

Practice and Game Uniforms: Return Policy

RETURN OF ITEMS

Upon separation of the Erie Rams, Inc., the following terms will be applied:

- Any game or practice uniform without a labeled last name or any equipment items issued are considered owned by Erie Rams, Inc. and must be returned in good and usable condition no later than your last day with the organization. This includes the older Rams uniforms still in cycle and all practice pinnies. New teams will be issued our new rebranded uniforms with the last name of the athlete on their jersey which is theirs to keep.

- If the above mentioned issued uniform, practice pinnie, or equipment items are not returned upon separation from the organization, items are returned damaged and unusable, the parents of the participant will be responsible for reimbursing the organization for the full purchased amount of each item.

REPLACEMENT OF ITEMS

- In the event of a lost, destroyed or damaged uniform or equipment, you are responsible for the cost of the replacement items. Check is required for replacement of the item(s).

- In the event of uniform normal wear and tear, items should be exchanged for the replacement items. You will not be charged for the cost of replacing items due to normal wear and tear to uniform items.

I thoroughly understand the above agreement and agree to abide by the indicated terms. Should I fail to return any item(s) listed upon separation from the Erie Rams, Inc. Organization, my signature indicates that I will take full responsibility and issue a check to the Erie Rams, Inc. Organization in the full amount for each item dating back to the initial purchase.
