreme Court or designated deputy may, for good cause, grant such requests by telephone or by written order.

(2) Fast Track Statements or Responses. Either party may request, by telephone, a 7-day extension of time for filing a fast track statement or response. The clerk of the Supreme Court or designated deputy may, for good cause, grant such requests by telephone or by written order.

(3) Subsequent Request for Extensions. Any subsequent request for an extension of time must be made by written motion to the court. The motion must justify the requested extension in light of the time limits provided in this Rule, and shall specify the exact length of the extension requested. Extensions of time for the filing of fast track statements and responses shall be granted only upon demonstration of extreme need or merit. Sanctions may be imposed if a subsequent motion for an extension of time is brought without reasonable grounds.

(g) Appeal Disposition, Full Briefing, or Calendaring.

(1) Based solely upon review of the transcripts or rough draft transcripts, fast track statement, fast track response, and any other documents filed with the court, the court may resolve the matter or direct full briefing.

(2) A party may seek leave of the court to remove an appeal from the fast track program and direct full briefing. The motion must demonstrate that the specific issues raised in the appeal are complex and/or too numerous for resolution in the fast track program. If the moving party is represented by counsel, the movant must attach a written waiver from the client certifying that counsel has discussed the implications of full briefing and that the client waives expeditious resolution of the appeal.

(3) If the court orders an appeal to be fully briefed, the parties are not required to file transcript request forms pursuant to Rule 9(a) unless otherwise ordered. If a party's brief cites to a transcript not previously filed in the court, that party shall cause a supplemental transcript to be prepared and filed in the district court and the court under Rule 9 within the time specified for filing the brief in the court's briefing order. If a represented party's brief cites to documents not previously filed in the court, that party shall file and serve an appropriately documented supplemental appendix with the brief. In accordance with Rule 30, pro se parties shall not file an appendix, but when the court's review of the record is necessary in a pro se appeal, the court may direct that the complete record be transmitted as provided in Rule 11(a)(2).

(4) Subject to extensions, and if the court does not order full briefing, the court shall dispose of all fast track child custody appeals within 90 days of the date the fast track response is filed.

(h) Court Reporter or Recorder Protection and Compensation. When preparing and submitting rough draft transcripts under this Rule,

(1) Court reporters or recorders shall not be subject to civil, criminal or administrative causes of action for inaccuracies in a rough draft transcript unless the court reporter or recorder willfully

(A) fails to take full and accurate stenographic notes of the proceeding for which the rough draft transcript is submitted, or willfully and improperly alters stenographic notes from the proceeding, or willfully transcribes audio- or videotapes inaccurately; and

(B) such willful conduct proximately causes injury or damage to a party asserting the action, and that party demonstrates that appellate relief was granted or denied based upon the court reporter's or recorder's inaccuracies.

(2) Court reporters shall be compensated as follows:

(A) For the preparation of a transcript or rough draft transcript, the court reporter shall receive 100 percent of the rate established by NRS 3.370 for each transcript page and for costs. A party ordering transcripts or copies must pay the court reporter's fee. No reporter may be required to perform any service in a civil case until the fees have been paid to him or her, or deposited with the court clerk.

(B) In the event that a certified transcript is ordered after the rough draft transcript is prepared, the court reporter shall receive an additional fee as established by NRS 3.370.

(i) Sanctions. Any party, attorney, court reporter, or court recorder who lacks due diligence in compliance with this Rule may be subject to sanctions by the court. Sanctionable actions include, but are not limited to, failure of appellant to timely file a fast track statement or respondent's failure to file a fast track response; and failure of a party to raise material issues or arguments in a fast track statement or response.

(j) Conflict. The provisions of this Rule shall prevail over conflicting provisions of any other rule.

[Added; effective June 1, 2006; as amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 4. APPEAL — WHEN TAKEN

(a) Appeals in Civil Cases.

(1) Time and Location for Filing a Notice of Appeal. In a civil case in which an appeal is permitted by law from a district court, the notice of appeal required by Rule 3 shall be filed with the district court clerk. Except as provided in Rule 4(a)(4), a notice of appeal must be filed after entry of a written judgment or order, and no later than 30 days after the date that written notice of entry of the judgment or order appealed from is served. If an applicable statute provides that a notice of appeal must be filed within a different time period, the notice of appeal required by these Rules must be filed within the time period established by the statute.

[As amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

(2) Multiple Appeals. If one party timely files a notice of appeal, any other party may file and serve a notice of appeal within 14 days after the date when the first notice was served, or within the time otherwise prescribed by Rule 4(a), whichever period last expires.

[As amended; effective July 1, 2009.]

(3) Entry Defined. A judgment or order is entered for purposes of this Rule when it is signed by the judge or by the clerk, as the case may be, and filed with the clerk. A notice or stipulation of dismissal filed under NRCP 41(a)(1) has the same effect as a judgment or order signed by the judge and filed by the clerk and constitutes entry of a judgment or order for purposes of this Rule. If that notice or stipulation dismisses all unresolved claims pending in an action in the district court, the notice or stipulation constitutes entry of a final judgment or order for purposes of this Rule.

[As amended; effective July 1, 2009.]

(4) Effect of Certain Motions on a Notice of Appeal. If a party timely files in the district court any of the following motions under the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, the time to file a notice of appeal runs for all parties from entry of an order disposing of the last such remaining motion, and the notice of appeal must be filed no later than 30 days from the date of service of written notice of entry of that order:

- (A) a motion for judgment under Rule 50(b);
- (B) a motion under Rule 52(b) to amend or make additional findings of fact;

(C) a motion under Rule 59 to alter or amend the judgment;

(D) a motion for a new trial under Rule 59.

[Added; effective December 16, 2004; as amended; effective July 1, 2009.]

(5) Appeal From Certain Amended Judgments and Post-Judgment Orders. An appeal from a judgment substantively altered or amended upon the granting of a motion listed in Rule 4(a)(4), or from an order granting or denying a new trial, is taken by filing a notice of appeal, or amended notice of appeal, in compliance with Rule 3. The notice of appeal or amended notice of appeal must be filed after entry of a written order disposing of the last such remaining timely motion and no later than 30 days from the date of service of written notice of entry of that order.

[Added; effective December 16, 2004.]

(6) Premature Notice of Appeal. A premature notice of appeal does not divest the district court of jurisdiction. The court may dismiss as premature a notice of appeal filed after the oral pronouncement of a decision or order but before entry of the written judgment or order, or before entry of the written disposition of the last-remaining timely motion listed in Rule 4(a)(4). If, however, a written order or judgment, or a written disposition of the last-remaining timely motion listed in Rule 4(a)(4), is entered before dismissal of the premature appeal, the notice of appeal shall be considered filed on the date of and after entry of the order, judgment or written disposition of the last-remaining timely motion.

[Added; effective December 16, 2004; as amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

(7) Amended Notice of Appeal. No additional fees shall be required if any party files an amended notice of appeal in order to comply with the provisions of this Rule.

[Added; effective September 1, 1989; as amended; December 16, 2004.]

(b) Appeals in Criminal Cases.

(1) Time for Filing a Notice of Appeal.

(A) Appeal by Defendant or Petitioner. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 34.560(2), NRS 34.575(1), NRS 176.09183(6), NRS 177.055, and Rule 4(c), the notice of appeal by a defendant or petitioner in a criminal case shall be filed with the district court clerk within 30 days after the entry of the judgment or order being appealed.

(B) Appeal by the State. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 34.575(2), NRS 176.09183(4), and NRS 177.015(2), when an appeal by the state is authorized by statute, the notice of appeal shall be filed with the district court clerk within 30 days after the entry of the judgment or order being appealed.

(2) Filing Before Entry of Judgment. A notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision, sentence or order — but before entry of the judgment or order — shall be treated as filed after such entry and on the day thereof.

(3) Effect of a Motion on a Notice of Appeal.

(A) If a defendant timely files a motion in arrest of judgment or a motion for a new trial on any ground other than newly discovered evidence and the motion has not been denied by oral pronouncement or entry of a written order when the judgment of conviction is entered, the notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction may be filed within 30 days after the entry of an order denying the motion.

(B) If a defendant files a motion for a new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence before entry of the judgment of conviction and the motion has not been denied by oral pronouncement or entry of a written order when the judgment of conviction is entered, the notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction may be filed within 30 days after the entry of an order denying the motion. If a defendant makes such a motion within 30 days after the entry of the judgment of conviction, the time for the defendant to file the notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction will be similarly extended.

(4) Entry Defined. A judgment or order is entered for purposes of this Rule when it is signed by the judge and filed with the clerk.

(5) Time for Entry of Judgment; Content of Judgment or Order in Postconviction Matters.

(A) Judgment of Conviction. The district court judge shall enter a written judgment of conviction within 14 days after sentencing.

(B) Order Resolving Postconviction Matter. The district court judge shall enter a written judgment or order finally resolving any postconviction matter within 21 days after the district court judge's oral pronouncement of a final decision in such a matter. The judgment or order in any postconviction matter must contain specific findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting the district court's decision.

(C) Sanctions; Counsel's Failure to Timely Prepare Judgment or Order. The court may impose sanctions on any counsel instructed by the district court judge to draft the judgment or order and who does not submit the proposed judgment or order to the district court judge within the applicable time periods specified in Rule 4(b)(5).

(6) Withdrawal of Appeal. If an appellant no longer desires to pursue an appeal after the notice of appeal is filed, counsel for appellant shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court a notice of withdrawal of appeal. The notice of withdrawal of appeal shall substantially comply with Form 8 in the Appendix of Forms.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

(c) Untimely Direct Appeal From a Judgment of Conviction and Sentence.

