SUMMER SUNDAY ADULT BIBLE CLASS: THE RISE OF DENOMINATIONALISM

Join Sunday Adult Bible Class for our new study called: "The Rise of Denominationalism." In this topical study, we will explore the origins of many of the denominations we see today and investigate their key teachings, highlighting areas of agreement and areas of disagreement. This will not only help us better understand other Christians but also help us better understand our own Lutheran convictions as well.

- Board of Trustees has an open position for the remainder of 2022. If you have an interest in filling out this term please contact any trustee, the church office, or Pastor Tyler.
- I am still looking for someone to take over the "flower duties." Position consists of receiving requests for flowers for special occasions, in memory or honor of someone or something. Then you contact Marketplace to order, pick up on Friday and deliver to church Sunday by 8:30, and put flowers out on the altar for church service. I can explain more of this to whomever is willing to step into this role. It's an easy position and an important role in helping our church look beautiful. More details to anyone interested. I would like to be relieved of this duty by mid-July. Myra Steere
- August is Zion's turn to do Meals on Wheels. I'm looking for volunteers to help deliver meals. Please sign up on the sheet in the Narthex. No previous experience needed! This is Monday-Friday and drivers are needed for two routes. Please see Shelley Josephson if you have any questions.

A PRAYER BEFORE WORSHIP ON THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Lord God, heavenly Father, we give you thanks that through your holy Word you have called us to your great supper of eternal life. Awaken our hearts by your Holy Spirit, that we may not hear your Word and produce no fruit, but that we may prepare ourselves rightly for your heavenly banquet and not allow ourselves to be hindered by any worldly care; through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one true God, now and forever.

SUMMARY OF THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Wisdom has issued an invitation to the divine feast: “Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed. Leave your simple ways, and live, and walk in the way of insight” (Proverbs 9:5-6). This is the call of the Spirit of Christ to believe the Gospel and to receive His saving gifts in the Holy Supper. Many make excuses and reject this invitation, even as the Jews did in the days of Jesus, yet the Master’s house will be filled. The Gospel call therefore goes out to the lowly and despised, into the highways, even to all the Gentiles (Luke 14:15-24). For “you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ” (Ephesians 2:13-22). In Christ, believing Jews and Gentiles are no longer strangers but fellow members of the household of God. The enmity of class and race is put to death through the cross. Having been reconciled in the one Body of Christ, we are enabled to love one another (1 John 3:13-18) as we await the marriage feast of the Lamb in His kingdom which will have no end.
