

Our Community Prayer for March
Embracing Grace

In this moment, I consciously acknowledge the Presence.

Surrounding and within me is every possibility for life. Trusting the choice is always mine, I accept the inspiration I receive to recognize and align with the divine qualities and aspects that resonate within me. As I trust and engage with this activity, I experience it more fully, and a perfect path is revealed through me to express the divinity within me more fully, completely, and sincerely.

I appreciate the many big and small ways my acceptance of this good is expressed throughout life. In joy and gratitude for life's potential.

I let it be in and as me. And so it is.