(1) When an Untimely Direct Appeal From a Judgment of Conviction and Sentence May Be Filed. An untimely notice of appeal from a judgment of conviction and sentence may be filed only under the following circumstances:

(A) A postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus has been timely and properly filed in accordance with the provisions of NRS 34.720 to 34.830, asserting a viable claim that the petitioner was unlawfully deprived of the right to a timely direct appeal from a judgment of conviction and sentence; and

(B) The district court in which the petition is considered enters a written order containing:

(i) specific findings of fact and conclusions of law finding that the petitioner has established a valid appeal-deprivation claim and is entitled to a direct appeal with the assistance of appointed or retained appellate counsel;

(ii) if the petitioner is indigent, directions for the appointment of appellate counsel, other than counsel for the defense in the proceedings leading to the conviction, to represent the petitioner in the direct appeal from the conviction and sentence; and

(iii) directions to the district court clerk to prepare and file — within 7 days of the entry of the district court's order — a notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner's behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms.

(C) If a federal court of competent jurisdiction issues a final order directing the state to provide a direct appeal to a federal habeas corpus petitioner, the petitioner or his or her counsel shall file the federal court order within 30 days of entry of the order in the district court in which petitioner's criminal case was pending. The clerk of the district court shall prepare and file — within 30 days of filing of the federal court order in the district court — a notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence on the petitioner's behalf in substantially the form provided in Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms.

(2) Service by the District Court Clerk. The district court clerk shall serve certified copies of the district court's written order and the notice of appeal required by Rule 4(c) on the petitioner and petitioner's counsel in the postconviction proceeding, if any, the respondent, the Attorney General, the district attorney of the county in which the petitioner was convicted, the appellate counsel appointed to represent the petitioner in the direct appeal, if any, and the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(3) Notice of Appeal Filed by Petitioner's Counsel or Petitioner. If the district court has entered an order containing the findings required by Rule 4(c)(1)(B) and the district court clerk has not yet prepared and filed the notice of appeal on the petitioner's behalf, the petitioner or petitioner's counsel may file the notice of appeal from the judgment of conviction and sentence.

(4) Motion to Dismiss Appeal. The state may challenge a district court’s written order granting an appeal-deprivation claim by filing a motion to dismiss the appeal with the clerk of the Supreme Court within 30 days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court. The state’s motion to dismiss shall be properly supported with all documents relating to the district court proceeding that are necessary to the Supreme Court’s or Court of Appeals’ complete understanding of the matter.

(5) Effect on Procedural Bars. When a direct appeal of a criminal conviction and sentence is conducted under this Rule, the timeliness provisions governing any subsequent habeas corpus attack on the judgment shall begin to run upon the termination of the direct appeal, as provided in NRS 34.726(1) and NRS 34.800(2). A habeas corpus petition filed after a direct appeal conducted under this Rule shall not be deemed a “second or successive petition” under NRS 34.810(2).

(d) Appeal by an Inmate Confined in an Institution. If an inmate confined in an institution files a notice of appeal in either a civil or a criminal case, the notice is timely if it is delivered to a prison official for mailing on or before the last day for filing. If the institution has a notice-of-appeal log or another system designed for legal mail, the inmate must use that log or system to receive the benefit of this Rule.

(e) Mistaken Filing in the Supreme Court. If a notice of appeal in either a civil or a criminal case is mistakenly filed in the Supreme Court rather than the district court, the clerk of the Supreme Court must note on the notice the date when it was received and send it to the district court clerk. The notice is then considered filed in the district court on the date so noted.

(f) Expediting Criminal Appeals. The court may, by a majority of its members, make orders to expedite the handling of criminal appeals, including without limitation the following:

- (1) Elimination of steps in preparation of the record and the briefs.
- (2) Expediting preparation of stenographic transcripts.
- (3) Priority of calendaring for oral argument.
- (4) Utilization of court opinions or per curiam orders.

(5) Other lawful measures reasonably calculated to expedite the appeal and promote justice.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 5. CERTIFICATION OF QUESTIONS OF LAW

(a) Power to Answer. The Supreme Court may answer questions of law certified to it by the Supreme Court of the United States, a Court of Appeals of the United States or of the District of Columbia, a United States District Court, or a United States Bankruptcy Court when requested by the certifying court, if there are involved in any proceeding before those courts questions of law of this state which may be determinative of the cause then pending in the certifying court and as to which it appears to the certifying court there is no controlling precedent in the decisions of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals of this state.

(b) Method of Invoking. This Rule may be invoked by an order of any of the courts referred to in Rule 5(a) upon the court's own motion or upon the motion of any party to the cause.

(c) Contents of Certification Order. A certification order shall set forth:

- (5) The names and addresses of counsel for the appellant and respondent; and
- (6) Any other matters that the certifying court deems relevant to a determination of the questions certified.

(d) Preparation of Certification Order. The certification order shall be prepared by the certifying court, signed by the judge presiding at the hearing, and forwarded to the Supreme Court by the clerk of the certifying court under its official seal. The Supreme Court may require the original or copies of all or of any portion of the record before the certifying court to be filed with the certification order, if, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, the record or portion thereof may be necessary in answering the questions.

(e) Costs of Certification. Fees and costs shall be the same as in civil appeals docketed before the Supreme Court and shall be equally divided between the parties unless otherwise ordered by the certifying court in its order of certification.

(f) Docketing in Supreme Court. Upon receiving the certification order, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall docket the case and notify the clerk of the certifying court, the certifying judge, and the parties that the case has been docketed in the Supreme Court.

(g) Briefs and Argument.

(1) The Supreme Court will consider whether to accept a question certified to it without oral or written argument from the parties unless otherwise directed by the Supreme Court.

RULE 6. RESERVED

RULE 7. BOND FOR COSTS ON APPEAL IN CIVIL CASES

(a) When Bond Required. In a civil case, unless an appellant is exempted by law, or has filed a supersedeas bond or other undertaking that includes security for the payment of costs on appeal, the appellant shall file a bond for costs on appeal or equivalent security in the district court with the notice of appeal. But a bond shall not be required of an appellant who is not subject to costs.

(b) Amount of Bond. The bond or equivalent security shall be in the sum or value of $500 unless the district court fixes a different amount. A bond for costs on appeal shall have sufficient surety, and it or any equivalent security shall be conditioned to secure the payment of costs if the appeal is finally dismissed or the judgment affirmed, or of such costs as the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may direct if the judgment is modified. If a bond or equivalent security in the sum or value of $500 is given, no approval thereof is necessary.

(c) Objections. After a bond for costs on appeal is filed, a respondent may raise for determination by the district court clerk objections to the form of the bond or to the sufficiency of the surety.

(d) Proceeding Against a Surety. Rule 8(b) applies to a surety upon a bond given under this Rule.

[As amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

RULE 8. STAY OR INJUNCTION PENDING APPEAL OR RESOLUTION OF ORIGINAL WRIT PROCEEDINGS

(a) Motion for Stay.

(1) Initial Motion in the District Court. A party must ordinarily move first in the district court for the following relief:

(A) a stay of the judgment or order of, or proceedings in, a district court pending appeal or resolution of a petition to the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals for an extraordinary writ;

(B) approval of a supersedeas bond; or

(C) an order suspending, modifying, restoring or granting an injunction while an appeal or original writ petition is pending.

(2) Motion in the Court; Conditions on Relief. A motion for the relief mentioned in Rule 8(a)(1) may be made to the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals or to one of its justices or judges.

(A) The motion shall:

(i) show that moving first in the district court would be impracticable; or

(ii) state that, a motion having been made, the district court denied the motion or failed to afford the relief requested and state any reasons given by the district court for its action.

(B) The motion shall also include:

(i) the reasons for granting the relief requested and the facts relied on;

(ii) originals or copies of affidavits or other sworn statements supporting facts subject to dispute; and

(iii) relevant parts of the record.

(C) The moving party must give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties.

(D) In an exceptional case in which time constraints make consideration by a panel impracticable, the motion may be considered by a single justice or judge.

(E) The court may condition relief on a party's filing a bond or other appropriate security in the district court.

(b) Proceedings Against Sureties. If a party gives security in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits to the jurisdiction of the district court and irrevocably appoints the district court clerk as the surety's agent on whom any papers affecting the surety's liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. On motion, a surety's liability may be enforced in the district court without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and any notice that the district court prescribes may be served on the district court clerk, who shall promptly mail a copy to each surety whose address is known.

(c) Stays in Civil Cases Not Involving Child Custody. In deciding whether to issue a stay or injunction, the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals will generally consider the following factors: (1) whether the object of the appeal or writ petition will be defeated if the stay or injunction is denied; (2) whether appellant/petitioner will suffer irreparable or serious injury if the stay or injunction is denied; (3) whether respondent/real party in interest will suffer irreparable or serious injury if the stay or injunction is granted; and (4) whether appellant/petitioner is likely to prevail on the merits in the appeal or writ petition.

(d) Stays in Civil Cases Involving Child Custody. In deciding whether to issue a stay in matters involving child custody, the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals will consider the following factors: (1) whether the child(ren) will suffer hardship or harm if the stay is either granted or denied; (2) whether the nonmoving party will suffer hardship or harm if the stay is granted; (3) whether movant is likely to prevail on the merits in the appeal; and (4) whether a determination of other existing equitable considerations, if any, is warranted.

(e) Stays in Criminal Cases; Admission to Bail. Stays in criminal cases shall be had in accordance with the provisions of NRS 177.095 et seq. Admission to bail shall be as provided in NRS 178.4873 through 178.488.

