

Our Community Prayer for November

High Vibrations

With an open mind and grateful heart, I align my thoughts and feelings with spiritual truth. One Life, One Power, and the infinite potential of love.

Filled with the energy of oneness and the vibration of gratitude, I boldly live as the expression of God that I am.

Entrusted and empowered to share my gifts, I give generously and appreciate deeply being an active participant in the goodness of life.

Grateful for the vibration of love and the energy of joy within me now, I release this word with confidence that it is revealed perfectly and let it be so. And so it is.
