

Families that will be distance learning in the fall of 20/21 will need access to a printer and printer ink at home to make their experience successful.