

Reverend Angela Fox Wheeler was born and raised in Washington, DC by Rev. Isaac and Deaconess Jessie Fox. She is the proud parent of Christopher, Cynthia, and Curtis Wheeler. Over the years, as a member of Vermont Avenue Baptist Church, she has held many hats – High School Sunday school teacher, Children’s Choir co-director, Choir member, and Pianist.

She is the owner of RevAnna992LLC which features original works of poetry, inspiration, self-help, and fun children’s books. She has recently released a self-help book entitled “Life In A Minor Key – Living with Depression”.

Rev Wheeler has an AA in Computer Programing, a BS in Systems Analysis and Design, a MA in Religious Studies, and was ordained in December 2013 by the Esoteric Interfaith Church.

After 15 years in the private sector and 25 in the Federal Government, she retired in Dec 2018 to focus on her non-profit – Anna’s Place Mission. She also runs the According To His Word Worship Hour which was organized with the purpose of promoting themes of Social Justice and Community Outreach, while providing Spiritual Nourishment and Fellowship.

Anna’s Place Mission

Homeless Outreach

- “One Drop” Bags – basic hygiene and ready to eat food delivered street side

Senior Outreach

- “One Drop” Bags – delivered quarterly in conjunction with local churches as resources are available
- “One Drop”, a quarterly magazine, that presents topics relevant to Seniors as part of the Senior Outreach program

Youth Outreach

- Future Endeavor