(f) Stay of Execution of Death Penalty. Immediately upon entry of an order of the Supreme Court staying execution of the death penalty, the clerk shall deliver copies thereof to the Governor of Nevada and to the warden of the Nevada State Prison.

Where several parties appeal from the same judgment or any part thereof, or there is a cross-appeal, the deposit shall be borne equally by the parties appealing, or as the parties may agree.

(C) Contents of Form. The appellant shall examine the district court minutes to ascertain the name of each court reporter or recorder who recorded the proceedings for which transcripts are necessary. The appellant shall prepare a separate transcript request form addressed to each court reporter or recorder who recorded the necessary proceedings, specifying only those proceedings recorded by the court reporter or recorder named on the request form. with the preparation and delivery of the transcript shall be borne equally by the parties appealing, or as the parties may agree.

(5) Supplemental Request. If the parties cannot agree on the transcripts necessary to the court's review, and appellant requests only part of the transcript, appellant shall request any additional parts of the transcript that the respondent considers necessary. Within 14 days from the date the initial transcript request is filed, respondent shall notify appellant in writing of the additional portions required. Appellant shall have 14 days thereafter within which to file and serve a supplemental transcript request form and pay any additional deposit required.

(6) In Forma Pauperis. In a civil case, if appellant is represented by counsel but has been permitted to proceed in forma pauperis or has filed a statement of legal aid eligibility under NRAP 24, counsel may request a waiver of the costs associated with the preparation and delivery of the transcripts by filing a motion with the clerk of the Supreme Court specifying each proceeding for which a transcript is requested and a statement explaining why each transcript is necessary for the court's review on appeal. The court may order that the transcripts be prepared at the expense of the county in which the proceeding occurred, but at a reduced rate established by the county in accordance with NRS 12.015(3).

(7) Consequences of Failure to Comply. A party's failure to comply with the provisions of this Rule may result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal of the appeal.

(b) Pro Se Parties' Duty to Request Transcripts in Civil Cases. A pro se appellant in a civil appeal shall identify and request all necessary transcripts. A pro se appellant who has not been granted in forma pauperis status shall serve a copy of the transcript request form on the court reporter or recorder who recorded the proceedings and on all parties to the appeal within the time provided in subparagraph (A) and must pay an appropriate deposit to the court reporter or recorder at the time of service. Upon receiving the transcript, the litigant(s) requesting that transcript shall file a copy of the transcript with the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(C) Pro Se Appellant Granted in Forma Pauperis Status. A pro se appellant proceeding in forma pauperis shall serve a copy of the transcript request form on all parties to the appeal within the time provided in subparagraph (A), but need not serve that document on the court reporter or recorder. The Supreme Court or Court of Appeals will review any completed transcript request forms and determine which transcripts, if any, shall be prepared and will issue an order directing the preparation of any necessary transcripts.

(2) Respondent's Request for Transcripts. Respondent may request any additional transcripts respondent considers necessary to the Supreme Court's or Court of Appeals' review. A transcript request form prepared by a pro se respondent must substantially comply with Form 17 in the Appendix of Forms. A transcript request form prepared by counsel must substantially comply with Form 3 in the Appendix of Forms. Respondents shall have 14 days from the date of service of appellant's transcript request form to request any transcripts that respondent deems necessary. (1) Preparation, Filing, and Delivery of Transcripts.

(A) Time to File and Deliver Transcripts. (B) Appellant's Failure to Pay Deposit. The court reporter or recorder is not obligated to prepare the transcript until receipt of the deposit required by Rule 9(a)(3)(B) or Rule 9(b)(1)(B). If appellant fails to timely pay the deposit, the court reporter or recorder must — no later than 30 days from the date that the transcript request form is served:

(2) Notice to Clerk of the Supreme Court. Within 14 days after the transcript is filed with the district court and delivered to the requesting party, the court reporter or recorder shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court a notice that the completed transcript has been filed and delivered. The notice shall specify the transcripts that have been filed and delivered and the date that those transcripts were filed and delivered. Form 15 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of certificate of delivery.

(3) Format of Transcript. A certified transcript may be produced in a conventional page-for-page format. A concordance indexing keywords in the transcript shall be provided.

(d) Statement of the Evidence When the Proceedings Were Not Recorded or When a Transcript Is Unavailable. If a hearing or trial was not recorded, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including the appellant's recollection. The statement shall be served on the respondent, who may serve objections or proposed amendments within 14 days after being served. The statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall then be submitted to the district court for settlement and approval. As settled and approved, the statement shall be included by the district court clerk in the trial court record, and the appellant shall include a file-stamped copy of the statement in an appendix filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court.

[Added; effective September 1, 1996; as amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 10. THE RECORD

(a) The Trial Court Record. The trial court record consists of the papers and exhibits filed in the district court, the transcript of the proceedings, if any, the district court minutes, and the docket entries made by the district court clerk.

(1) Retention of Record. The district court clerk shall retain the trial court record. When the court deems it necessary to review the trial court record, the district court clerk shall assemble and transmit the portions of the record designated by the clerk of the Supreme Court in accordance with the provisions of Rule 11. Any costs associated with the preparation and transmission of the record shall be paid initially by the appellant, unless otherwise ordered.

(b) The Record on Appeal.

(1) The Appendix. For the purposes of appeal, the parties shall submit to the clerk of the Supreme Court copies of the portions of the trial court record to be used on appeal, including all transcripts necessary to the Supreme Court's or Court of Appeals' review, as appendices to their briefs. Under Rule 30(a), a joint appendix is preferred. This Rule does not apply to pro se parties. The Supreme Court or Court of Appeals will determine whether its review of the complete record is necessary in a pro se appeal and direct the district court clerk to transmit the record as provided in Rule 11(a)(2).

(2) Exhibits. If exhibits cannot be copied to be included in the appendix, the parties may request transmittal of the original exhibits to the clerk of the Supreme Court under Rule 30(d).

(c) Correction or Modification of the Record. If any difference arises about whether the trial court record truly discloses what occurred in the district court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court and the record conformed accordingly. Questions as to the form and content of the appellate court record shall be presented to the clerk.

[Replaced; effective September 1, 1996; as amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

RULE 11. PREPARING AND FORWARDING THE RECORD

(a) Preparation of the Record. Upon written direction from the court, the district court clerk shall provide the clerk of the Supreme Court with the papers or exhibits comprising the trial court record. The record shall be assembled, paginated, and indexed in the same manner as an appendix to the briefs under Rule 30. If the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals determines that its review of original papers or exhibits is necessary, the district court clerk shall forward the original trial court record in lieu of copies.

(1) Exhibits. If the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals directs transmittal of exhibits, the exhibits shall not be included with the documents comprising the record. The district court clerk shall place exhibits in an envelope or other appropriate container, so far as practicable. The title of the case, the court docket number, and the number and description of all exhibits shall be listed on the envelope, or if no envelope is used, then on a separate list.

(2) Record in Pro Se Cases. When the court directs transmission of the complete record in cases in which the appellant is proceeding without counsel, the record shall contain each and every paper, pleading and other document filed, or submitted for filing, in the district court. The record shall also include any previously prepared transcripts of the proceedings in the district court. If the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals should determine that additional transcripts are necessary to its review, the court may order the reporter or recorder who recorded the proceedings to prepare and file the transcripts.

(b) Duty of Clerk to Certify and Forward the Record. The district court clerk shall certify and forward the record to the clerk of the Supreme Court. The district court clerk shall indicate, by endorsement on the face of the record or otherwise, the date upon which it is forwarded to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(c) Time for Forwarding the Record. The trial court record shall be forwarded within the time allowed by the court, unless the time is extended by an order entered under Rule 11(d).

(d) Failure of Timely Transmittal; Extensions.

(1) Failure of Timely Transmittal. A district court clerk who fails to forward a timely record on appeal without sufficient excuse may be subject to sanctions.

(2) Extension of Time; Supporting Documentation and Affidavits. If the district court clerk cannot timely forward the record, the clerk shall seek an extension of time from the requesting court. A motion to extend the time for transmitting the record shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the clerk or deputy clerk setting forth the reasons for the requested extension, and the length of additional time needed to prepare the record.

[Replaced; effective September 1, 1996; as amended; effective October 1, 2015.]
RULE 12. DOCKETING THE APPEAL; FILING OF THE RECORD

(a) Docketing the Appeal. Upon receiving the copies of the notice of appeal and other documents from the district court clerk under Rule 3, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall docket the appeal and immediately notify all parties of the docketing date. Automatic appeals from a judgment of conviction of death shall be docketed in accordance with SCR 250. If parties on opposing sides file notices of appeal from the same district court judgment or order, in accordance with Rule

4(a), the appellants and cross-appellants shall be designated as provided in Rule 28.1. A subsequent appeal shall in all respects be treated as an initial appeal, including the payment of the prescribed filing fee. Cross-appeals will be filed under the same docket number and calendared and argued with the initial appeal.

(b) Filing the Record. Upon receiving the record, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall file it and immediately notify all parties of the filing date.

[As amended; effective July 1, 2009.]

RULE 12A. REMAND AFTER AN INDICATIVE RULING BY THE DISTRICT COURT ON A MOTION FOR RELIEF THAT IS BARRED BY A PENDING APPEAL

(a) Notice to the Appellate Court. If a timely motion is made in the district court for relief that it lacks authority to grant because of an appeal that has been docketed and is pending, the movant must promptly notify the clerk of the Supreme Court if the district court states either that it would grant the motion or that the motion raises a substantial issue.

(b) Remand After an Indicative Ruling. If the district court states that it would grant the motion or that the motion raises a substantial issue, the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals may remand for further proceedings but the appellate court retains jurisdiction unless it expressly dismisses the appeal. If the appellate court remands but retains jurisdiction, the parties must promptly notify the clerk of the Supreme Court when the district court has decided the motion on remand.

