

Dear NYTC Community members,

In accordance with the Constitution of New York Tanzanian Community (NYTC), Section 3.6, which empowers the Executive Committee to fill any vacancy, after consultation with the Board of Trustees, we hereby announce the appointments below to fill the remaining positions in the Executive Committee following the election of new leadership on April 29, 2023:

1) Dr. Mwemezi Basil Deusededit – SECRETARY

Mwemezi is currently Director of Outpatient Clinical Documentation and Coding Integrity at Allegheny Health Network, in Pittsburgh, P.A. He is also Board Member at Diaspora Council of Tanzania (DICOTA).

2) Dr. Nyemo Mbennah – DEPUTY TREASURER

Nyemo is currently an internal medicine resident physician at Northwell Health, Long Island Jewish Forest Hills Hospital in Forest Hills, Queens, NY. She is also Chair of the Medical Students Education Committee at LIJF Medical Center in Queens.

Additionally, in accordance to Section 3.10 (m, n, o) of the same Constitution, the Chairperson of NYTC Executive Committee, hereby makes the following appointment as an ad-hoc/special committee role that will work alongside the Executive Committee on issues related to communication technology:

3) Eng. Kinyasi Monyi – CHIEF TECHNOLOGY OFFICER

Kinyasi is an IT specialist, focused on Cybersecurity, Cloud Computing and ServiceNow at AWS (Amazon Web Services). He is also the immediate former Deputy Treasurer of the NYTC Executive Committee.

Executive Committee anticipates to make additional appointments in the future to other ad-hoc/special and standing committees roles, to widen the participation and diversity of its team, and to also bring efficiency in the execution of its tasks. We hereby call all community members who are ready and willing to volunteer at a committee level to reach out to the Executive team, so that together, we can build a stronger community.
