Who we are?

Founded by a former U.S. Army interpreter in Afghanistan in 2022, we possess a distinguished history of collaboration with a multitude of U.S. government agencies and esteemed clientele. Our dedication to excellence is demonstrated through our unwavering commitment to providing superior interpretation and translation services.

Currently, our linguistic expertise is focused on Dari, Pashto, Urdu, Farsi, and other local Afghan languages. We are adept in delivering incisive analyses pertaining to Afghanistan's pivotal circumstances, alongside authoritative assessments in the realms of trade, economic development, industrial progress, and the intricacies of cultural geopolitics.

The founder's journey from Afghanistan, serving alongside the U.S. Army as an interpreter involved critical roles in various units. The experience shaped the company's ethos focused on collaboration and international solidarity. The business aims to make a difference by embodying values of service and excellence, building bridges between people, cultures, and nations.
