Our Community Prayer

November – Gratitude Prepares Us

In this moment, I bring my awareness to the Presence.
It is always here, awaiting my recognition of it.

I recognize It as the Power within all life and know It is active in my life now.

I sense it as unconditioned and unconditional Love and experience It in my relationships.
I feel it as deep abiding Peace and claim It in every activity of my life now.

As I know this Presence in ever increasing ways
my gratitude for life expands, and I find myself engaging as a conduit for greater and greater good.

I am grateful for the ways Life is leading and guiding me.
I let go and let It be.
And so it is.
