

Maniac Mountain: Atv Race Report

By Dominique Wilson

Casen Jennings had an impressive start, leading the entire race to win both his class and the overall competition. Abigail Halterman dominated the 90cc 2-stroke 6-11 class, finishing over four minutes ahead of her class and securing 2nd place overall. Ryder Tenney stayed close behind Casen but eventually fell back, finishing 2nd in his class and 3rd overall.

Bryson Stringfellow claimed the overall victory due to time adjustments, despite finishing physically behind the leader. Gracie Wolfe, just 23 seconds behind Bryson, secured 2nd place overall through time adjustment. Camden Phillips led physically for three laps, but time adjustments placed him 3rd overall, while he still achieved 1st in his class.

Steven Harrell took the lead on lap 3 and clinched both the class and overall victory by 49 seconds. Braxton Grosse had a strong start and led the first two laps, ultimately securing 2nd place in both class and overall standings. Talan Stout maintained a steady pace, finishing 3rd in his class and overall.
