Extraordinary Power for the (extra)Ordinary Person

In the silence, power is born in me.

Transcending power, energizing power, the power to do and to be, enduring power, the power to say yes, and the power to say no, all are born in the silent realm of Spirit within my being.

There may be many different kinds of power, but there is only one source of power, God, and the presence of God is in me.

My power to think spiritual truth is the power of God. My power to declare the healing word of Truth is the power of God. I am grateful for the many ways God's power is expressed through me. And so it is.
