Silver jewellery making classes - creative & relaxed workshops in Leigh-on-Sea

Join us at Castle Collection, a beautiful boutique, jewellery shop and working studio in the heart of Leigh-on-Sea, owned by jeweller Lisa Castle.

Our informal, hands-on silver jewellery making classes are the perfect way to explore your creativity, learn something new, or mark a special occasion with friends or family. You will be taught by experienced jeweller Liz Casey, our workshops guide you through traditional silversmithing techniques such as piercing, filing, soldering, stamping, and hammering. No previous experience is necessary.

What can I make?

We recommend starting with our monthly Stamped & Hammered Silver Ring class – a great introduction to working with silver. You will personalise your ring with your choice of letter and patterned stamps and finish it with a beautiful hammered textured effect.

Prefer to make a silver bangle or cuff instead? Simply let us know when booking and we can quote you a price for the extra silver required.

Please see overleaf for our monthly class dates
