Do I have to have a wedding/event date and a venue to make an appointment? Yes. A wedding/event date and a venue booked are a must before making an appointment.

What is a realistic average floral/event design budget? Floral costs are based on multiple factors, such as floral selections, seasonality, guest count, etc. A good tip is to set aside a floral budget that is a minimum of 15-20% of the overall wedding budget. Example: $50,000 (wedding) * .15= $7,500 floral budget. This does NOT include linens or rentals.

Do you have budget minimums? Budget minimums depend on details, such as style, guest count, location, and season. Our full production weddings and events begin at $2,500. Most weddings cater to 150 guests, so a realistic cost for flowers is around $4,000 based on the number of ceremony and reception florals. (Weddings/Events less than 100 guest inquire different minimum, please contact us for more info). Some brides will order Bridal party flowers ONLY which include bridal bouquet, bridesmaids bouquets, junior bridesmaids bouquets, boutonnieres, corsages, petals, and more. We have the options of delivery or pickup the day before or morning of the wedding. Our minimum on Bridal Party flowers is $500.

What does full production include? Full production includes flowers and design, delivery, and setup and breakdown. Our floral team will on-site to ensure timely delivery & execute details of your wedding flowers and decor until it looks perfect! We will also breakdown after the wedding so this will avoid missing or broken items. After the reception, the flowers can go home with your family/guests or donated to a nursing home and other donations of your choice.
