A NOTE FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

I am incredibly proud of each and every one of our Dolphins for bringing The Aristocats to life on our school stage. Your commitment, teamwork, and enthusiasm have shine through every rehearsal and performance, reminding us that a successful production is built on creativity, perseverance, and collaboration, all positive character traits we discuss on campus. Whether you are singing, acting, dancing, working behind the scenes, or supporting one another along the way, you demonstrate confidence, responsibility, and a willingness to step outside your comfort zone. You embrace challenges with positive attitudes and show what is possible when students work together toward a common goal. This production is not just entertaining—it is also a powerful example of how the arts help us grow as learners and as people. Bravo to the amazing Ms. Miars, her brilliant choreographer Carmela Miars, our talented students and our parent volunteers for the countless hours you have all poured into this production to represent our school with true Dolphin pride!

Regards,

Dr. Kevin Smith-Johnson

A NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

Welcome to Disney's The Aristocats KIDS! Set in the heart of Paris, this charming musical tells the story of Duchess and her kittens as they discover that family, friendship, and kindness are what matters most. Filled with memorable music and lively characters, The Aristocats celebrates working together and finding where you belong.

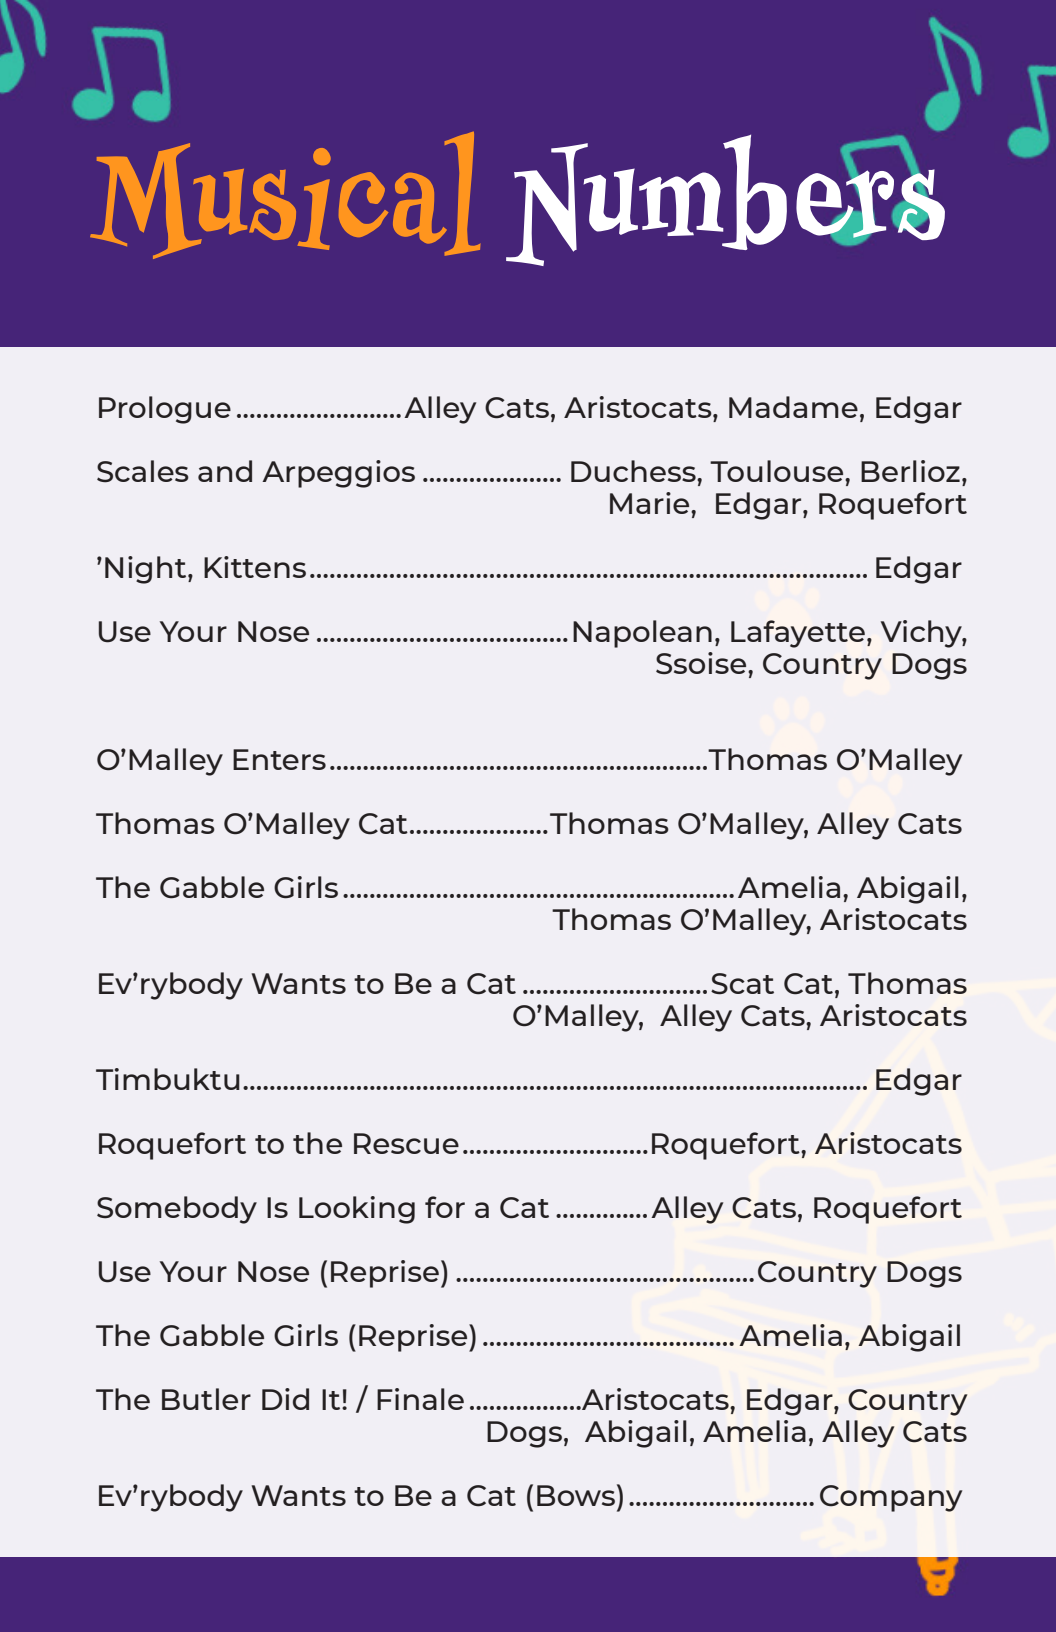

This production reflects the kind of learning that supports children as they grow. Through singing, movement, and storytelling, students practice important life skills in a meaningful way—listening, cooperating, following through, and expressing themselves with confidence. Experiences like this are a vital part of child development, helping students build self-assurance, responsibility, and a sense of connection, all while doing something joyful and creative.

We are incredibly proud of the Peterson Choir students for the commitment they brought to this process. Learning music, choreography (yes, all that choreography!), and staging takes focus and persistence, especially while balancing school and other responsibilities. Throughout rehearsals, students showed growth, teamwork, and a willingness to keep improving. They supported one another, took pride in their work, and helped create a performance that represents their best effort.

To our cast: congratulations on what you have accomplished. You should be proud of the hard work you put in and the way you came together as a group. It has been a pleasure working with you and watching your confidence grow along the way. Thank you for sharing your talents and your dedication with us and with your audience.

After all your hard work and fun on stage, it's clear—everybody wants to be a cat... meow!

With pride and appreciation,
Your Directing Team
Anna Miars and Carmela Miars
