

Probate Law and Wills Attorney in Houston, Texas

Are You Faced with Handling a Loved One's Estate?

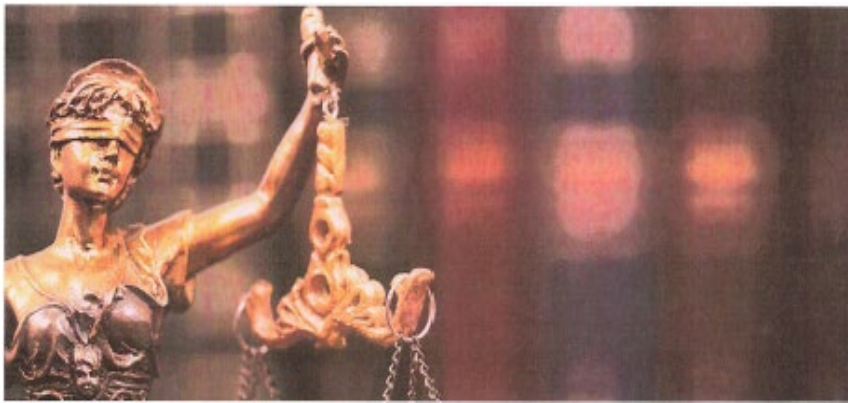

Texas law provides for independent administration of probated wills, which means that the probate court exercises less control and oversight over executors and administrators. This is an advantage, as it can make the entire probate process faster and less expensive. Most are unfamiliar and have little guidance with the probate of wills. When you hire the Law Office of Mark A. Sanders as your probate law firm in Houston, TX and surrounding counties, you can rely on our experience to see you through the entire probate process.

Did Your Loved One Die Without a Will?

The Law Office of Mark A. Sanders is experienced in the law for those who need to transfer real property or money from a relative or family member who has died intestate (without a will) or deal with the deceased's creditors.

Do you need a will or trust?

The Law Office of Mark A. Sanders can draft wills, trusts, powers of attorney, health care powers of attorney and an array of documents for the protection of your spouse, children and other loved ones.

Get in Touch with Us Today.