

Long-Term Goals

In the space provided below, list your long-term goals. Long-term goals could be anything that pertains to your playing. Think big! About what do you dream? Whatever it is, write it down. These are your goals, take ownership of them, and strive to achieve them. What are the major accomplishments that you want to achieve in your playing? See goal examples on page 5 of the book. If you are a student, you may want to discuss your goals with your teacher or bring this to your lesson and ask your teacher to help you fill out the goal section. Including your teacher will help them to know you better and will help them to guide you toward achieving your goals.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
