

PLEASE SUPPORT MS. D.W. OSBORNE NEW BOOK!!

The president & members of Citizens & Friends of Trinidad and Tobago, Inc., are so very proud of our former member and lifelong supporter Mrs. D W. Osborne.

D.W. Osborne (formerly known as Patterson) began her writing journey at the age of nine. Her talent was quickly recognized when she won a national competition and was published in the Trinidad Express.

She attended Aranguez Junior Secondary School (AJSS), where she nurtured her love for writing and began competing in calypso competitions across Trinidad, even sharing the stage with iconic Singing Francine. She later attended Malick Senior Comprehensive School, where she was named Student of the Year. An all-around athlete, she represented both schools in track and field, soccer, cricket and netball. She also ran for the Morvant Jets under renowned coach Frankie Francis.

Academically she holds two psychology degrees and graduated in the top 1% of her class. She was honored with an academic award from Citizens and Friends of Trinidad and Tobago, as well as the President's Award from Bajans and Friends for Health and Education, in recognition of her outstanding contributions to community service. She is a proud mother of three and grandmother of three, the birth of her grandson in 2023 reignited her creative fire.

Today D. W. Osborne is a published author of children's stories, collaborative books, shelf-help workbooks, and journals, which are available at amazon.com. Her writing is infused with her rich Caribbean heritage, deep compassion and a lifelong passion for storytelling and personal growth
