Instructions for Scavenger Hunt

DOWNTOWN
Glen Ellyn

- Write the name of the origami object next to the participating store on your Scavenger Map.
- The 27 origami pieces each include a sign detailing its name, designer and description at a different storefront in Downtown Glen Ellyn.
- Return the completed Origami Scavenger Hunt card to either the Glen Ellyn Public Library or the Bookstore of Glen Ellyn by August 1, 2025.
- By submitting the card, you will receive a prize and be entered for a chance to win 4 tickets to Hokusai and Ukiyo-e: The Floating World.
- At the conclusion, in August, all origami pieces will be available to view at the Glen Ellyn Public Library.
- Join the Wrap-Up party with an exciting Tsukasa Taiko Drumming performance hosted by the Glen Ellyn Public Library on August 9, 2-3PM. Registration Required.

Each Origami piece was created by the Chicago Area Origami Society. CHAOS is a group for origami enthusiasts, learners, folders and designers. Attend our free monthly meeting every 2nd Saturday of the month from 12:00 - 3:00 PM at the Garfield Park Conservatory. Open to all where we fold, teach and enjoy the art of origami! www.chaosorigami.org

Get ready for an exciting scavenger hunt that promises fun for the whole family!

In celebration of the Cleve Carney Museum of Art's Hokusai exhibition, in partnership with the Bookstore of Glen Ellyn and the Glen Ellyn Public Library, we invite you to participate in the Origami Summer Scavenger Hunt.

Throughout June and July, embark on a delightful adventure as you search for 27 stunning origami art pieces beautifully displayed across Downtown Glen Ellyn.
