By signing below, I consent and agree to the Feathers of A Flock Volunteer Policies and the following disclaimer:

Our primary concern is the well-being of these Birds. The majority of them have at some time either been abused, neglected, or sick or injured. If you become a Feathers of A Flock Sanctuary Volunteer, there are a few policies we wish to address directly to avoid any misunderstandings later on. Our volunteers are our most valuable assets, and we'd like to keep it that way.

As a Feathers of A Flock Sanctuary Volunteer, you may, from time to time be trusted with confidential personal information regarding, but not limited to address, telephone, and other personal information of other Feathers of A Flock Sanctuary volunteers.

It is our policy that this information is not only proprietary, but confidential as well. In the interest of professionalism, no one who volunteers for Feathers of A Flock Sanctuary will be authorized to share, or otherwise disseminate this information for any reason, not limited to sales pitches, business opportunities, or any other activities which may present a conflict of interest, or otherwise result in any harm to Feathers of A Flock Sanctuary or any of its agents, Reps , or other volunteers. No Volunteer will be authorized to share our location or whereabouts to anyone outside Feathers of A Flock Sanctuary.

As a volunteer it is agreed that if a breach occurs, you as the party responsible will pay for an attorney fees or other expense happening as a result. All expenses must be approved by the board and supervised by a Feathers of A Flock Board Representative.

By returning this application, you are certifying that you will abide by each and every one of these terms, as well as the terms of the application packet.