[Added; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 13. COURT REPORTERS' AND RECORDERS' DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS; SANCTIONS

(a) Court Reporters' and Recorders' Duties and Obligations. Persons serving as court reporters or reporters pro tempore or court recorders in trials, proceedings, or hearings subject to court review are, for such purposes, officers of the Supreme Court, and as such are accountable to the Supreme Court for the faithful performance of their duties and obligations. Subject to the provisions of Rule 9, any person acting as a court reporter or reporter pro tempore or court recorder in a trial, proceeding, or other matter subject to court review has a duty expeditiously to prepare, and punctually to deliver, all transcripts needed for such review; such person accordingly has a duty to refrain from undertaking further professional assignments that may unduly interfere with timely preparation and delivery of transcripts necessary for review of matters already heard; and where appropriate such person shall promptly notify every affected judge of the reporter's or recorder's consequent unavailability to report matters currently being heard, so that substitute reporters pro tempore or court recorders may be obtained.

(b) Sanctions. For default in the professional obligations of any court reporter or reporter pro tempore or court recorder, if such default threatens or adversely affects the efficiency or integrity of the court, appropriate sanctions will be imposed. The court may, for reasons stated, enter an order (1) referring an apparent offending court reporter or reporter pro tempore to the certified court reporters' board of Nevada for disciplinary action in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 656 of the Nevada Revised Statutes; or (2) requiring an apparent offender to appear before the court, or its designated master, to show cause why he or she should not be precluded from undertaking to act as a reporter or recorder in regard to any trial, proceeding, administrative hearing, or deposition, that is subject to court review; why he or she should not be punished for contempt of court; and why damages should not be awarded to either or both parties, and to the State of Nevada, if loss of court time results.

[As amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

RULE 14. DOCKETING STATEMENT

(a) Application and Purpose of Docketing Statement.

(1) In General. Appellants shall file completed docketing statements in accordance with the provisions of this Rule in all appeals. Unless a cross-appeal is filed, the respondent may not complete a docketing statement but may file a response as specified in Rule 14(f).

(2) Exceptions.

(A) Original Writ Proceedings. This Rule does not apply to original proceedings commenced pursuant to NRS Chapters 34 or 35.

(B) Postconviction Appeals. This Rule does not apply to postconviction appeals in which the appellant is appearing without counsel.

(3) Purpose of Docketing Statement. The purpose of the docketing statement is to assist the Supreme Court in identifying jurisdictional defects, identifying issues on appeal, assessing presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, scheduling cases for oral argument and settlement conferences, classifying cases for expedited treatment and assignment to the Court of Appeals, and compiling statistical information.

(4) Statement of Issues on Appeal. A docketing statement shall state specifically all issues that a party in good faith reasonably believes to be the issues on appeal. The statement of issues is instrumental to the court's case management procedures, however, such statement is not binding on the court and the parties' briefs will determine the final issues on appeal. Omission of an issue from the statement of issues will not provide an appropriate basis for a motion to strike any portion of the opening brief.

[As amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

(b) Time for Filing; Form of Docketing Statement. Within 21 days after docketing of the appeal under Rule 12, the appellant shall file a docketing statement with the clerk of the Supreme Court, on a form provided by the clerk. Legible photostatic copies of the original form provided by the clerk will be accepted by the clerk for filing in lieu of the original form. The appellant may file a docketing statement that is not on the form provided by the clerk so long as it contains every question included in the clerk's form. An original and 2 copies shall be filed, together with proof of service of a copy of the completed statement on all parties and, if the appeal is assigned to the settlement conference program under Rule 16, on the settlement judge.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

(c) Consequences of Failure to Comply. The statement must be completed fully and accurately. For civil appeals, copies of all requested documents must be attached to the completed docketing statement. The court may impose sanctions on counsel or appellant if it appears that the information provided is incomplete or inaccurate, or if the requested documentation has not been attached. Failure to file a docketing statement within the time prescribed shall not affect the validity of the appeal, but is grounds for such action as the court deems appropriate including sanctions and dismissal of the appeal.

[As amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

(d) Extensions of Time. A motion for an extension of time within which to file the docketing statement will be granted for good cause. Counsel's caseload generally will not provide grounds for an extension.

(e) Multiple Appellants. In cases involving more than one appellant, any number of appellants may join in a single docketing statement. Multiple appellants are encouraged to consult with each other and, whenever possible, file only one docketing statement.

(f) Response by Respondent(s). Respondent, within 7 days after service of the docketing statement, may file an original and 1 copy of a single-page response, together with proof of service on all parties, if respondent strongly disagrees with appellant's statement of the case or issues on appeal. If respondent believes there is a jurisdictional defect, respondent should file a motion to dismiss. In cases involving more than one respondent, any number of respondents may join in a single response. Multiple respondents are encouraged to consult with each other and, whenever possible, file only one response.

(g) Cross-Appeals. All parties who have filed a notice of appeal, whether designated as appellants or cross-appellants, shall comply with Rule 14(a). Cross-appellants and cross-respondents are subject to all the provisions of this Rule as are appellants and respondents.

[As amended; effective July 1, 2009.]

RULE 15. REPEALED [EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 30, 1997.]

RULE 16. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES IN CIVIL APPEALS

(a) Assignment of Case to Settlement Conference Program. Any civil appeal in which all parties are represented by counsel and that does not involve termination of parental rights may be assigned to the settlement conference program. The settlement conference program administrator shall determine whether to assign an appeal to the settlement conference program. The settlement conference shall be presided over by a qualified mediator who has been appointed as a settlement judge by the Supreme Court.

(1) Settlement Notice; Suspension of Rules. The clerk shall issue a settlement notice informing the parties that the appeal will be assigned to the settlement conference program. The settlement notice automatically stays the time for filing a request for transcripts under Rule 9 and for filing briefs under Rule 31. The notice also stays the preparation and filing of any transcripts requested under Rule 9.

(2) Assignment Notice. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue an assignment notice informing the parties that a case has been assigned to the settlement conference program and of the name of the settlement judge.

(3) Service. Papers or documents filed with the Supreme Court while a case is in the settlement program shall be served on all parties and the settlement judge.

(b) Early Case Assessment. The settlement judge shall conduct a pre-mediation telephone conference with counsel and file an Early Case Assessment Report within 30 days of assignment. In that report, the settlement judge shall inform the court whether the case is appropriate for the program or should be removed from the program. If the settlement judge reports that the case is not appropriate for the settlement conference program, the court may remove the case from the program and reinstate the timelines for requesting transcripts under Rule 9 and briefing under Rule 31.

(c) Scheduling of Settlement Conference. Unless the Supreme Court removes the case from the settlement conference program under Rule 16(b), the settlement judge shall schedule a settlement conference within 90 days of assignment. If the case involves child custody, visitation, relocation or guardianship issues, the conference shall be scheduled within 60 days of assignment.

(d) Settlement Statement.

(1) Each party to the appeal shall submit a settlement statement directly to the settlement judge within 14 days from the date of the clerk's assignment notice. A settlement statement shall not be filed with the Supreme Court and shall not be served on opposing counsel.

(2) A settlement statement is limited to 10 pages, and shall concisely state: (1) the relevant facts; (2) the issues on appeal; (3) the argument supporting the party's position on appeal; (4) the weakest points of the party's position on appeal; (5) a settlement proposal that the party believes would be fair or would be willing to make in order to conclude the matter; and (6) all matters which, in counsel's professional opinion, may assist the settlement judge in conducting the settlement conference. Form 10 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of a settlement statement.

(e) Settlement Conference. The settlement conference shall be held at a time and place designated by the settlement judge.

(1) Attendance. Counsel for all parties and their clients must attend the conference. The settlement judge may, for good cause shown, excuse a client's attendance at the conference, provided that counsel has written authorization to resolve the case fully or has immediate telephone access to the client.

(2) Agenda. The agenda for the settlement conference and the sequence of presentation shall be at the discretion of the settlement judge. A subsequent settlement conference may be conducted by agreement of the parties or at the direction of the settlement judge.

(3) Settlement Conference Status Reports. Within 14 days from the date of any settlement conference, the settlement judge shall file a settlement conference status report. The report must state the result of the settlement conference, but shall not disclose any matters discussed at the conference.

(4) Settlement Documents. If a settlement is reached, the parties shall immediately execute a settlement agreement and a stipulation to dismiss the appeal, and shall file the stipulation to dismiss with the clerk of the Supreme Court. The settlement agreement does not need to be filed with the Supreme Court.

(f) Length of Time in Settlement Conference Program.

(1) Time Limits. Within 180 days of assignment, the settlement judge must file a final settlement conference status report indicating whether the parties were able to agree to a settlement. For cases involving child custody, visitation, relocation or guardianship issues, a final settlement conference status report must be filed within 120 days of assignment.

(2) Extensions. Upon stipulation of all parties or upon the settlement judge's recommendation, the settlement program administrator may extend the time for filing a final settlement conference status report. In cases not involving child custody, visitation, relocation or guardianship issues, the time may be extended for an additional 90 days. In cases involving child custody, visitation, relocation or guardianship issues, the time may be extended for an additional 60 days.

(3) Reinstatement of Rules. At the discretion of the settlement program administrator, the timelines for requesting transcripts under Rule 9 and filing briefs under Rule 31 may be reinstated during any extension period granted under Rule 16(f)(2).

