Alderman Jim Gardiner and Ottawa Fire Department Join in Endorsing Stephanie Kifowit for Comptroller

SPRINGFIELD, IL – The growing list of solidarity and support continues to grow at a rapid pace for State Representative Stephanie Kifowit in her bid to become Illinois next Comptroller.

Alderman Jim Gardiner, joins the list of elected officials who are endorsing Representative Kifowit for Comptroller citing her experience and support of local firefighters and her 20+ years experience as a financial expert. Alderman Gardiner is the Alderman of the 45th Ward, was first elected in 2019 and subsequently re-elected, and a former firefighter and teacher.

Joining the endorsement of Alderman Gardiner, is Ottawa Firefighters IAFF Local 523.

“We are proud to support Stephanie Kifowit for Illinois Comptroller because of her proven commitment to fiscal responsibility, transparency, and accountable government”, stated President Bryce Johnson.

“Throughout her time as an Illinois State Representative, Stephanie has demonstrated strong leadership on issues that matter to working families, small businesses, and taxpayers across the state”.

This united front from additional Illinois firefighters adds formidable strength to Kifowit’s growing coalition, which includes Chicago Firefighters Local 2, Aurora Firefighters Local 99, Naperville Firefighters IAFF Local 4302, Local Painters District Councils 14, 30, and 58; the United Union of Roofers, Waterproofers and Allied Workers Local 11; Cement and Plasterers Local 502; United Steelworkers District 7 and Local 17; Illinois Federation of Public Employees, Local 4408, and National Association of Letter Carriers Local 219.

“I am honored by the trust and faith of the firefighters of the Ottawa Fire Department”, stated Kifowit.

“People who put their lives on the line everyday see how vital it is to have a Comptroller who has the experience to manage the payments for vital equipment and support they need.
