

Community Prayer for February

Spirit is Calling

First, I pause, I breathe, and pause again...

The infinite potential of life is available right here, right now. I turn my attention to It.

I focus on the ways of It, including love, peace, and joy.

This Intelligence and Perfect Power exists in all and benefits all.

I listen for its expression through me, an experience that enlivens me with purpose and enthusiasm for life. It is my personal call with Spirit that I honor with my full attention, open heart, and willing mind.

I am now and always alive with the spirit of this Almighty Intelligence.

I give thanks for Its expression in, through, and as me. And so it is.
