2011 Vision¹

To change my perspective to see as God wants me to see in specific areas of my life: financially, physically, and relationally.

Scripture: As [she] thinketh in [her] heart, so is [she] (Proverbs 23:7)

FINANCIALLY: Proverbs 31:31

Prayer: Father, I thank You for the assignments You have given me and the gifts, talents, and abilities to complete those assignments. I ask that You would help me to know them, to value them, to do them, and to be a good steward over them that You may give me the fruit of my hands, and let my own works praise me in the gates.

PHYSICALLY: 2 Corinthians 4:7; 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Prayer: Father, I thank You for the earthen vessel You have given me that is filled with treasure. I ask that You would help me to not only know my body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, but to also value my body as such that I may be a better steward over the things I allow into my body and my spirit and my soul via my senses that I may glorify You in my body and in my spirit, and in my soul, because I was bought with a price; therefore my body and my spirit and my soul belong to You.

RELATIONALLY: Philippians 2:3-4

Prayer: Father, I thank You for each person You allow me to have relationship with, and I praise You for those You bless me to have fellowship with. I understand not every relationship will result in fellowship, and I accept and trust Your perfect plan will unfold in each of our lives. I ask that regardless of how deep the fellowship or how long the season that Your grace would freely flow through me that I may not do anything through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind, I will esteem others better than myself, not looking to my own interests, but also looking out for the interest of others that I may value each person as the fearfully and wonderfully made individual You created them to be.

Father, I thank You and I praise You for the vision You have given me for 2011. Father, I ask that I would be blessed to have eyes that see and ears that hear, that as I place my trust in You, You will lead, guide and direct my footsteps that I may grow in You and produce fruit worthy of repentance! These things I ask in Jesus name! Amen!