(g) Sanctions. The failure of a party, or the party's counsel, to participate in good faith in the settlement conference process by not attending a scheduled conference or not complying with the procedural requirements of the program may be grounds for sanctions against the party, the party's counsel, or both. If a settlement judge believes sanctions are appropriate, the settlement judge may file a settlement conference status report recommending the sanction to be imposed and describing the conduct warranting that sanction. Sanctions include, but are not limited to, payment of attorney's fees and costs of the opposing party, dismissal of the appeal, or reversal of the judgment below.

(h) Confidentiality. Papers or documents prepared by counsel or a settlement judge in furtherance of a settlement conference, excluding the settlement conference status report, shall not be available for public inspection or submitted to or considered by the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals. Matters discussed at the settlement conference and papers or documents prepared under this rule shall not be admissible in evidence in any judicial proceeding and shall not be subject to discovery.

(b) Detention or Release of Prisoner Pending Review of Decision Not to Release. While a decision not to release a prisoner is under review, the court or judge rendering the decision, or the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals or a justice or judge thereof may order that the prisoner be:

(C) Procedure. A paper may be deposited in the drop box during all hours the Las Vegas office is open. Before being placed in the drop box, a paper must be date and time stamped and enclosed in a sealed envelope. Filing is timely if, on or before the last day of the prescribed filing period, the document is properly date and time stamped and deposited in the drop box. A document is properly date and time stamped if the original document, or the envelope containing the document, bears the drop box stamp. Stamping of copies submitted to the court is not required.

(D) Transmission of Documents to Carson City. A document will be transmitted to the clerk's office in Carson City the next judicial day after its deposit in the drop box. Upon receiving the papers in Carson City, the clerk shall process them in accordance with these Rules.

(4) Filing by Facsimile Transmission. A paper may be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court by means of facsimile transmission as provided in this Rule.

(A) In Cases Involving Death Penalty. (B) In Other Cases. (C) Procedure. In all instances, including matters relating to stays of execution in death penalty cases, counsel must first notify the clerk of counsel's intention to transmit documents by facsimile. In all cases not involving stays of execution of the death penalty, counsel must be advised by the clerk that approval has been granted under Rule 25(a)(4)(B) before any document may be transmitted. Upon receiving the transmitted documents, the clerk shall make the number of photocopies of the transmissions required by these Rules and shall file the photocopies.

(D) Original; Service. In all cases where a document has been facsimile transmitted and filed under this Rule, counsel must file the original document with the clerk, in the manner provided in Rule 25(a)(2)(B)(i)-(iii), within 3 days of the date of the facsimile transmission. The original shall be accompanied by proof of service on all parties as required by Rule 25(d). A copy of a document filed by facsimile transmission shall be served on all parties to the appeal or review by facsimile transmission and by mail at the time the document is filed with the court.

(E) Costs. The party filing a document by means of facsimile transmission shall be responsible for all costs of the facsimile transmission and the costs of photocopying the documents transmitted. [As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

(4) The court may, in appropriate instances, direct the clerk or the bailiff to announce recesses and adjournments.

[As amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

RULE 26. COMPUTING AND EXTENDING TIME

(a) Computing Time. The following rules apply in computing any time period specified in these rules, in any appellate court order, or in any statute that does not specify a method of computing time.

(1) Period Stated in Days or a Longer Unit. When the period is stated in days or a longer unit of time:

(A) exclude the day of the event that triggers the period;

(B) count every day, including intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and

(C) include the last day of the period, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(2) Period Stated in Hours. When the period is stated in hours:

(A) begin counting immediately on the occurrence of the event that triggers the period;

(B) count every hour, including hours during intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and

(C) if the period would end on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period continues to run until the same time on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(3) Inaccessibility of the Clerk's Office. Unless the court orders otherwise, if the clerk's office is inaccessible:

(A) on the last day for filing under Rule 26(a)(1), then the time for filing is extended to the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday; or

(B) during the last hour for filing under Rule 26(a)(2), then the time for filing is extended to the same time on the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(4) "Last Day" Defined. Unless a different time is set by a statute or court order, the last day ends:

(A) for electronic filing under the NEFCR, at 11:59 p.m. in the court's local time;

(B) for filing under Rules 4(d) and 25(a)(2)(B)(ii) and (iii), at the latest time for the method chosen for delivery to the post office, third-party commercial carrier, or prison mailing system;

(C) for filing via the Supreme Court clerk's drop box under Rule 25(a)(2)(B)(iv), when the Supreme Court building in Las Vegas is scheduled to close; and

(D) for filing by other means, when the clerk's office is scheduled to close.

(5) "Next Day" Defined. The "next day" is determined by continuing to count forward when the period is measured after an event and backward when measured before an event.

(6) "Legal Holiday" Defined. "Legal holiday" means any day set aside as a legal holiday by NRS 236.015.

(b) Extending Time.

(1) By Court Order.

(A) For good cause, the court may extend the time prescribed by these Rules or by its order to perform any act, or may permit an act to be done after that time expires. But the court may not extend the time to file a notice of appeal except as provided in Rule 4(c).

(B) Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, a party may, on or before the due date sought to be extended, request by telephone a single 14-day extension of time for performing any act except the filing of a notice of appeal. If good cause is shown, the clerk may grant such a request by telephone or by written order of the clerk. The grant of an extension of time to perform an act under this Rule will bar any further extensions of time to perform the same act unless the party files a written motion for an extension of time demonstrating extraordinary and compelling circumstances why a further extension of time is necessary.

(2) By Stipulation. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, or when not otherwise controlled by statute, the time prescribed by these Rules to perform any act may be extended once for appellant(s) and once for respondent(s) by stipulation of the parties. No stipulation extending time is effective unless approved by the court or a justice or judge thereof; and such stipulations must be filed before expiration of the time period that is sought to be extended.

(c) Additional Time After Service. When a party is required or permitted to act within a prescribed period after a paper is served on that party, 3 days are added to the prescribed period unless the paper is delivered on the date of service stated in the proof of service. For purposes of this Rule 26(c), a paper that is served electronically is treated as delivered on the date of service stated in the proof of service. Specific due dates set by court order or acts required to be taken within a time period set forth in a court order are not subject to the additional 3-day allowance.

(d) Shortening Time. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, or when not otherwise controlled by statute, the time prescribed by these Rules to perform any act may be shortened by stipulation of the parties, or by order of the court or a justice or judge.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 26.1. DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

(a) Who Must File Statement and Contents. Every attorney for a nongovernmental party or amicus curiae to a proceeding in the court must file a statement identifying all its parent corporations and listing any publicly held company that owns 10% or more of the party's stock or states that there is no such corporation. The statement must also disclose the names of all law firms whose partners or associates have appeared for the party or amicus in the case (including proceedings in the district court or before an administrative agency) or are expected to appear in this court. If any litigant is using a pseudonym, the statement must disclose the litigant's true name. A disclosure required by the preceding sentence will be kept under seal.

(b) Time to File; Supplemental Filing. A party must file the disclosure statement with the principal brief or upon filing a motion, response, petition, or answer in the court. Even if the party's statement has already been filed, the party's principal brief must include the statement before the table of contents. A party must supplement its statement whenever the information that must be disclosed under NRAP 26.1(a) changes.

(c) Number of Copies. If the Rule 26.1 statement is filed before the principal brief, or if a supplemental statement is filed, the party must file an original and 1 copy unless the court requires a different number by order.

RULE 27. MOTIONS

(a) In General.

(1) Application for Relief. An application for an order or other relief is made by motion unless these Rules prescribe another form. A motion must be in writing and be accompanied by proof of service.

(2) Contents of a Motion. A motion must state with particularity the grounds for the motion, the relief sought, and the legal argument necessary to support it. The motion shall contain or be accompanied by any matter required by a specific provision of these Rules governing such a motion. If a motion is supported by affidavits or other papers, they shall be served and filed with the motion.

(3) Response.

(A) Time to File. Any party may file a response to a motion; Rule 27(a)(2) governs its contents. The response must be filed within 7 days after service of the motion unless the court shortens or extends the time. A motion authorized by Rules 8 or 41 may be acted upon after reasonable notice to the parties that the court intends to act sooner.

(B) Request for Affirmative Relief. A response may include a motion for affirmative relief. The time to respond to the new motion is governed by Rule 27(a)(3)(A). The title of the response must alert the court to the request for relief.

(4) Reply to Response. Any reply to a response shall be filed within 7 days after service of the response. A reply shall not present matters that do not relate to the response.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

(b) Disposition of a Motion for a Procedural Order. The court may act on a motion for a procedural order — including a motion under Rule 26(b) — at any time without awaiting a response. Under Rule 27(c), the clerk may act on motions for specified types of procedural orders. A party adversely affected by the court's, or the clerk's, action may file a motion to reconsider, vacate or modify that action. Timely opposition filed after the motion is granted in whole or in part does not constitute a request to reconsider, vacate, or modify the disposition; a motion requesting that relief must be filed.

[As amended; effective July 1, 2009.]

(c) Power of a Single Justice or Judge to Entertain Motions; Delegation of Authority to Entertain Motions.

(1) Authority of the Court of Appeals to Entertain Motions. The Court of Appeals and its judges may entertain motions in appeals that the Supreme Court has transferred to that court.

(2) Order of a Single Justice or Judge. In addition to the authority expressly conferred by these Rules or by law, a justice or judge of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may act alone on any motion but may not dismiss or otherwise determine an appeal or other proceeding. The Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may provide that only the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may act on any motion or class of motions. The court may review the action of a single justice or judge.

(3) Clerk's Orders.

(A) Procedural Motions. The chief justice or judge may delegate to the clerk authority to decide motions that are subject to disposition by a single justice or judge. An order issued by the clerk under this Rule shall be subject to reconsideration by a single justice or judge pursuant to motion filed within 14 days after entry of the clerk's order.

