Renewal

Most people wait for the new year, a new month, a new week, or another day to start something new. When the calendar flips from one year to the next, this is when people gear up to make changes. Hoping these changes will be lifelong. A fresh start, if you will. A new year, new you. Some only make it a few weeks, some a few months, others not even a day. Why, though? Why can't we seem to stick out the renewal process?

Why did I decide to wait until March to talk about renewal, when most others talk about this at the beginning of the year? I waited because Spring is the time when God says this is the renewal of a new season, a time for life to being anew. Spring brings along with it, flowers in bloom and their sweet fragrance. The trees get back their color. The sun shines even brighter in the sky. The crispness of the air thaws a little. The warmth returns.

The bird's chirp and the creatures of this earth move about with an energy not seen in months. It felt fitting to me to wait for this season of renewal to talk about renewal.

I think some can't stick it out because we go about it the wrong way. We start too fast, with no preparation, no concept of how we are to execute our plan. Most of the time when we want to start something, we plan it out. A game plan, if you will. We put together an outline of what it is going to look like. An itinerary of what we plan to do. Romans 12:2 says that we should not conform to the world, but instead, we are to be transformed by the renewal of our minds. "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is —His good, pleasing and perfect will."

Renewal

How do we renew our minds? Renewal needs to start with the Word of God. Filling our minds with God's truth, His Word. We do this by studying the Word of God.

Researching, learning, gleaning, gathering, praying, listening, and doing. Because our transformation starts with our minds. When our minds are filled with God, true and lasting transformation occurs.

Once we can wrap our minds around who God is, what His truths are, then we can transfer this over to other areas of our lives. As the saying goes, it's mind over matter. If we put our minds to it, we can do it. This is true, yes, but let's take it a step further. With God ALL things are possible, and if we renew our minds daily with who He is, we can achieve the goal that we have set before us.

With God's Word guiding and leading us, wonderful, amazing things can and will happen.

Renewal is something that we should always strive for. It's something that we shouldn't have to wait for a certain time of year. It doesn't matter when we start the renewal process. It only matters that we start.

"DO NOT CONFORM TO THE PATTERN OF THIS WORLD, BUT BE TRANSFORMED BY THE RENEWING OF YOUR MIND. THEN YOU WILL BE ABLE TO TEST AND APPROVE WHAT GOD'S WILL IS—HIS GOOD, PLEASING AND PERFECT WILL."
ROMANS 12:2 NIV

Digging deeper

What it means to dig deeper.

Read: Read the Bible verse of the day. Don't forget that when you read a Bible verse, you also need to look at the context surrounding it.

Cross-reference: Reference another text or part of a text, typically given in order to elaborate on a point.

Research: Look further into what the Bible verse means. Is there an overarching theme throughout the Scriptures? Is it a timeless teaching, meaning does it transcend time? Or is it a cultural concession, meaning was it meant specifically for the time it was written. Then identify how you are to apply this to your own life.

Meditate: Filling your mind with God's Word. Thinking about what you just read and learned.

Write: Write out questions or thoughts about what you just read and learned. Any prayer requests or praise reports that you have.

Pray: Speak with God. Communicate with Him, don't just talk to Him. Praying is communication with the Lord. Prayer is not only asking God for things, but praising Him for what He has done, for what He will do, and what He chooses to do. And don't forget to pray the Scriptures.

Listen: Take time to sit and listen to the Lord's response to your prayers.
