

October 7, 2009

What Type of Soil are We Cultivating?

| Kingdom of God(Romans 14:17)                                                                                                | The Things of the World(1 John 2:16)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Righteousness2) Peace3) Joy in the Holy Spirit                                                                       | 1) Lust of the flesh2) Lust of the eye3) Pride of life                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus(Romans 8:2a)                                                                             | Law of sin and death(Romans 8:2b)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Fruit of the Spirit(Galatians 5:22-25)                                                                                             | Works of the flesh(Galatians 5:19-21)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1) Love2) Joy3) Peace4) Longsuffering5) Kindness6) Goodness7) Faithfulness8) Gentleness9) Self-Control | 1) Adultery2) Fornication3) Uncleaness4) Lewdness5) Idolatry6) Sorcery7) Hatred8) Contentions9) Jealousy10) Outbursts of anger11) Selfish ambition12) Dissensions13) Heresies14) Envy15) Murder16) Drunkenness17) Revelry18) And the like (all encompassing) |