(B) Orders of Dismissal. The Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may delegate to the clerk authority to enter orders of dismissal in civil cases where the appellant has filed a motion or parties to an appeal or other proceeding have signed and filed a stipulation that the proceeding be dismissed, specifying terms as to the payment of costs.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

(d) Form of Papers; Number of Copies.

(1) Format.

(A) Reproduction. All papers relating to motions may be reproduced by any process that yields a clear black image of letter quality. The paper must be opaque and unglazed. Only one side of the paper may be used.

(B) Cover. A cover is not required, but there must be a caption that includes the name of the court and the docket number, the title of the case, and a brief descriptive title indicating the purpose of the motion and identifying the party or parties for whom it is filed. If a cover is used, it shall be white.

(C) Binding. The document must be bound in any manner that is secure, does not obscure the text, and permits the document to lie reasonably flat when open.

(D) Paper Size, Line Spacing, and Margins. The document must be on 8 1/2 by 11-inch paper. The text must be double-spaced, but quotations more than 2 lines long may be indented and single-spaced. Headings and footnotes may be single-spaced. Margins must be at least 1 inch on all 4 sides. The pages shall be consecutively numbered at the bottom.

(E) Typeface and Type Style. The document must comply with the typeface requirements of Rule 32(a)(5) and the type-style requirements of Rule 32(a)(6).

(F) A pro se party who is incarcerated or detained in a state prison or county jail or other facility may file documents under this Rule that are legibly handwritten in black ink and that otherwise conform to the requirements of this Rule. Handwritten documents are not otherwise permitted without leave of the court.

(2) Page Limits. A motion or a response to a motion shall not exceed 10 pages, unless the court permits or directs otherwise. A reply to a response shall not exceed 5 pages.

(3) Number of Copies. An original and 1 copy must be filed unless the court requires a different number by order.

[As amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

(e) Emergency Motions. If a movant certifies that to avoid irreparable harm relief is needed in less than 14 days, the motion shall be governed by the following requirements:

(1) Before filing the motion, the movant shall make every practicable effort to notify the clerk of the Supreme Court, opposing counsel, and any opposing parties proceeding without counsel and to serve the motion at the earliest possible time. If an emergency motion is not filed at the earliest possible time, the court may summarily deny the motion.

(2) A motion filed under this subdivision shall include the title “Emergency Motion Under NRAP 27(e)” immediately below the caption of the case and a statement immediately below the title of the motion that states the date or event by which action is necessary.

(3) A motion filed under this subdivision shall be accompanied by a certificate of the movant or the movant’s counsel, if any, entitled “NRAP 27(e) Certificate,” that contains the following information:

(A) The telephone numbers and office addresses of the attorneys for the parties and the telephone numbers and addresses for any pro se parties;

(B) Facts showing the existence and nature of the claimed emergency; and

(C) When and how counsel for the other parties and any pro se parties were notified and whether they have been served with the motion; or, if not notified and served, why that was not done.

(4) If the relief sought in the motion was available in the district court, the motion shall state whether all grounds advanced in support of the motion in the court were submitted to the district court, and, if not, why the motion should not be denied.

(5) The motion shall otherwise comply with the provisions of this Rule.

[Added; effective July 1, 2009; as amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

RULE 28. BRIEFS

(a) Appellant’s Brief. Except as provided in Rule 28(k), the appellant’s brief shall be entitled “Appellant’s Opening Brief” and shall contain under appropriate headings and in the order indicated:

(1) a disclosure that complies with Rule 26.1;

(2) a table of contents, with page references;

(3) a table of authorities — cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes, and other authorities — with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited;

(4) a jurisdictional statement, including:

(A) the basis for the Supreme Court’s or Court of Appeals’ jurisdiction;

(B) the filing dates establishing the timeliness of the appeal; and

(C) an assertion that the appeal is from a final order or judgment, or information establishing the Supreme Court’s or Court of Appeals’ jurisdiction on some other basis.

(5) a routing statement, setting forth whether the matter is presumptively retained by the Supreme Court or assigned to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, and citing the subparagraph(s) of the Rule under which the matter falls. If the appellant believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals, based on a principal issue raised in the matter, the routing statement must include a clear statement of the relevant issue, citations to the record where the issue was raised and resolved, and an explanation of the importance of the issue;

(6) a statement of the issues presented for review;

(7) a statement of the case briefly indicating the nature of the case, the course of the proceedings, and the disposition below;

(8) a statement of facts relevant to the issues submitted for review with appropriate references to the record (see Rule 28(e));

(9) a summary of the argument, which must contain a succinct, clear, and accurate statement of the arguments made in the body of the brief and which must not merely repeat the argument headings;

(10) the argument, which must contain:

(A) appellant's contentions and the reasons for them, with citations to the authorities and parts of the record on which the appellant relies; and

(B) for each issue, a concise statement of the applicable standard of review (which may appear in the discussion of the issue or under a separate heading placed before the discussion of the issues);

(11) a short conclusion stating the precise relief sought; and

(12) an attorney's certificate that complies with Rule 28.2, if the appellant is represented by an attorney.

(b) Respondent's Brief. The respondent's brief shall be entitled "Respondent's Answering Brief" and shall conform to the requirements of Rule 28(a)(1)-(10) and (12), except that none of the following need appear unless the respondent is dissatisfied with the appellant's statement:

(1) the jurisdictional statement;

(2) a routing statement, setting forth whether the matter is presumptively retained by the Supreme Court or assigned to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, and citing the subparagraph(s) of the Rule under which the matter falls. If the respondent believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals, based on a principal issue raised in the matter, the routing statement must include a clear statement of the relevant issue, citations to the record where the issue was raised and resolved, and an explanation of the importance of the issue;

(3) the statement of the issues;

(4) the statement of the case;

(5) the statement of the facts; and

(6) the statement of the standard of review.

(c) Reply Brief. The appellant may file a brief in reply to the respondent's answering brief that shall be entitled "Appellant's Reply Brief." A reply brief shall comply with Rule 28(a)(1)-(2) and (10) and must be limited to answering any new matter set forth in the opposing brief. Unless the court permits, no further briefs may be filed. A party may waive the right to file a reply brief. Providing the clerk with immediate notice of that waiver will expedite submission of the case to the court.

(d) References in Briefs to Parties. In briefs and at oral argument, parties will be expected to keep to a minimum references to parties by such designations as “appellant” and “respondent.” It promotes clarity to use the designations used in the lower court or the actual names of parties, or descriptive terms such as “the employee,” “the injured person,” etc.

(e) References in Briefs to the Record.

(1) Except as provided in Rule 28(e)(3), every assertion in briefs regarding matters in the record shall be supported by a reference to the page and volume number, if any, of the appendix where the matter relied on is to be found. A party referring to evidence whose admissibility is in controversy must cite the pages of the appendix or of the transcript at which the evidence was identified, offered, and received or rejected.

(2) Parties shall not incorporate by reference briefs or memoranda of law submitted to the district court or refer the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals to such briefs or memoranda for the arguments on the merits of the appeal.

(3) A pro se party is not permitted to file an appendix under Rule 30(i), and therefore is not required to comply with Rule 28(e)(1). Pro se parties are encouraged to support assertions in briefs regarding matters in the record by providing citations to the appropriate pages and volume numbers of the trial court record.

(f) Reproductions of Statutes, Rules, Regulations, Etc. If the court’s determination of the issues presented requires the study of statutes, rules, regulations, etc., the relevant parts shall be reproduced in the brief or in an addendum at the end, or they may be supplied to the court in pamphlet form.

(g) Length of Briefs. See Rule 32(a)(7) for provisions regarding the length of briefs.

(h) Reserved.

(i) Briefs in a Case Involving Multiple Appellants or Respondents. In a case involving more than one appellant or respondent, including consolidated cases, any number of appellants or respondents may join in a single brief, and any party may adopt by reference a part of another’s brief. Parties may similarly join in reply briefs.

(j) Sanctions for Inadequate Briefs. All briefs under this Rule must be concise, presented with accuracy, logically arranged with proper headings and free from burdensome, irrelevant, immaterial or scandalous matters. Briefs that are not in compliance may be disregarded or stricken, on motion or sua sponte by the court, and the court may assess attorney fees or other monetary sanctions.

(k) Briefs by Pro Se Appellants. Appellants proceeding without assistance of counsel may file the form brief provided by the supreme court clerk in lieu of the brief described in Rule 28(a). If an appellant uses the informal brief form, the optional reply brief need not comply with the technical requirements of Rule 28(c) or Rule 32(a).

[As amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

RULE 28.1. CROSS-APPEALS

(a) Applicability. This Rule applies to a case in which a cross-appeal is filed. Rules 28(a)-(c), 31(a), 32(a)(2), and 32(a)(7)(A)-(B) do not apply to such a case, except as otherwise provided in this Rule.

(b) Designation of Appellant. The party who files a notice of appeal first is the appellant for all purposes. If the notices are filed on the same day, the plaintiff in the proceeding below is the appellant. These designations may be modified by the parties' agreement or by court order.

(c) Briefs. In a case involving a cross-appeal:

(1) Appellant's Opening Brief on Appeal. The appellant shall file an opening brief in the appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 28(a).

(2) Respondent's Answering Brief on Appeal and Opening Brief on Cross-Appeal. The respondent shall file a combined answering brief on appeal and opening brief on cross-appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 28(a), except that the brief need not include a statement of the case or a statement of the facts unless the respondent is dissatisfied with the appellant's statement.

