Corresponding Secretary

Our MWC continues to receive updates, newsletters and requests for donations from the many organizations that we have supported in the past. Some of these organizations include Heifer International, Autism Speaks, Cathedral Kitchen, Providence House, Literacy NJ, Covenant House, Little Hands-Little Feet, Alzheimer's Association and many more. A Thank You letter was sent to Enid Farina, our Scentsy representative, for her incredible generosity and providing our club members with another fun fundraising event. Enid once again is donating an amazing 60% portion of the sales which will benefit our MWC Scholarship program. We are very grateful for having such a wonderful and giving friend!

Well Done, Ladies!

The Garden District Rutgers University Pantry donations from our members last month were very generous - 14 tightly packed grocery bags filled with requested items. Approximate total value - $425. Many thanks to those who dropped off donations and to Donna Gatti for coordinating.

Fundraising

Before you start cleaning out those closets, remember to save sellable items for our yard sale, which we hope to have again this spring.

A good tip is to leave a box in one of your closets, and drop things in it as you go throughout the year and find something that is good for the yard sale. Then when yard sale time comes around, you don't have to scurry around. Voila!

Domestic Violence Awareness

Human trafficking involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to obtain some type of labor or commercial sex act. Every year, millions of men, women and children are trafficked world-wide-including here in the United States. Traffickers prey on people who are susceptible for a variety of reasons, including psychological or emotional vulnerability, economic hardship, lack of a social safety net, natural disasters or political instability. Language barriers, fear of their traffickers and/or fear of law enforcement keep victims from seeking help, making human trafficking a hidden crime. Former victims who have been able to escape their desperate situations are becoming more publicly vocal to share their stories in an effort to prevent and end these horrific activities.

Here are some surprising sex trafficking numbers – 10,583 cases were reported through the Human Trafficking Hotline in 2020 ... 42% of victims were recruited by their families ... 43% of adults were recruited online via WeChat – 36% on Facebook ... 12% of trafficking victims are age 13 or younger. How to get out and get help – these organizations can assist: National Human Trafficking Hotline 888-373-7888, and National Center for Missing & Exploited Children 800-843-5678.

The Marlton Woman’s Club is proud to support Covenant House in Atlantic City in its quest to help New Jersey youth facing homelessness and human trafficking by providing residential care and a variety of services.

as the world closes in around her, she's also a pilot's daughter. Lost off radar in the middle of the vast Pacific Ocean, the motive behind the hijacking remains a mystery. Not knowing who to trust, Cora works with the man seated beside her, Seattle Homicide Detective Kyle Adams, to save herself along with the remaining one hundred and fifty-four souls on board.

Member Spotlight: Debbie Price

My name is Debbie Price and I was invited to join the Marlton Woman's Club by Laudine Markovchick, a former member. I ran into her at Boscov's while she was selling the Friends Helping Friends coupons for the MWC. She told me all about the MWC and invited me to come to the next meeting. I am so glad she did! I never would have known about it. I worked with Laudine many times while our kids went to DeMasi. We were both involved in the PTA. She told me the MWC was similar to PTA and she thought I would like it. She was right!

I am originally from St. Louis, Missouri. I moved here when I was 11 when my dad was transferred. We moved to Willingboro, where I finished middle and high school. After high school I attended Harcum College, a small, private girls college in Bryn Mawr. I studied travel, tourism/hotel motel management.

After graduating, I was unable to find a job in my field so I went into apartment leasing/management. I really enjoyed that business and worked in the field for many years. While working in the leasing business I married my high school sweetheart when I was 21 and he was 22. We started a family after a few years. I stopped working to stay at home with my first child and was a stay at home mom for about 12 years. While I wasn't working outside the home I was a room parent, PTA board member and Girl Scout leader. After my youngest was in school, I went back to work part-time working with children as an arts and crafts teacher/activity class assistant for Miss Sally's Play Time Place. Later, I went to work at Jellybean Jungle where I still work as a preschool teacher and store manager.

We have two children. My daughter Jenny, 29, is a zoo keeper at the Philadelphia Zoo. It is her dream job! She lives with us and is looking for a house to buy with her boyfriend. My son Brian, 26, currently works at the Live Casino in Philadelphia as a slot technician. He has always loved taking things apart and putting them back together so we are not surprised he found a job fixing things. He lives in an apartment in Marlton with his fiancée. We are looking forward to his wedding in the near future.

I live in the Cambridge Park area of Marlton with my husband of 33 years, Tim, our daughter and our 2 dogs. I love going to the beach, casinos (I especially love the pools) taking my dog to the dog park, getting my nails done, dining out etc. We love cruising to anywhere. I always enjoy helping people whenever I can. I am happy to be a member of the MWC. I wish I could participate in more activities but I work on Saturdays and a lot of things take place while I am working. I will do what I can when events take place on other days. I am grateful to have found this wonderful group of like-minded women to volunteer with.
