

Terms and Conditions for Cedar County Weather Radio Giveaway:

Cedar County Emergency Management Agency is offering residents of Cedar County the opportunity to receive a free weather radio upon the completion (and sharing) of a Family Emergency Plan. This program is limited to current residents of Cedar County, Iowa. To be eligible for a free weather radio, resident must obtain and complete a family emergency plan, using templates provided by Cedar County Emergency Management. Printed templates are available at Cedar County Emergency Management Agency, or copies of the template can be obtained through the Cedar County EMA website at <http://ema.cedar-county.org>. To receive weather radio, completed family emergency plan must be presented, in person, by head of household or designee, at Cedar County Emergency Management Agency, 1410 Cedar Street, Tipton, IA.

1. Program limits one free weather radio per household, residence, address, family and/or dwelling.
2. There are a limited number of weather radios available; first come, first served.
3. Once supply of weather radios is exhausted, it is unknown whether this program will be funded in future years.
4. Cedar County Emergency Management and Cedar County do not guarantee performance or alerting and take no liability if weather radio does not alert as resident expects and offer no warranty on weather radio.
5. Cedar County Emergency Management will provide weather radio, power cord and batteries at no charge to resident completing plan; further, Cedar County Emergency Management will have no further warranty and will provide no further accessories/batteries for the weather radio.
6. Weather radios cannot be shipped; item must be picked up at the Emergency Management office at 1410 Cedar Street, Tipton. Regular business hours are 8:30am – 3:30pm.
7. Simply requesting a family emergency plan template does not guarantee a free weather radio; completed template is required to receive radio.
8. Family Emergency Plans must be presented in person, plans cannot be presented in electronic format.
9. Program begins on September 1, 2021 and is subject to change at any time.

This project has been made possible by a generous grant from the Community Foundation of Cedar County.