(3) Appellant's Reply Brief on Appeal and Answering Brief on Cross-Appeal. The appellant shall file a brief that responds to the opening brief in the cross-appeal and may, in the same brief, reply to the response in the appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 28(a)(1)-(10) and (12), except that none of the following need appear unless the appellant is dissatisfied with the respondent's statement in the cross-appeal:

(A) a routing statement, setting forth whether the matter is presumptively retained by the Supreme Court or assigned to the Court of Appeals under NRAP 17, and citing the subparagraph(s) of the Rule under which the matter falls. If the appellant believes that the Supreme Court should retain the case despite its presumptive assignment to the Court of Appeals, based on a principal issue raised in the matter, the routing statement must include a clear statement of the relevant issue, citations to the record where the issue was raised and resolved, and an explanation of the importance of the issue;

- (B) the statement of the issues;
- (C) the statement of the case;
- (D) the statement of the facts; and
- (E) the statement of the standard of review.

(4) Respondent's Reply Brief on Cross-Appeal. The respondent may file a brief in reply to the response in the cross-appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 28(a)(1)-(2) and (12) and must be limited to the issues presented by the cross-appeal.

(5) No Further Briefs. Unless the court permits, no further briefs may be filed in a case involving a cross-appeal.

(d) Cover. The cover of the appellant's opening brief must be blue; the respondent's combined answering brief on appeal and opening brief on cross-appeal, red; the appellant's combined reply brief on appeal and answering brief on cross-appeal, yellow; the respondent's reply brief on cross-appeal, gray; an intervenor's or amicus curiae's brief, green; and any supplemental brief, tan. The front cover of a brief must contain the information required by Rule 32(a)(2). A pro se party who is incarcerated is not required to comply with the provisions of this Rule regarding the color of the cover of a brief filed by that party.

(e) Length.

(1) Page Limitation. Unless it complies with Rule 28.1(e)(2) and (3) or permission of the court is obtained under Rule 32(a)(7)(D), the appellant's opening brief must not exceed 30 pages; the respondent's combined answering brief on appeal and opening brief on cross-appeal, 40 pages; the appellant's combined reply brief on appeal and answering brief on cross-appeal, 30 pages; and the respondent's reply brief, 15 pages.

(2) Type-Volume Limitation.

(A) The appellant's opening brief or the appellant's combined reply/answering brief is acceptable if:

- (i) it contains no more than 14,000 words; or
- (ii) it uses a monospaced typeface and contains no more than 1,600 lines of text.

(B) The respondent's combined answering and opening brief is acceptable if:

- (i) it contains no more than 18,500 words; or
- (ii) it uses a monospaced typeface and contains no more than 1,600 lines of text.

(C) The respondent's reply brief is acceptable if it contains no more than half of the type-volume specified in Rule 28.1(e)(2)(A).

(3) Certificate of Compliance. A brief submitted pursuant to this Rule shall comply with Rule 32(a)(8).

(f) Time to Serve and File a Brief. Unless the court orders a different briefing schedule in a particular case, briefs in cross-appeals must be served and filed as provided in this Rule. Motions for extensions of time are governed by Rule 31(b).

(1) All Cross-Appeals Except Child Custody and Visitation.

(A) the appellant's opening brief, within 120 days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court;

(B) the respondent's combined answering brief on appeal and opening brief on cross-appeal, within 30 days after the appellant's opening brief is served;

(C) the appellant's combined reply brief on appeal and answering brief on cross-appeal, within 30 days after the respondent's combined answering brief on appeal and opening brief on cross-appeal is served; and

(D) the respondent's reply brief on cross-appeal, within 14 days after the appellant's combined reply brief on appeal and answering brief on cross-appeal is served.

(2) Cross-Appeals Involving Child Custody or Visitation.

(A) the appellant's opening brief, within 90 days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court;

[Added; effective July 1, 2009; as amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

RULE 28.2. ATTORNEY'S CERTIFICATE

(a) Certificate Required Upon Filing of Any Brief. Any brief submitted for filing on behalf of a party represented by counsel must contain a certificate signed by at least 1 attorney of record who is an active member of the bar of this state. This certificate must substantially comply with Form 9 in the Appendix of Forms, and must contain the following information:

(1) A representation that the signing attorney has read the brief;

(2) A representation that to the best of the attorney's knowledge, information and belief, the brief is not frivolous or interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation;

(3) A representation by the signing attorney that the brief complies with all applicable Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure, including the requirement of Rule 28(e) that every assertion in the briefs regarding matters in the record be supported by a reference to the page and volume number, if any, of the appendix where the matter relied on is to be found; and

(4) A representation that the brief complies with the formatting requirements of Rule 32(a)(4)-(6), and either the page- or type-volume limitations stated in Rule 32(a)(7).

(b) Striking a Brief Without the Required Certificate. If a brief does not contain the certification required by this Rule, it shall be stricken unless such a certification is provided within 14 days after the omission is called to the attorney's attention.

(c) Sanctions. The Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may impose sanctions against an attorney whose certification is incomplete or inaccurate. In addition, the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may impose sanctions against any attorney who, upon being informed that the brief does not contain the certificate provided for by subsection (a), fails to cure the deficiency within 14 days after the omission is called to his or her attention.

[As amended; effective March 1, 2019.]

29. BRIEF OF AN AMICUS CURIAE

(a) When Permitted. The United States, the State of Nevada, an officer or agency of either, a political subdivision thereof, or a state, territory or commonwealth may file an amicus curiae brief without the consent of the parties or leave of court. Any other amicus curiae may file a brief only by leave of court granted on motion or at the court's request or if accompanied by written consent of all parties.

(b) Foreign Counsel. If an amicus brief is prepared by an attorney who is not a member of the State Bar of Nevada, that attorney must move for permission to appear before the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals under SCR 42 and comply with Rule 46(a).

(c) Motion for Leave to File. A motion for leave to file an amicus brief shall be accompanied by the proposed brief and state:

(1) the movant's interest; and

(2) the reasons why an amicus brief is desirable.

(d) Contents and Form. An amicus brief must comply with Rule 32. In addition to the requirements of Rule 32, the cover must identify the party or parties supported and indicate whether the brief supports affirmance or reversal. An amicus brief need not comply with Rule 28, but must include the following:

(1) A table of contents, with page references.

(2) A table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited.

(3) A concise statement of the identity of the amicus curiae, its interest in the case, and the source of its authority to file.

(4) An argument, which may be preceded by a summary.

(5) An attorney's certificate that complies with the requirements contained in Rule 28.2.

(e) Length. Except by the court's permission, an amicus brief may be no more than one-half the maximum length authorized by these Rules for a party's brief. If the court grants a party permission to file a longer brief, that extension does not affect the length of an amicus brief.

(f) Time for Filing. An amicus curiae must file its brief, accompanied by a motion for filing when necessary, no later than 7 days after the brief of the party being supported is filed. An amicus curiae that does not support either party must file its brief no later than 7 days after the appellant's opening brief is filed. The court may grant leave for later filing, specifying the time within which an opposing party may answer.

(g) Reply Brief. An amicus may not file a reply brief.

(h) Oral Argument. An amicus may file a motion to participate in oral argument, but the court will grant such motions only for extraordinary reasons.

[As amended; effective January 20, 2015.]

RULE 30. APPENDIX TO THE BRIEFS

(a) Joint Appendix; Duty of the Parties. Counsel have a duty to confer and attempt to reach an agreement concerning a possible joint appendix. In the absence of an agreement, the parties may file separate appendices to their briefs.

(b) Contents of the Appendix. Except as otherwise required by this Rule, all matters not essential to the decision of issues presented by the appeal shall be omitted. Brevity is required; the court may impose costs upon parties or attorneys who unnecessarily enlarge the appendix.

(1) Transcripts. Copies of all transcripts that are necessary to the Supreme Court's or Court of Appeals' review of the issues presented on appeal shall be included in the appendix.

(2) Documents Required for Inclusion in Joint Appendix. In addition to the transcripts required by Rule 30(b)(1), the joint appendix shall contain:

(A) Complaint, indictment, information or petition (including all amendments);

(B) All answers, counterclaims, cross-claims and replies, and all amendments thereto;

(C) Pretrial orders;

(D) All jury instructions given to which exceptions were taken, and excluded when offered;

(E) Verdict or findings of fact and conclusions of law with direction for entry of judgment thereon;

(F) Master's report, if any, in nonjury cases;

(G) Opinion;

(H) All judgments or orders appealed from;

(I) All notices of appeal; and

(J) Proof of service, if any, of:

(i) the summons and complaint;

(ii) written notice of entry of the judgment or order appealed from;

(iii) post-judgment motions enumerated in Rule 4(a); and

(iv) written notice of entry of an order resolving any post-judgment motions enumerated in Rule 4(a).

(3) Appellant's Appendix. If a joint appendix is not prepared, appellant's appendix to the opening brief shall include those documents required for inclusion in the joint appendix under this Rule, and any other portions of the record essential to determination of issues raised in appellant's appeal.

(4) Respondent's Appendix. If a joint appendix is not prepared, respondent's appendix to the answering brief may contain any transcripts or documents which should have been but were not included in the appellant's appendix, and shall otherwise be limited to those documents necessary to rebut appellant's position on appeal which are not already included in appellant's appendix.

(5) Reply Appendix. Appellant may file an appendix to the reply brief which shall include only those documents necessary to reply to respondent's position on appeal.

(6) Presentence Investigation Report. If a copy of appellant's presentence investigation report is necessary for the Supreme Court's or Court of Appeals' review in a criminal case and a copy of the report cannot be included in the appendix, appellant shall file a motion with the clerk of the Supreme Court within the time period for filing an opening brief or fast track statement that the court direct the district court clerk to transmit the report to the clerk of the Supreme Court in a sealed envelope. The motion must demonstrate that the report is necessary for the appeal.

