

BARTMAN HILL TRAILBlaze Color: Light Blue

Distance: 0.6 mile

Difficulty: Strenuous. Steep trail connects Visitor Center to Appalachian Trail (A.T.). Turn left on the A.T. to go north or right to go south.

BIG RED TRAILBlaze Color: Red

Distance: 4.5 miles

Difficulty: Strenuous. The longest trail in the park, Big Red is a complete circle with many access points.

CAMP LOOP TRAILBlaze Color: Orange

Distance: 1 mile

Difficulty: Moderate.

Adding a short section of the Big Red Trail makes this a 1.5 mile loop. Hilly by the lake.

COPPERHEAD TRAILBlaze Color: Green

Distance: 0.4 mile

Difficulty: Moderate.

Parallels a section of the Big Red Trail.

GREEN TRAILBlaze Color: Green

Distance: 0.8 mile

Difficulty: Moderate.

Loop trail starting at the Visitor Center. Good for beginning hikers.

MARKED MILEBlaze Color: White Arrows

Distance: 1 mile

Difficulty: Easy. Follow white arrows on paved surfaces in the day use area for exactly a mile walk. Starts at the "X" near the Visitor Center.

ROCK OAK FIRE TRAILBlaze Color: Blue

Distance: 1.5 miles

Difficulty: Moderate.

Parallels Snelling Fire Trail. Includes one steep section.

SNELLING FIRE TRAILBlaze Color: Silver

Distance: 1 mile

Difficulty: Moderate.

Fairly flat; steep section in the middle.

YELLOW TRAILBlaze Color: Yellow

Distance: 2.5 miles

Difficulty: Moderate. Runs from boat launch to the Red Trail.

HIT THE TRAILS

Mountain bikes are welcome on all Greenbrier State Park trails except on the face of the dam, on a section of un-blazed trail between the Rock Oak Fire Trail (blue) and the dam, and the Bartman Hill Trail. Bikes are NOT permitted on the Appalachian Trail.

Pets are not allowed within the developed areas the day before Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day. Pets on leashes are welcome on the trails and on the A.T. Hikers with pets must use Mountain Laurel Road and Greenbrier Road parking lots May–Sept.

Several Greenbrier trails are in public hunting lands. The most popular hunting seasons are Sept.–Jan. and April–May. Wear bright colors during these times.

