Please be mindful of the recital dates and times which were included in the Summer and Fall Newsletters. But for those of you who may have overlooked newsletters, the dates are listed to the left. Newsletters can always be found on our website: <http://www.DCFMC.org>. Date for Baroque Festival has been changed from Easter Sunday, April 5, 2015 to Sunday April 12, 2015 at the Steinway Piano Gallery. All other recitals and competitions remain at Jordan Kitts.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The dues are now $35.00 for individual members and remain at $50.00 for clubs. Although this increase is necessary, DCFMC still remains the least expensive not-for-profit music organization in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area. Dues notification letters were enclosed with the Fall newsletter for those members who may have overlooked the dues notification. Gentle reminder to those members who have not remitted dues, thank you in advance. As always your continued support is requested and greatly appreciated. DCFMC looks forward to presenting even more performance opportunities for all!!

PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

The first Musicale for this performance year was held Sunday, February 1, 2015 hosted by DCFMC President Muriel Hom. Featured artists for the Musicale were DCFMC Members Linda Gilbert performing Schumann's Papillons Op. 2 and Linda Tsan performing two Chopin nocturnes, Nocturne Op. 72, No. 1 and Nocturne Ope. 9, No. 1.

December at Strathmore 2014

We were once again honored with performances from our Nancy Peery Marriott Piano Competition First and Second Place Winners. Additionally, thrilling renditions were given by DCFMC Tenor Hung Fa Chu and Jazz vocalist Lena Seikaly accompanied by DCFMC Member Steven Hom on guitar.

UNDER AGE 11 Recital Sunday, November 30, 2014: "We had great attendance at the recital. There were 23 performers altogether and everyone showed up. Also, we had some very young students who were performing for the first time, which was great to witness." Chairperson Natassja Linzau

Under Age 11 Recital -- What a Family Affair!
