

Meeting Newsletter, January 10, 2023

Welcome to WoW2, Women of Worship, Women of Witness. This newsletter captures topics discussed during our January 10, 2023, meeting. It seeks to capture some, but not all, key points from our evening together, with like topics being conveniently grouped together. We hope you are blessed as you join us on our journey.

Declaration of Faith: To Be Determined (TBD).

OPENING

We welcomed a new sister into our midst; opened in song and prayer, then started our discussion on our 2023 vision.

DISCUSSION

We began the discussion by looking back at our current vision and then assessing where we are to better determine what moving forward needs to look like.

Our previous vision was “to gain emotional wellness and strength for the Promised Land by believing, receiving, and obeying the truth of God’s Word when it comes to deliverance from bondage, deliverance through sanctification, and deliverance from bitterness and doubt.” Overall, we do believe we took strides towards achieving that goal, so we are either on the edge of our Promised Land or still taking steps towards it. We’ll need to discuss this more as a group to determine where we collectively see ourselves.

We each answered the following questions related to the vision:

“Where am I,”

- What was 2022 like?
- What did you take away?
- What are you hoping for in 2023?

“Where am I in relationship to the vision?”

- What was/am I in bondage to? Have I been delivered from that?
- What does sanctification look like? Does my life look any different in that area than it did last year?
- In what, if any, areas of my life am I experiencing bitterness and/or doubt?”

While each of our answers was different, one thing that stood out is wanting a better understanding of what the word “sanctification” means in a practical, every-day-life way. In addition, for various reasons, some of us found 2022 to be a challenging year; therefore, it was good to be able to reconnect and check-in with each other.

Technical issues plagued the night, so we didn't get very far with beginning to discuss our 2023 vision. Instead, we stopped and prayed, thanking God for 2022 and as led by the Holy Spirit.
