Evidence of God

1. There is no such thing as “nothing.” “Nothing” has never existed. If it did, there would still be “nothing.” No evolutionist has a credible explanation in this area. Even the smallest organism to begin a “random mutation” had to come from some place. Albert Einstein believed the universe was created by a massive intelligence (see T. Aquinas, “The Necessity of God”).
2. The circumstantial evidence is overwhelming. Just as every invention has a designer, the universe and everything in it (working together in sync) is all circumstantial evidence of an intelligent creator. Many scientists have found evidence of this not only in the fossil record, but also in the study of creation (See ICR - Institute of Creation Research). God Himself is reflected in creation, and especially in mankind. Scientists are spending billions to hear sounds in the universe. Our creator, on the other hand, has already spoken to us, became one of us, and personally delivered His message to us through the Lord Jesus Christ.

3. Physical evidence for God is seen in the nation of Israel. The history of the nation of Israel, including its origin and relationship with God has always been visible and open for examination. Discoveries in archaeology (including the Dead Sea Scrolls) have repeatedly affirmed the credibility of the Old Testament.
4. Physical evidence for Jesus Christ is vividly seen in the Church. The historical records from the age of the apostles number around 30,000, including around 5,000 complete or almost complete copies of the New Testament. This far outnumbers other historical documents from this period, and it comes from a time where writing was a lot more difficult.
5. The survival and growth of the Church is also “physical evidence”. Thousands of Christians were courageous enough to proclaim and practice their faith in the face of death. For many, relief did not come until the third century under Constantine’s “Edict of Milan” (Eusebius). However, many Christians in recent times still meet under the threat of death. In spite of massive oppression, the Church of Jesus Christ continues to grow as our Lord predicted.

6. God reveals Himself to those who love Jesus.

“Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them.” John 14:21.

“If anyone wants to do his will, he will know whether the teaching is from God...” John 7:17.

“Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me.” Revelation 3:20.

The words in red are the stated promises of Jesus to reveal Himself. This, as well as answers to prayer, explain the willingness of early and present day Christians to face death for faith in Jesus Christ. One early Christian wrote, “the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church.”

In closing,

1. Read and follow the words of Jesus. Our Lord has miraculously preserved His teachings and testimony in what is known as the New Testament. New Testament bibles are easily obtainable today. Word of Life would be happy to provide a copy to anyone upon request. Call 888 441-2151 or 925 726-4007.
2. Not only must we hear God's Word, but there must be prayer. You must open your heart to God in private and talk to Him. Ask God to forgive all of your wrongdoing, and share with Him all of your questions and concerns. Ask God to help you follow His Word, and especially to give you His Spirit - the Holy Spirit. You cannot draw near to God without forgiveness, the receiving of His Word, and the Holy Spirit.
3. Water baptism represents the forgiveness of sins, and cleansing from God. It is also a witness of our commitment to follow Jesus Christ, our resurrection to a new life - a life that begins now, and a life that we will now live to the glory and praise of God.
4. The new life will be difficult at first, and we will be persecuted as our Lord was persecuted, but God has promised to help us through this transition. Jesus said in Matthew 19:27,

“And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields because of my name will receive a hundred times more and will inherit eternal life.”

Everyone who makes this commitment to Jesus Christ enters a relationship that will last forever. God will help you to avoid many problems, accomplish much for His glory, and eventually bring you to Himself for eternity.

Titus 2:11-14

11 For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. 12 It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, 13 while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, 14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good.