(c) Arrangement and Form of Appendix. The appendix shall be in the form required by Rule 32(b), shall be bound separately from the briefs, and shall be arranged as set forth in this Rule.

(1) Order and Numbering of Documents. All documents included in the appendix shall be placed in chronological order by the dates of filing beginning with the first document filed, and shall bear the file-stamp of the district court clerk, clearly showing the date the document was filed in the proceedings below. Transcripts that are included in the appendix shall be placed in chronological order by date of the hearing or trial. Each page of the appendix shall be numbered consecutively in the lower right corner of the document.

(2) Page Limits; Index of Appendix. Each volume of the appendix shall contain no more than 250 pages. The appendix shall contain an alphabetical index identifying each document with reasonable definiteness, and indicating the volume and page of the appendix where the document is located. The index shall preface the documents comprising the appendix. If the appendix is comprised of more than one volume, one alphabetical index for all documents shall be prepared and shall be placed in each volume of the appendix.

(3) Cover. The cover of an appendix shall be white and shall contain the same information as the cover of a brief under Rule 32(a), but shall be prominently entitled "JOINT APPENDIX," or "APPELLANT'S APPENDIX," or "RESPONDENT'S APPENDIX" or "APPELLANT'S REPLY APPENDIX."

(d) Exhibits. Copies of relevant and necessary exhibits shall be clearly identified, and shall be included in the appendix as far as practicable. If the exhibits are too large or otherwise incapable of being reproduced in the appendix, the parties may file a motion requesting the court to direct the district court clerk to transmit the original exhibits. The court will not permit the transmittal of original exhibits except upon a showing that the exhibits are relevant to the issues raised on appeal, and that the court's review of the original exhibits is necessary to the determination of the issues.

(e) Time for Service and Filing of Appendix. A joint appendix shall be filed and served no later than the filing of appellant's opening brief. An appellant's appendix shall be served and filed with appellant's opening brief. A respondent's appendix shall be served and filed with respondent's answering brief. If a reply brief is filed, any reply appendix shall be served and filed with the reply brief.

(f) Number of Copies to Be Filed and Served.

(1) Paper Copies. One paper copy of the appendix shall be filed with the clerk, and one copy shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented, unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) Electronic Copies. A party represented by counsel must submit every appendix on a CD-ROM, and serve a CD-ROM version on all opposing counsel, in addition to filing the required number of paper copies, unless the appendix has been electronically filed in the court or counsel certifies that submitting a CD-ROM version of the appendix would constitute extreme hardship.

(g) Filing as Certification; Sanctions for Nonconforming Copies or for Substantial Underinclusion.

(1) Filing an appendix constitutes a representation by counsel that the appendix consists of true and correct copies of the papers in the district court file. Willful or grossly negligent filing of an appendix containing nonconforming copies is an unlawful interference with the proceedings of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals, and subjects counsel, and the party represented, to monetary and any other appropriate sanctions.

(2) If an appellant's appendix is so inadequate that justice cannot be done without requiring inclusion of documents in the respondent's appendix which should have been in the appellant's appendix, or without the court's independent examination of portions of the original record which should have been in the appellant's appendix, the court may impose monetary sanctions.

(h) Costs. Each party shall, initially, bear the cost of preparing its separate appendices. The appellant shall, initially, bear the cost of preparing a joint appendix; where several parties appeal from the same judgment or any part thereof, or there is a cross-appeal, the initial expense of preparing a joint appendix shall be borne equally by the parties appealing, or as the parties may agree.

(i) Pro Se Party Exception. This Rule does not apply to a party who is not represented by counsel. A pro se party shall not file an appendix except as otherwise provided in these Rules or ordered by the court. If the court's review of the complete record is necessary, the court will direct the district court to transmit the record as provided in Rule 11.

[Replaced; effective September 1, 1996; as amended; effective October 1, 2015.]

RULE 31. FILING AND SERVICE OF BRIEFS

(a) Time for Serving and Filing Briefs. Unless a different briefing schedule is provided by a court order in a particular case or by these or any other court rules, parties shall observe the briefing schedule set forth in this Rule.

(1) All Appeals Except Child Custody, Visitation, or Capital Cases.

(A) The appellant shall serve and file the opening brief within 120 days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court.

(B) The respondent shall serve and file the answering brief within 30 days after the appellant's brief is served.

(C) The appellant's reply brief must be served and filed within 30 days after the respondent's brief is served.

(2) Child Custody or Visitation Cases. If an appeal is taken from any district court order affecting the custody or visitation of minor children, including actions seeking termination of parental rights:

(A) The appellant shall serve and file the opening brief within 90 days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court.

(B) The respondent shall serve and file the answering brief within 21 days after the appellant's brief is served.

(C) The appellant's reply brief must be served and filed within 14 days after the respondent's brief is served.

(D) The Supreme Court or Court of Appeals may order oral argument at its discretion. Where oral argument is not ordered, the matter shall be submitted for decision on the briefs and the appendix within 60 days of the date that the final brief is due.

(3) Direct Appeals in Capital Cases. On direct appeal from a judgment of conviction and sentence of death:

(A) The appellant shall serve and file the opening brief within 120 days from the date that the record on appeal is filed in the Supreme Court.

(B) The respondent shall serve and file the answering brief within 60 days after the appellant's brief is served.

(C) The appellant's reply brief must be served and filed within 45 days after the respondent's brief is served.

(4) Postconviction Appeals in Capital Cases. On appeal from a judgment or order resolving an application for postconviction relief in a capital case:

(A) The appellant shall serve and file the opening brief within 120 days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court.

(B) The respondent shall serve and file the answering brief within 30 days after service of the opening brief.

(C) The appellant's reply brief must be served and filed within 30 days after the respondent's brief is served.

(b) Extensions of Time for Filing Briefs.

(1) Telephonic Requests. A party may request by telephone a single 14-day extension of time for filing a brief under Rule 26(b)(1)(B). A telephonic request may be made only if there have been no prior requests for extension of time for filing the brief. No further extensions for filing the brief may be granted except on motion under Rule 31(b)(3).

(2) Stipulations. Unless the court orders otherwise, in all appeals except child custody, visitation, or capital cases, the parties may extend the time for filing any brief for a total of 30 days beyond the due dates set forth in Rule 31(a)(1) by filing a written stipulation with the clerk of the Supreme Court on or before the brief's due date. No extensions of time by stipulation are permitted in child custody, visitation, or capital cases.

(3) Motions for Extensions of Time. A motion for extension of time for filing a brief may be made no later than the due date for the brief and must comply with the provisions of this Rule and Rule 27.

(A) Contents of Motion. A motion for extension of time for filing a brief shall include the following:

(i) The date when the brief is due;

(ii) The number of extensions of time previously granted (including a 14-day telephonic extension), and if extensions were granted, the original date when the brief was due;

(iii) Whether any previous requests for extensions of time have been denied or denied in part;

(iv) The reasons or grounds why an extension is necessary (including demonstrating extraordinary and compelling circumstances under Rule 26(b)(1)(B), if required); and

(v) The length of the extension requested and the date on which the brief would become due.

(B) Motions in All Appeals Except Child Custody, Visitation, or Capital Cases. Applications for extensions of time beyond that to which the parties are permitted to stipulate under Rule 31(b)(2) are not favored. The court will grant an initial motion for extension of time for filing a brief only upon a clear showing of good cause. The court shall not grant additional extensions of time except upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need.

(C) Motions in Child Custody or Visitation Cases. The court will grant a motion for extension of time for filing a brief in child custody or visitation cases only in extraordinary cases that present unforeseeable circumstances justifying an extension of time.

(D) Motions in Capital Cases. The Supreme Court may grant an initial motion for an extension of time of up to 60 days for filing a brief in a capital case upon a showing of good cause. The court shall not grant additional extensions of time except upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances and extreme need.

(c) Number of Copies to Be Filed and Served. An original and 2 copies of each brief shall be filed with the clerk unless the court by order in a particular case shall direct a different number, and 1 copy shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. The original must be signed in compliance with Rules 25(a)(5), 28.2(a), and 32(d).

(d) Consequences of Failure to File Briefs or Appendix.

(1) Appellant. If an appellant fails to file an opening brief or appendix within the time provided by this Rule, or within the time extended, a respondent may move for dismissal of the appeal or the court may dismiss the appeal on its own motion. If an appellant has not filed a reply brief, oral argument will be limited as provided by Rule 34(c). This Rule does not apply to postconviction appeals in which the appellant is not represented by counsel. In those cases, the court may decide the appeal based on the record without briefing as provided in Rule 34(g).

(2) Respondent. If a respondent fails to file an answering brief, respondent will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the court. The failure of respondent to file a brief may be treated by the court as a confession of error and appropriate disposition of the appeal thereafter made. Unless the court has ordered the respondent to file an answering brief as provided in Rule 46A(c), this Rule does not apply to appeals in which the appellant is not represented by counsel.

(e) Supplemental Authorities. When pertinent and significant authorities come to a party's attention after the party's brief has been filed, but before a decision, a party may promptly advise the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals by filing and serving a notice of supplemental authorities, setting forth the citations. The notice shall provide references to the page(s) of the brief that is being supplemented. The notice shall further state concisely and without argument the legal proposition for which each supplemental authority is cited. The notice may not raise any new points or issues. Any response must be made promptly and must be similarly limited. If filed less than 14 days before oral argument, a notice of supplemental authorities shall not be assured of consideration by the court at oral argument; provided, however, that no notice of supplemental authorities shall be rejected for filing on the ground that it was filed less than 14 days before oral argument.
