Scholarship Application

Avalon Family Charities, Inc. (“AFC”) was established in 2020 as an equine charity. Its scholarship fund was later established to honor Jodi Missak Fulton, and her love and commitment to horses and equine students. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit, the applicant’s academic grades (if applicable), a resume demonstrating extracurricular activities in relation to the applicant’s equestrian career, and an essay describing how horses and/or showing has impacted the applicant’s life.

Purpose: To provide scholarships to riders to expand their education either in how to ride or opportunities to compete.

Use of Funds: Up to $20,000 annually may be distributed per year and may be divided among selected candidates. More than one recipient may be chosen per year. The scholarship money will be paid directly to the recipient or the parent, if the recipient is a minor, and must be used entirely for intended purposes.

Qualifications: Applicant must be previously involved in equestrian sports.

Deadline: Completed application, resume, and essay must be submitted by June 15th.
