

Our Community Prayer for July

Freedom Today

I recognize that there is a Creative Intelligence expressing through all of life. It is Omniscient, Omnipotent, and Omnipresent. Freedom is a Divine Reality of this Life and therefore a birthright of every living soul. It is mine to know, experience, and express.

I declare “I am free”! Free to choose and free to align with the Creative Power moving through me. In this unity, with a calm sense of peace and assurance, I mindfully direct my awareness to the Truth that sets me Free: God, Spirit, Divine Love, Infinite Intelligence always has been and will be right here, in my relationships, my well-being, and my creative expression.

I accept this with great gratitude and live it with enthusiasm and joy!

And so it is.
