

CJ Raceway: Atv Race Report

By Dominique Wilson

Ryder Tenney clinched the 1st overall position for the first round. His exceptional performance was followed by Kolson Conklin, who secured the 2nd overall position, and the class win from the 90cc 4-stroke class. Meanwhile, Cruz Steele got 3rd overall and his class win!

Bodie Buckhannon was able to grab the youth 1st overall spot for this round. Time adjustment was on his side, but he physically was up with the leaders. Kelci Stringfellow showcased impressive agility and determination, finishing 2nd overall. Meanwhile, Zayde Kile secured the 3rd overall position and 2nd place in the Super Mod class.

Adam McGill started the race with a solid performance and successfully took the lead by the third lap. He maintained his position and claimed victory on lap 5. Merely seconds behind him, Branden Owens checked into 2nd place overall. Steven Harrell navigated the challenging course and came home with a 3rd place overall.
